

SCRIBNER AGENCY
OUT OF BUSINESS

Apparently Local 149 of the American Federation of Musicians have been instrumental in having the booking licence of Ron Scribner, cancelled. One member of the board was ecstatic over the cancellation and admitted to this reporter, in front of reliable witnesses, that after two years they finally "nailed Scribner to the wall". The union that boasts an iron fist rule have perhaps exchanged the fist for a claw.

The union is perhaps forgetting that it was Ron Scribner, still in high school himself, who started the business of high school gigging and turned it into a lucrative business for himself and many musicians. It was Scribner who was instrumental in perhaps 60% of the young musicians joining the union. Ron Scribner has made employment possible for many of the local musicians and indeed many of the musicians from coast to coast, including American.

Ron Scribner listened to, talked to and booked as many groups as he found time for. It was Ron Scribner who gave that much needed break to many of the groups struggling for recognition. He was founder and president of the now defunct Bigland Agency which is reported to have grossed over $100,000.00 in its first year of operation. Already this year, without any affiliations, The Ron Scribner Agency has created over $250,000.00 worth of work for musicians, and this in a short period of only four months.

Two members of the board hold booking licences and are actively engaged in the same type book-as Scribner.

Perhaps the union should compare the accomplishments of Scribner against his failings. In a business dealing with as many people as does Scribner, clerical errors should be common. Those who have dealt with Scribner have found him to be the most honest and hard working agent they have come in contact with and one who devotes all his time to building his own business as well as the industry. This accounts for his success in the business. Instead of cancelling Scribner's licence, the American Federation of Musicians should consider giving him a citation and making him a lifetime member of the union.

On the other hand, cancelling the licence of Scribner could be the start of a whole new era for musicians in Canada. Many of the card carrying members of Local 149 are apparently fed up and would welcome the opportunity of following someone as aggressive as Ron Scribner. Many more musicians, union and otherwise, could be recruited to form an organization of working musicians. Perhaps then we would see an end to the clique of the CBC and CNE and many other sad elements that are holding back our industry.

BOOKER BOOMING

The Music Industry has many people playing many parts to develop and promote more artists. Fulfilling one of the most important aspects of this is the booking agency that sees that the artist is kept employed. One of the largest and most respected agencies catering to the teen appeal artists is the Scribner Agency located in Willowdale, a suburb of Toronto. Twenty-two year old goateed Ron Scribner has had five years of experience in the "hop" booking business and supplies acts to the many teen dance promoters in Ontario as well as across Canada. His agency organizes entire shows and arranges one night stands throughout Ontario.

Some Forty Acts avail themselves of the services of the Scribner Agency, and Scribner has taken many of his artists from obscurity and developed them into stars. Among these are Robbie Lane, The Counts, Bobby Raye, The Shays, and many others. Established acts like Ronnie Hawkins, Pat Herve, Little Caesar and the Consuls, Shirley Matthews, Ritchie Knight, David Clayton Thomas and Sandy Selsie are booked by Scribner.

Beyond their normal function, the RON SCRIBNER of the Scribner agency seen with some of his clients at a recent "hop". agency is very record conscious. Whenever possible they will assist an up-and-coming act in arranging a recording session, and follow through to promote the record after it's made. The entire success of "If" by Little Caesar and the Consuls can be attributed to Scribner's imagination and hard work. Overnight this group became the most sought after in Canada.

"We've Got A Dance And . . . " the voice on the phone says. The requirements are laid out and the agency takes over to supply music, feature acts and an emcee to make the dance a success. Often the agency gets strange requests like a recent call for a dancer for a stag. The agency politely explained that they didn't represent any dancers. Often the calls are for a one night stand for the Beatles or the Dave Clark Five or Presley, but the agency has never booked acts quite as big as these. They have however packaged and booked Roy Orbison, The Orlons, The Supremes, Bobby Goldsboro, and have built Canadian acts around these people and sent the show across Ontario.

This is one of the largest agencies of its kind in Canada, and employs four full time staffers. The staff are all familiar with the music business and the complicated union regulations that must be followed.

LITTLE CEASAR & THE CONSULS. Scribner was behind their hit "If" for Columbia. Duff Roman of CKEY intros the group at the CNE in Toronto.

It all started when the record hops began to look for stars and live music and as a result the small bands who wanted to play the larger halls started to look for a booking agent. Scribner started the agency and immediately put all the bands into the union.

Recently Scribner was given the job of PR for the coming Dave Clark Five Show at Maple Leaf Gardens which will feature a lot of Canadian talent.

Ron feels the future looks very promising and "someday we'll recreate the great success of the British with their groups and artists. This is like the great desire of all of us, and will be a dream come true".

As the music industry grows, the Scribner Agency will grow. Someday we will all be able to look back at the struggle waged and remember the pioneer of the music business in Canada.

VALIANT RECORDS V-760 IN THE UNITED STATES

Watch for "LIVE! FROM THE GROOVEYARD" NSLM 1004

Many record dealers across the country will remember the friendly RCA Victor salesman, Bill Patterson.

Bill Patterson

Well, Bill is now product manager at head office in Montreal where he took over from Stan Kulin who moved on to RCA Victor's international division in New York. Look who left radio for the record business. Ed Preston, the best musical director in the business. Ed was in charge of picking the music at CHML for the past 16 years and has taken over as the new Ontario sales promotion rep for RCA Victor.

Out in Regina, Carol Robbins reports brisk sales for "Western Union", "59th St. Bridge" and "Darling Be Home Soon". Other favourites of National Music customers are "Seventh Saint" by locals Mel West and The Meteors, "On A Carousel", "Lawdy Miss Clawdy" and "Walkin' In The Rain". Top selling LP is "Deliver" by The Mamas & Papas.

Joe Pariselli reports from Sparton that "I'm A Man" by The Spencer Davis Group tops the list of best sellers. The Group's "Lovin'" is still chalking up sales. Tommy Roe's "Sing Along" and "Something Inside Me" by Ray Charles are also fast movers. Johnny Harlow has a single beginning to show action. It's called "Silver Sea". Odie Workman's "Take This Heart Of Mine" is still grabbing country action.

Dan Bartollini, manager of Rendezvous, in Toronto, lists "Ups And Downs" as a big one for Revere. Nancy and Frank's "Stupid" and the Bizarre's "Bridge" are pacing one another. The Pauper's have pushed past all new entries and it looks like "Simple Deed" will hit the top. A Passing Fancy are also moving with the winners with their "I'm Losing Tonight". The Rendezvous people are getting set for a move to larger quarters.

Mike Lais reports from Record World, in Toronto, that the recent Jr. Walker shows in London, Hamilton and Toronto were tremendous successes. The Power, a local band, is reported to have almost stolen the show from Jr. Walker. They were so dynamic that Tamla Motown are interested in waxing them. Top sellers at The World are "Sweet Soul Music", "Bernadette", "Pucker-up Buttercup", "I'm A Man" and "Jimmy Mack". The Paupers are also coming in for good sales as well

Paul Misener, of Misener's Record Bar in Alliston, would like to have a record dealers convention. He would like to exchange ideas and systems of keeping track of stock. Half his time is taken up with ordering, putting stock out and then checking his inventory. Any other dealers interested in forming an organization whereby you could compare systems and exchange methods, findings and results, should drop a line to Paul at Box 133, Alliston, Ont.

MEET SUSAN TAYLOR

The percentage of successful career women in Canada is very high. However there is one profession that almost always turns thumbs down on the feminine touch and that's the entertainment business and don't kid yourself you have to be very professional, male or female to succeed in this highly competitive business.

Susan Taylor, currently acquiring recognition across the nation with her Yorkville release "Don't Make Promises" and "Twelfth Of Never" has the beauty and poise to become an accepted recording artist.

RAY LEVIN TO MANAGE GUESS WHO GROUP

Winnipeg: Ray Levin, of Trans-Continental Promotions Ltd., announces the signing of The Guess Who. Levin will act in the capacity of business manager for the popular 'Peg group. While in England recently, The Guess Who took advantage of

Her talents as a singer can perhaps be greatly improved by the use of top notch material, musicians, a highly professional arranger and a producer with an understanding of the music of today. It's not your talents as a singer that makes a hit recording, after all, a singer of the MOT isn't required to sing an aria. It's the talent that surrounds a singer. A good case in point is Nancy Sinatra who made a great impact because of the genius of Lee Hazelwood.

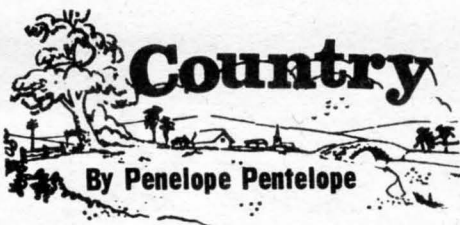

Susan's first attempt in the recording business is a giant step toward making the entertainment field her career. Her backers are influential and are intent on using every means available in making Susan Taylor a household word from coast to coast. Reports have it that the tracks for Susan's first recording were done in an internationally famous recording centre at a cost exceeding $2500. Susan's voice was apparently dubbed onto the tracks at Toronto's Bay Studios.

Eighteen year old Susan Taylor is presently working as music librarian at CKFH, in Toronto. She is also spending her weekends making personal appearances in and around Toronto. It is rumoured that she is being considered as hostess of the "After Four" television show.

Aside from all the difficulties that Susan Taylor may encounter in her climb to the big time, whether she makes it as a recording star or not, her experience in the recording business will greatly influence her success as a television personality.

the English recording know-how and cut four sides. The first of these to be released will be "This Time Long Ago", written by Jimmy Stewart and Gerry Langley, well known English writers and "There's No Getting Away From You".

English and European affairs for the group are being looked after by Tony Hiller of Mills Publishing.

Steve Glenn, of CHOK, has a bit of a beef so instead of letting it go into "We Get Letters" I asked Cousin Ed: if I could reprint it in my column.

"Why do record sleeve bio writers insist on comparing Canadian talent with the bigger talents south of the border? NO ONE except Marty Robbins sounds like Marty Robbins. No one else could, so why shove this ridiculous comparison at us? It really burns me. The artist sounds like himself and NO ONE else. If he does sound like someone else then they should quit the business because they'll never make it big. Let's have Canadians sound like Canadians and not like an established star. I have seen this example done repeatedly and personally I'm getting tired of it. Also, I was in Toronto a few weeks ago and there big as life was a top notch Canadian country band entertaining on stage and the phoniest southern accent coming from the bandstand. You don't need an accent to get along. I have more beefs like this but I would like to read what the other Canadian Country DJ's have to say on this subject. No doubt they too have run across this problem and I do mean problem. Let's hear from you guys. I think it's about time we made Penelope's column a bit larger than it is."

(signed) Steve Glenn, CHOK Sarnia

Last week I promised you a story about Smilin' Johnnie. Seems John M. Lucky, a country entertainer from Saskatoon, isn't smiling much anymore. His group had been picked to appear on the Don Messer Jubilee television show. So off they went to Halifax, and that's a heck of a long way from Saskatoon. When they arrived in Halifax, they were told they had been scratched from the show because they weren't members of the American Federation of Musicians. Well you can imagine what went on in Halifax. the CBC paid the airfare and expenses, but because there is a clique of musicians in the CBC and because this clique is run by a nest of foreigners from Park Avenue in New York, it was decided that a Canadian from Saskatchewan couldn't appear on a Canadian Centennial show which was to pay tribute to the province of Saskatchewan. Says Johnny "I've never found sufficient reason to join the union. If it were a Canadian union I might have considered it, but an American union, why?"

Jack Jacobs sends news from CKSL, London that Gord Lightfoot's "Go Go Round" which he considers folk-country, is No. 1 on the survey. "Ten Foot Pole" by Johnny Ellis moves into No. 10 spot, "I Did It" by The Whippoorwills makes it to No. 20 and Jimmy Orde's "Irena Cheyenne now moves into the Top Forty.

THIS WEEK'S PICK LPs

So Spencer Davis isn't the lead singer of the group. So Stevie Winwood has cut out of the group. So this is one of the hottest albums on the market today. So what! I'll tell you what. When I first heard this album I got so excited I wanted to go out and buy it. Of course I didn't have to, cuz I already had it. If a group's got it in the grooves, who cares who's the lead singer, and have the Spencer Davis got it in the grooves. This album just keeps your ear busy the whole 12 cuts. Yep there's 12. Guess what the title of one of the cuts is? "Goodbye Steve". Now who but an English group would think of a thing like that. Anyway if you like fish and chips, you'll dig this for the halibut.

STONE - SX 705

Can you go wrong with Herman's Hermits? Not a chance. Not when they keep having hit singles and putting the singles on albums which make the albums hit items, as well. Anyway, this has to be the best offering of the talented little guy and his group yet. Look what you get. "East-West" and "Dandy" and you know how big they got. Then there's "No Milk Today" and "There's A Kind Of Hush All Over The World". They'd be crackers if they didn't include that last one. IT'S THE NAME OF THE ALBUM. And just wait 'til you hear their two new ones, "Gaslight Street" and "Rattler". With all these goodies, you almost don't notice that there are only eleven cuts. Oh well.

MGM - 4438

Like always, the Byrds are flying. From when they take off with their current hit "So You Want To Be A Rock 'N' Roll Star" right through 11 cuts 'til they roost with "Why", the complete performance is great. They show their versatility on this album, as well. You even get a little of the Nashville slappin' sound with "Time To Be", and that "Renaissance Fair" is just too much. One cut that really stands out is "Everybody's Been Burned". The Byrds have really set themselves up with a chart item. They've got themselves a wailer, a psychedelic bit and a move into the far east sound which kinda represents what's going today.

COLUMBIA - 2642

WELL....I go away for ONE week and the whole industry starts to fall apart.///The news that a BIG Toronto booking agent has been "FLICKED" out of business (just that easily) by the union has disturbed everyone in the industry. Certainly there will be tens of thousands of dollars of work that will not be seen by musicians because of this OUTRAGE, but the board ELECTED by the members, is in charge of such things, and they obviously felt that they were acting on the behalf of their members. You see, this is a democracy, and since musicians are lucky enough to have such STALWART representation, they are ready to live with this.....possibly beginning of the curtailment of WORK for musicians, because, we are led to understand.....this is only the BEGINNING! Soupline.....anyone????

One of the most successful (financially) groups in the Toronto

WESTERN UNION

by Frank Banyai

Two weird-name bands emerged on the West Coast scene. One, The Peanut Butter Conspiracy, consisting of four bizarre looking, bearded guys and a beautiful young girl, who sings the lead in a low, sexy voice. Their record, "It's Happening Thing", is climbing up the charts rapidly. The other, The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band is composed of six accentric looking individuals who play primitive instruments, including a washboard, megaphone, and wash basin bass, as well as harmonicas and guitars. They've just released their single "Buy For Me The Rain", on Liberty Records. It has a real groovy sound.

The Turtles have just returned from a national tour and are appearing at the famous Hullabaloo Club on Sunset Blvd., for the first time in a year.///The Music Machine (of "Talk, Talk" fame) certainly give you your money's worth. Once they are "turned on" they don't pause between selections but switch from song to song without any breaks.///The Carousel Theatre threw a special Easter holiday show featuring Simon & Garfunkel, Chad & Jeremy, The Buckinghams, Buffalo Springfield and The Hearts & Flowers.///Ian & Sylvia appeared at Lindy's Opera House last week.///I picked up a copy of The Staccatos' Tower release, "Half Past Midnight". The U.S. trades and I are partial to the flip "The Weather Man". I am constantly checking the record shops for "His Girl" by the Guess Who, on Amy Records, that was just released in the U.S., but to no avail.

New Records To Watch: "My Back Pages", a Bob Dylan song, by the Byrds, and "Something Stupid by the Sinatra team, Nancy and Frank. Peculiar Item: "California Nights" by Lesley Gore seems to have made it everywhere except California.

A new movie "You're A Big Boy Now", starring Peter Kastner, premiered in L.A. last week. The songs in this film, including the hit "Darlin' Be Home Soon", were written and performed by the Lovin' Spoonful.///A new fad is to have bumper stickers of your favourite group on your car. A favourite is "The Peanut Butter Conspiracy Is Spreading".

(Ed: Next week we'll let you have a look at our new correspondent from California) sound era is the Stitch In Tyme. This very talented group (and all wonderful fellas) not only came up with an excellent recording recently, but have been bringing them in to big houses everywhere. It's nice to be IN THE CHIPS and they are great guys. WC advises me that Yorky has left the group and the reason, according to WC wasn't about the percentage taken by management.///There is a rumour that all new booking agencies may have to post a $500 bond before they will be granted a licence. It is my suggestion that every group post a $500 bond to assure that bookers receive their commissions ON TIME.... IF AT ALL.///CANADIANIZE THE MUSIC INDUSTRY. Yes. In 1967, we must start to think about MORE Canadian publishers and MORE Canadian record companies, and more CANADIAN CONTROL of the Canadian music industry. It is a year for Canada to progress and a year for Canadians to ask the question....WHO REALLY decided that the RCMP couldn't cut a record session? WAS THE DECISION MADE IN CANADA?? Was one of the selections they INTENDED to record... "O Canada"?

BEBE GEE REPORTS

When a record gets as BIG as this one, it deserves a mention in my column. I'm talking about the NEW Electric Prunes record "Get Me To The World On Time". This deck is a runaway smash. Meanwhile, the new Supremes' release of "The Happening" didn't make a bound up the charts like all their previous hits did, but IS making up for lost time. It looks like it's on its way now.

Do you remember my mention of an artist named Engelbert Humperdinck? Stations should be starting to play the record just about now. It's called "Release Me (And Let Me Love Again)" and will be a chartclimber. Now here is my advanced buyers guide:

Somebody To Love-Jefferson Airplane
I Was Kaiser Bill's Batman-Whistling Jack Smith
Melancholy Music Man-Righteous Bros
Buy For Me The Rain-Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

THE MAGIC CYCLE

RECORDING ARTISTS

Well, The Dickens are back, and their no different. They're still great. They cut several sides in New York and should have a record release soon. While back in Toronto they'll be busy making a movie and part of it is to be used on CBC-TV. Keep an ear out for their first record release. They've got one of the most loveable sounds around.

The Paupers are off and capturing the Americans left and right. Their former manager and the one who was most instrumental in getting them to the top, Bernie Finklestein, has turned management over to Al Grossman, well known man about management firms, ala top stars. This was apparently a very friendly negotiation and Bernie came out of it smelling like a rose, which was the only way the group would have it. In a business like this, when you get into the New York scene it's a necessity to have a professional management firm looking after your affairs. More than one good group has gone down the drain because of poor management. Anyway, Bernie can now turn his attention to the wealth of great talent, here in Canada, that's just waiting for a man of his calibre.

From the number of tickets, radio stations were giving away for The Monkees show it would almost indicate that it was the greatest paper house in the history of the Gardens. I wonder how many tickets really went on sale to the public.

Guess who have a record on the way? No, The Guess Who have a record on the market now. Little

Caesar and The Consuls, that's who. "My Love For You" will be released on the Columbia label. Shows you how versatile these guys are when they can appear on the same show as the National Ballet, and their toes don't even hurt. Through the summer you can catch them every Saturday at Greenhurst Pavilion, Thurstonia

Park at Dunsford, Ont. They'll be at Belleville's Tiki Club the evening of Apr 14 and afternoon of Apr 15. They'll make the Brockville Tiki Club scene the evening of Apr 15 and afternoon of Apr 16.

That was a big night at the Coliseum in Ottawa, last week. They had The Staccatos, Townsmen, The Scoundrelz, Beaux Geste and Thee Deuces. Over 3500 fans jammed the place to capacity.

Over in Hamilton, at the Armouries, it was another 3500 who packed in to see "the rock show of the yeomen".

Did you know there was a shortage of rock groups in Toronto?

There's a group called The Plague who have a good sounding single on the Reo label. It's called "Love And Obey" which has been making quite a bit of noise in their hometown. They've played several spots around Toronto and have been gathering quite a following. Their record was produced by Gary Paxton, of Hollywood. While the group was in Hollywood they played the famous teen club Pandora's Box. Don Brown plays lead guitar; Tom Horricks, sax; Joey Stapansky, organ; Lyn McEachem, drums and George Stevenson, bass guitar. They all sing.

The Purple Peanut opened its doors to an enthusiastic Kitchener and area audience recently. Kicking off the proceedings were The Comancheros who were followed the next evening by The Staccatos and Shan-de-leers. This is a membership deal and there'll be entertainment Friday and Saturday evenings and on Sunday afternoon. Two bands are to be featured on Saturdays.
