MONIQUE LEYRAC AT MASSEY HALL

Toronto: Voted Canada's "Woman Of The Year, In Music", Monique Leyrac will make her first Toronto appearance at Massey Hall, Saturday, February 25th., and will carry the two hour show by herself with suitable backing. Miss Leyrac has been dubbed "A Canadian Piaf" and has also shown fantastic talent with show tunes, ala Streisand. Her performance of "Mon Pays" ("My Country") is done with such emotion it usually results in her audiences giving her a standing ovation.

On tap for Miss Leyrac is her April 18th. performance at the Canadian Centennial Ball, to be held in London, England's Grosvenor House Hotel. Other performers included in the starstudded affair are: Shirley Harmer, Bernard Braden and Capitol recording artists Melba and Joso.

Miss Leyrac is a native of Montreal and although capable of singing in both English and French, her repertoire was somewhat restricted to songs of Quebec, which she usually performed before predominantly English audiences. She was literally, an unknown before her appearance at New York's Town Hall last spring, but in show-biz jargon "Left them, wanting more", and that's what they'll have when she returns to New York in April, this time to Carnegie Hall. Her appearance will be preceded by several guestings on the internationally famous "Johnny Carson Show".

Truly an international artist, Miss Leyrac now makes her home in Paris, France, where she has received rave reviews for her appearance at the most famous of European Music Halls, The Olympia. Other international credits include the taking of two firsts, when she represented Canada at the International Song Festival in Sopot, Poland (1964) and the grand prize at the Song Festival in Ostend, Belgium. It was only after these accomplishments that Montreal decided to recognize this great local talent.

Miss Leyrac's material for her first record came about from the combined efforts of well known French

One of Canada's most progressive young independent record labels, Stone Records, is presently leading the way, in Canada, with a UK hit "Gimme Some Lovin'" by The Spencer Davis Group. The disc, now topping the charts in Toronto and up among the top tenners on many of the national charts, can almost be classified as one of those hits out of left field. Although it was a top chart item in England, many of the Canadian broadcasters were slow to react, but a few of the more adventurous jocks took a chance on it and found they had created a hit which greatly influenced the national picture as well as the giant American market.

Bob Stone, President of the hot label, has just assembled the necessary parts for the Groups first album which should be on the market the last week in February. It is also hoped that their follow-up single "I Am A Man", which is already causing a sensation in Toronto and Vancouver (advance copies were acquired by radio stations direct from England) will be on the Canadian market by the end of February.

The Group comes from Birmingham, England, and came about when Spencer Davis was asked to play regularly at one of the downtown "soul" clubs, and he found that alone he could only muster up four numbers and the night was long and four numbers would wear pretty thin. That's why he brought in the services of Muff Winwood, a gas of a bass player and his brother Stevie, who has a whole trunk of talent. He plays piano, guitar and drums. Next to join was Peter York, one of the best trumpet players in the Midlands. Put them all together and you have a travelling road show, and that's what they did. They travelled all over the Birmingham area and although they weren't making much bread, they did work themselves into one of the tightest little groups in the business. Then they turned professional and tied in with Chris Blackwell, producer/manager, of Millie Small "My Girl Lollipop" fame.

Their first disc, "Gimme Some Lovin'" created a big noise in England, and that brings us to the beginning of our story.

Manager Blackwell is due in the States the latter part of February, and it is expected that a tour of the United States and Canada will be arranged. Negotiations will probably be completed for the Groups appearance on the Ed Sullivan show, expected to be sometime in March.

Canadians, Gilles Vigneault and Claude Leveille. The record, on Columbia, "Pleins Feux Sur Monique Leyrac" was an immediate success throughout her native province as well as gaining attention in the international market. In 1964 she was performing hostess on the French network TV series "Pleins Feux", which was one of the major hits of the television season. Also in 1964, she gave a fantastically successful concert at Montreal's Place des Arts and made an equally successful 15 city tour of Quebec. This was also the year for her second Columbia album "Monique Leyrac En Concert". Soviet cultural officials became aware of this prize winning Canadian charmer and asked her to make a two week concert tour of Russia which she undertook in the early fall of last year. Like all Monique Leyrac's appearances, this too was highly successful.

Canadians from coast to coast had their first glimpse of Canada's "Woman Of The Year, In Music" when Monique Leyrac appeared on the CBC-TV network "Special" of Wayne and Shuster on January 9th. of this year.

While in Toronto for her concert, Miss Leyrac has been scheduled for an appearance on the Elwood Glover "Luncheon Date" as well as Ross McLean's "TBA". For the Ontario French Canadian listeners she will be subject of an interview on the powerful CJBC radio outlet.

Monique Leyrac is star of her own 25 minute CBC radio network show which is heard each Wednesday at 1:30 PM EST.

FIVE HOUR "SOUL SHOW" FOR PNE GARDENS

Vancouver: January 27 turned out to be one of the biggest shows to ever hit the Pacific National Exhibition Gardens. The big attraction, all Canadian, was the gathering of the top soul acts in this west coast city. A capacity audience of 1800 with many hundreds more being turned away at the door, were treated to a five hour show, which included Kentish Steele and The Shantelles, Jayson Hoover and The Epics, The Night Train Revue, and The Soul Unlimited.

This was a Jaguar Enterprises Production.

YOUNG CANADA SINGERS NATIONAL BREAKOUT

Toronto: Besides being Canada's Centennial year, this could also be the year to make record history. Harold Winslow of Quality Records reports sales of over 80,000 on their Young Canada Singers single "Canada". Bobby Gimby, who wrote the music and words and also performs on the disc, has just completed a nation-wide promo trip that did much to create an interest in the record. A re-mix of the single has also added interest, from a trade angle.

Many schools have shown an interest in adopting "Canada" as their official school song and because of this interest, many radio stations are purchasing the records from Quality and distributing them to the schools in their area.

It is also interesting to note that because of the bi-bi presentation of this record, school children in predominantly English provinces are learning the French lyrics while those in French speaking areas are picking up the English words.

LET'S GET HUNG UP ON THE VANCOUVER SCENE. This past week I've received several phone calls from Vancouver refugees, and they tell me that the very Americanized west coast city is something else, and they tab it SNOBSVILLE. The big beef of these visitors to the Pacific city is that Vancouver radio is a poor imitation of the American sound and they've even gone so far as to hire American talent so as to make the brainwashing complete (Elvira tells me Toronto had the same situation but the imported brain got cold feet the first day, and it wasn't because of the weather). Anyway, I like Vancouver, and when it happens that I'm able to re-locate in Canada, it'll be Vancouver. After all, you don't have to listen to the radio to know what's on wax. Vancouver record stores stock a lot more than what the San Francisco prophet, dubs hit.

Here's a little more news on Vancouver radio. The Spencer Davis Group are a big item in Vancouver. Their Stone disc "Gimme Some Lovin'" topped the charts for over three weeks. Somehow, one of the top forty stations got hold of the next release by the Group. They had it sent to them from England and bang they went on it like there were thousands of copies in the stores. Hang on to your nickels gang it won't be available until after Feb. 20.

Now if you haven't heard of Pat LaCroix as being Canada's top show-biz photographer, then you might remember him as Pat LaCroix of the Colonials. Doesn't strike a bell? Well, how about Pat LaCroix of The Halifax Three? There you are. Now you got the picture. Well here's another interesting bit. You've heard of Denny Doherty? Well, I won't go through all that Colonial and Halifax Three bit, because you'll probably recognize Denny as one of the Mamas and Papas. Now here's the meat of the story. Pat and his wife have been invited by his old singing buddy, Denny, to spend a couple of weeks at Denny's palatial California beach home. You know what? Pat didn't turn it down. So get yourself prepared for a beautiful picture coverage of one of the members of one of the most popular groups in the world. Here's a footnote. When Pat and Denny were trying to set the world on fire as members of the Halifax Three, Zal Yanovsky accompanied them on a few occasions and I don't have to tell you about this famous Canadian. Well, we might not be making it as Canadian recording stars but many American groups are making it because of Canadian recording stars. Figure that one out, and while you're at it take a look at the next big group that's going to make an international noise. They're called The Buffalo Springfield. Next week I'll give you the names of the Canadians in this group.

Alrighty, I warned you last week, so here they are. The Tombstones from Owen Sound, Ontario. Formerly The Dictions, with a strictly commercial sound, the gang went for the wierd look and name and grabbed on to the modern jazz oriented sound of the big names like Pickett and Brown. Now they're the talk of Ontario's mid-north (Owen Sound-Midland-Bracebridge). The group is made up of Jim Wayner, but he likes to be called by his full name, James Jacob Crosswell Courtney Wilson Wayner. Now JJCCWW does a lot of singing and dancing and gets much of his toe-tapping help from organist Dave Fearnall, who makes with the arranging. Dennis Scott keeps the boys well paced with the percussion section (that's drums) and George Dahmer takes the bass duties. Lead guitarist is Dan Rouse. Ted Graper has a lot of duties. Besides looking after both tenor and alto saxes, he has time for trumpet and when his hands are free he fills in on any rhythm instrument that happens to be available.

That guy in the bear pit of the CBC-TV "Sunday" show has a pretty side to him too, you know. Her name is Sylvia. They got the same last name cuz they got married a couple of years ago. Well, they have another record out and this time they're on the MGM label, and it looks like it could be another "Four Strong Winds" (that means "hit"). It's called "Lovin' Sound" and "Pilgrimage To Paradise". They're also great songwriters too. Before I knew about their own record release I received a disc from California on the UNI label. It was one of those American promotional copies, you know, the same song on both sides, so you don't play the wrong side. Anyway, the title is "The French Girl" and the group doing the bit are called The Daily Flash. You know who wrote it? The guy in the bear pit and his pretty wife, that's who. Now that's a switch. Of course, Gordon Lightfoot is proving this all the time. The Americans are sure eating up his material. I hope that rumour that he's going to do all his recording in Nashville, isn't completely true. If anyone can make Toronto an important part of the recording world, it's Gordon Lightfoot and that guy in the bear pit and his pretty wife.

If you look back at all my columns since I started, you'll probably notice that I can't seem to go a week without mentioning the Famous Night Owl Coffee House in Toronto's internationally known Village, which is hosted by that suave, manager's manager, Harry Finegold (don't believe that old show-biz wives ditty about "behind the success of every successful Coffee House, there's a woman", cuz it's true. Don't want to mention any names, but her initials are Dolores Hawkins). Anyway, back to the Night Owl. The reason I like going there is because I meet many of the big names who are visiting Toronto and I also get to know a lot of the Toronto groups. Seems most of them end up at the Night Owl every evening. Another good reason is the entertainment. If they're a big name in Canada, eventually you'll catch them on stage at the Night Owl. There's one group who frequently play there, called The Evil, who are formerly from St. Catherines. HAVE THEY BUILT UP A FOLLOWING???? As a matter of fact, HAVE THEY BUILT UP A FOLLOWING! Not only in the Village, but wherever they appear and they get the "come back anytime" treatment as well. There's a club up in Stratford (can't mention the name, seems the owner doesn't want any publicity) but when The Evil play this club someone let's the secret out and thousands of their fans from all over the country find this secret club and pack it to the rafters, just to catch The Evil in action. These guys are so dedicated and work themselves into such a frenzy that a couple of them have been under doctors care lately. Lead singer Jim Bryson strained the muscles around his rib cage (sounds disgusting) and Denny Tourbin, the drummer, not wanting to be upstaged, came down with a case of lumpy food. So the rest of the guys are just taking it easy. Johnny Libera, the rhythm guitar man, is tinkering with his jeep and Terry Walsh got the part in his hair straight (down the middle). The calmest of the crew is Dippy, who got Donovan to release an Epistle about him.

No. 2 RPM AWARD SERIES EXCLUSIVE TO RPM 3'S A CROWD

by Francine Drubick

3's A Crowd had the honour and distinction of being voted "The Top Folk Group" in Canada in the Annual RPM Awards. When I heard they were in town, I ran over to the Penny Farthing to catch their act, and boy what an act. 3's A Crowd have been together for 2 years and consists of talented Donna Warner, Trevor Veitch and Brent Titcomb. Donna used to be a part of the Capella Trio, and played a great deal in and around the Edmonton area. She has received much dramatic training which is evident in her performance.

3's A Crowd were originally known as The Bill Swartz Quartet and had to continually apologize for Bill's absence. (There never really was a Bill.)

They first met in Vancouver and landed the "Sing Out Show" a locally produced favourite and they've happened ever since.

Their first record for Epic, "Bound To Fly", was arranged by Canada's top arranger, Ben McPeck, and was an immediate success from coast to coast, in Canada. Hot on the heels of this giant will be "Honey Machine" which was just cut in New York and should be released in both Canada and the United States in a very few weeks. Just prior to this release they will be playing Ontario club circuits and will then move into the United States for several appearances.

I was very impressed at their style of performance and as far as their sound goes, you just can't classify their abilities. They sing jug band music, rhythm and blues, bluegrass, blues, ballads and folk.

3's A Crowd just don't sing, they swing and put on one of the most entertaining shows I've seen.

DR. WILLAN-ROBERT CHOQUETTE CO-WRITE CENTENNIAL ANTHEM
 Ottawa: At 7 PM December 31, 1966, on Ottawa's Parliament Hill, a choir, made up of more than 200 voices, sang Canada's new Centennial Anthem, for the first time. The choir was accompanied by the Peace Tower carillon, played by Robert Donnell. The presentation of the anthem took place during the flame-lighting ceremonies of the Fires of Friendship, the beginning of the year of celebration for Canada's 100th birthday.

Canada's most noted composer, Dr. Healey Willan, seated, and Robert Choquette, Consul-General for Canada in Bordeaux, France.

The story of the anthem began last year when the Canadian Interfaith Conference asked Dr. Healey Willan, Canada's most noted composer, to collaborate with Canada's Consul-General, in Bordeaux, France, Robert Choquette, to write the words and music for a new hymn, in French and English, to commemorate Canada's coming Centennial year. The anthem was originally to be sung in churches, but the magnitude of the work by Mr. Choquette and Dr. Willan made it more suitable for presentation by professional choirs. A new Centennial Hymn for churches is being written by Rev. Kenneth Moyer, of Niagara Falls and Rex Le Lacheur, of Ottawa.

The Willan-Choquette anthem will be heard across the country at official functions, sung by large choirs and it is expected that the words will soon be as well known to Canadians as are its authors.

WE HAVE ANOTHER WINNER!

GOSH DARN!!! We just aren't making my Canada Bill Contests hard enough. We have another winner, and just to show you that RPM is international, he's Clayton Pasternak, 160 Lorfield Drive, Buffalo, N.Y. 14226. Clayton came up with the correct answer to the contest. His answer was "THE MENAGERIE" and that is correct. So many of you kept guessing The Animals, I knew you weren't reading the clues. But don't be disappointed if you didn't guess this one, because there is a NEW contest starting in this issue. Get your entries in early. The FIRST correct answer we choose is the winner. It may be you.

FIRST IN THE CANADIAN SOUNDS!!!

SCOOP!!! EXCLUSIVE TO ELVIRA CAPREESE! This is the only columnist in the nation to have this story!!! There is a rumour that a certain columnist with a certain Canadian music weekly, may have her column DISCONTINUED. The reason just might be that she is stepping on too many toes. The rumour comes from a usually reliable source. This columnist (lady, that she is) will exit her post with dignity and graciousness.

She will probably just be YANKED with no notice. I predict that the mail will flow into the music weekly office at a great rate. I also predict that her dismissal will be ailed by some as a publicity stunt. IT ISN'T!!! The powers that be will not deny this rumour! (Ed: No comment.) I also suggest that if you wish her reinstated...you would better spend your postage by writing to your friendly neighbourhood record company (Ed: Or your Member of Parliament). No doubt Old Ed: will make jest of this item. (Ed: I "jest" may!!!)

A TORONTO SOUND GROUP needed their oil changed recently...so they took their station wagon back to the leasing company. Now they're WALKIN'. Apparently they couldn't agree on payment or the lack of. They just weren't number one with their leasing company.

THE PAUPERS APPEARANCE on CBC-TV was a smash. The young host just couldn't get an answer from the group when he asked about payola. How come no one wants to talk about payola. I'm willing to discuss the whole thing openly, but the FCC just isn't interested. Something about, foreign country. Who else would you approach????

THE TORONTO SOUND..... Those words inspire the swelling of chests in good old Toronto (the silent). After the swelled....chests....a fast trip south for a record session, and back to Toronto with the "Toronto Sound" and sneaking back across the border (through customs) at the cost of the duty on a spool of tape. Toronto has got the "sound" and even if it comes from New York, Detroit, Los Angeles, or London (and it has to be England) it's still the Toronto sound.

AFTER POISING MYSELF at the radio to hear the Tripp on local radio, I lit a cigarette and opened a box of chocolates and a can of.....cider. The show was mysteriously cancelled at the last minute. The promos were still being aired, but my Tripp adventure came to a sudden end. I guess the group....just packed up their instruments and went home. It was disappointing
