Royal 'Peg & Lighthouse - "Ballet High"

"Ballet High" treads on sacred ground

When the Royal Winnipeg Ballet and RCA recording group, Lighthouse, move front and centre on the stage of Toronto's St. Lawrence Arts Centre Aug 1st., they will begin a week of experimentation which treads on sacred ground, never before toyed with. "Ballet High" as the show is billed, would appear to be an affront to those who regard the art of ballet as an untouchable and the only surviving link with the high brow musical past. One might however, look at the age bracket enjoying, or pretending to enjoy, ballet and perhaps agree with this diversionary tactic in ballet production. It is obvious that ballet is a victim of the generation gap and what the Royal 'Peg's Brian Macdonald has done, is to attempt to mount a ballet that could, with the help of Lighthouse, bridge the dreaded generation gap with a hoped for interest by the young sophisticates — in one of the finer arts.

The Ballet Company is made up of 25 dancers and they like to stress, "no principals". The first half of the show has seven acts with the complete Company and Lighthouse on stage warming up, as the first act. This is followed by "Taking A Walk", a dance by Sandy Nadal; Christine Hennessy executing Ravel's "Bolero" (Miss Hennessy received rave reviews in Europe and the U.S. on the Company's recent tour); the fourth act has a large portion of the Company taking part in "Eight Loves of Bread"; with a dance improvisation making up the fifth act. Act 6 has been tagged "A surprise", which will probably be "Ballet High", the first rock ballet; and the complete Company with Lighthouse on stage, take part in a repeat of "Eight Loves of Bread".

"The Shining People of Leonard Cohen" kicks off the second half. Two dancers will perform over the reading of several Cohen poems. It is hoped that Cohen will be on stage to do honours to the reading.

For the final act, Lighthouse goes into the orchestra pit for another of Macdonald's ballets, "Five Over Thirteen".

All in all "A Ballet High" sounds extremely interesting. The only terror that could possibly strike the hearts of balletomains is the inclusion of the group, Lighthouse.

Lighthouse however, is somewhat of a phenomenon themselves. By all that's real and believable in this industry, Lighthouse shouldn't even exist. At first glimpse they look like a giant jigsaw puzzle — and soundwise, you either dig immediately or are just too embarrassed to admit you don't understand. You pretend anyway, because Lighthouse has proven, in the almost unbelievable span of one year, that they do communicate, and they do sell records, in Canada. They're on their third album "Piecing It All Together" and it would appear to be their strongest, to date. This is an indication their sound is catching nationally. Tenth Mariposa may be last

The tenth annual Mariposa Festival, held on the Toronto Islands this past weekend (24, 25, 26), created, in many of us, mixed emotions. It was billed as the "gentle festival", and it was. It was also, musically, one of the most complete and satisfying any of the audience had seen. To try to talk about the acts and their merits is futile. They were all great and they were all together. Suffice it to say that some of the biggest names in folk/country/blues were represented. In most cases, the performers had as much fun, if not more than the audience.

Toronto Islands, overlooking smog-choked Toronto, are, comparatively, a paradise in a desert, a daisy in a municipal dump. They are a beautiful setting for a festival and the trees, grass and water lent a friendly, homely atmosphere. Given this setting, the organizers of Mariposa came up with unbelievable sound, great staging and lighting, and superb organization. The audience could have asked for no more and the Mariposa people could have given no more. Superlatives become stale and meaningless when trying to describe what actually went on. There is only one way to know, and that is to have been there. Anyone who missed that opportunity passed by what may prove to be their last chance to be a part of the spirit that is Mariposa.

The Mariposa festival is a non-profit effort, devoted to the furtherance of folk music in North America. It has become one of the most respected and well-known events of its kind in the world and is acclaimed for its top level performances as well as its "good vibes". This year, for the first time, it was the victim of the ignorant and mis-directed disturbances of the vocal minority who demand to hear "their" music free of charge. There is nothing wrong with the protesting of some of the inflated admission charges at various musical events in this country, but the Mariposa festival is provided, without a profit to the promoters, with only nominal fees to major performers, with a sound system unequalled at the most expensive concerts, in a setting unlike any other and with all remaining monies going to the support of folk music. Mariposa is, in fact, devoted to the fostering of "the peoples' music" and as such deserves the whole-hearted support of everyone, from the pocket book.

The damn fools who disrupted this year's festival may well be the cause of its cancellation in future years. Be it on their stupid and ill-informed heads. Be it on their heads that one of the most peaceful and complete festivals in the world may cease to exist through their greed.

Mullan Upped to National Promotion-A&M

"...the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

-Pierre Juneau

Liam Mullan, who joined A&M less than six months ago, has been appointed National Promotion Director for A&M Records (Canada)

Prior to joining A&M, Mullan had become highly successful in promotion with the powerful pop writer Ritchie Yorke and Canada's top rated radio station, CFRB (first introduced to Toronto listeners by their George Wilson) was instrumental in bringing top attention to the disc. A subsequent promotion push broke the record nationally and forced a U.S. release. The record has since become one of the top sellers in the U.S.

In making the announcement of Mullan's new appointment, Gerry Lacoursiere, Managing Director of A&M's Canadian operation, noted: "Mullan is one of those rare finds and the type of person we so desperately need in our industry."

Sounds Canadian Goes Int'l

Capitol of Canada has now had two artists appear in the American trade charts since the inception of the Sounds Canadian promotion in early spring. First to break was the Edward Bear discing of 'You Me and Mexico', a number one record in Canada. Now the Anne Murray single, 'Snowbird', is beginning to climb the charts of the three major charts below the border. 'Snowbird' was written by Gene McLellan and produced by Brian Ahern, both Canadians.

Capitol confirmed this week that 'Snowbird' is set for rush release by EMI, the Capitol parent firm in England. Paul White, director of A&R, reports Anne's latest album release, 'Honey, Wheat and Laugh-

Feinberg has a Message in Disc

The Vanguard press release notes, "Abraham Feinberg has been doing unpredictable things throughout his long and distinguished career." David Street of the Toronto Telegram headlines his After Four story with "An aged rebel and the voice of youth". The Toronto Star's Jim Beebe came up with "Rabbi Feinberg takes up singing again" and RPM's Album Pick, not to be confused with review, brings to light the fact that the royalties go to orphaned children in North and South Viet Nam, suggesting "push it for that reason, if no other".

The warm intros by the dailies and the cold facts revealed by RPM are somewhat akin to the life of this seventy year-old Rabbi Emeritus of Holy Blossom Temple in Toronto. He has been warmly received around the world and he has gotten the cold shoulder almost as often. He is "peace" personified and bears the peace sign as proudly as he does the Star of David. One of his warm receptions was from a University of Toronto student when he stated: "War is the ultimate degradation. It gives profit priority over people: power over personality, machinery over man and violence over love, joy and freedom."

Feinberg's recent visit to Hanoi caused quite a stir on Ambassador Row in Ottawa resulting in the loss of his U.S. passport, which has since been returned. If there was any just cause for fighting the establishment, you could be sure Feinberg would be front and centre, perhaps one of the prime reasons for his being able to overcome the generation gap...even more so than Marshall McLuhan, who, ironically, wrote a portion of the liner notes for the album. Notes McLuhan: "With undiminished zest and empathy for this mass vehicle, he celebrates the marriage of rock and religion in the cause of the world's children."

Rather than going on and on about Feinberg the lion-hearted, which may or may not take away from the value of his Vanguard recording, "I Was So Much Younger Then", let's look at this attempt to bridge the hawk/dove gap. This is an amazing voice with an extremely well put together "live" message. It's anti-establishment but with a twist. The Rabbi's sincerity is obvious and at times he even appears to be fighting the lush backing, which suggests he was opposed to its gimmickry in the first place. Nevertheless, the backing is superbly done and does add that ingredient which would probably be missing with a simpler background. It should be noted that the album was cut at Bay Studios in Toronto and produced by Brian Ahern and Athan Katsos. Ahern and Tommy Graham are also heard on lead and bass guitars. Other notable Toronto musicians included on the session are Pat Riccio Jr., Brian Browne, Bill Speer, Miles Wilkinson and producer Katsos. Canadian copyrights are strongly represented on the album. These include Art Gee's "Warm Traitor's Breath", "Good Things" by James Bennett, Michael Stanbury's "Bells of Saint Pierre", "Story of Isaac" by Leonard Cohen and others.

It's not likely that Rabbi Abraham L. Feinberg will become an overnight recording giant, but it is almost certain he'll create a new and highly sensitive market. Others have attempted to generate a "peace crusade" on disc, but none have been as qualified. Whether you're a Dogan, suffer from Orangeitis, or have no religion whatsoever, Tony Frome, "Poet Prince of the Airwaves" (1935) communicates, beautifully, now, in 1970.

'Snowbird' Tops MLS Voting

The July 23/70 conference call by the MLS resulted in the picking of the following records:

Snowbird
Anne Murray
It's Your Life
Andy Kim
Me And Bobby McGee
Gordon Lightfoot
You Can't Deny It
Edward Bear

The above picks will receive a minimum of 2 weeks simultaneous airplay on member stations.

Records and their voting averages submitted for this call were as follows:

Snowbird /Anne Murray (Capitol)	9.1
It's Your Life /Andy Kim (Dot)	7.5
Me And Bobby McGee	6.8
Gordon Lightfoot (Reprise)
You Can't Deny It /Edward Bear (Capitol)	6.7
Angela/Young & Co. (RCA)	5.2
In The Rain /Tranquillity Base (RCA)	5
I'm A Rider /Gary and Dave (Quality)	4.5
Hallelujah /Tomorrow's Eyes (London)	4.4
Dawn Of Revolution /French Revolution (RCA)	4.1
Rum Diddy /Howie Vickers (New Syndrome)	4
Needing You /Life (Polydor)	4
Moody Manitoba Morning	3.5
Rick Neufeld (Warner Bros)
Coochy-Coo /Canada (RCA)	3

The MLS Report, submitted by Chairman Roy Hennessy (CKLG) noted that the Chariman refused to accept 2 records on the basis they were B sides of recent submissions. In view of the volume of discs being submitted (15 to 20 per call), the submission of B sides or resubmission of singles will not be accepted unless they are accompanied with proof of their potential through charts and sales and other pertinent information.

This call also saw discussions with regards to biographies and the necessity of having these with the discs submitted. The MLS are looking for a word other than "biography". They are looking for the recording history and background of the group and the record. They would also like to know when they play, with whom, where and past recording experiences. Information on who produced the disc is also desirable and what success he has had in studios before. What portion of the record meets the Canadian content is also requested. Notes Hennessy: "This type of information is invaluable to us in making our judgment on new product."

Ampex proudly announces the release of Jesse Winchester's first single from his first LP

BY JUAN RODRIGUEZ

Montreal — Jesse Winchester arrived in Montreal early in the summer of 1967. He moved because of the Draft Now Winchester has an album out (on Ampex), produced by the Band's Robbie Robertson. It is a firm, beautifully performed and composed record, one that will surely mark Winchester as one of the important singer-songwriters. The fact that Robertson plays lead guitar on the album and that Levon Helm chips in on drums and mandolin here and there is bound to be of interest. But it is Winchester's album through and through, conveying a unique personal sensibility.

Winchester's music is rich in its depth and heritage, as it is a consummation of everything he grew up with. His sound is clean, like the Band's, Southern, with measures of rock and roll, gospel, even jazz — whatever comes naturally.

He sings as he writes, in a gentle but strong voice. He's a relaxed, perfectly paced singer, possessing beautiful ballad phrasing and plenty of funk on uptempo numbers. Winchester, like the best singer-songwriters, does not separate words, music and performance — it's all one thing.

"It used to be that a song could get across all the feeling you wanted from very, very simple words. Now the word has become more important. But, to me, I still like a sound song. I don't like a lotta words. The fewer the better, the simpler the better . . . in everything."

Winchester simply sings away, with nothing forced or put-on. The back-ups are fluid and melodic, rocking and rolling and, at times, just being quiet about it. The album, recorded in Toronto, is also a fine production achievement for Robertson, simply because he has remained faithful to the singer.

Lightfoot Receives Canada Medal

For a country of doves we sure have a lot of medal awarding going on. Gordon Lightfoot has been awarded the Medal of Service by the Order of Canada. Nice to see Miss Streisand's friend allowing token recognition of the Canadian recording industry, if indeed he is. Now might be a good time to suggest that the government declare one of our prime time months as Canadian Talent Month. Perhaps the next time that New York visitor comes in for a visit maybe someone could arrange for her to be entertained with a bit of Canadians in the green room of the PM's official residence. Anyway, perhaps we should be thankful for small favours. We finally have a Canadian recording artist with a government award.///Have you ever seen so many Canadian records making the scene? I hope you're listening to them, and carefully, because you are sitting front and centre for one of the biggest shows of strength this country has ever witnessed. The Canadian Recording Industry is flexing its muscles, and there's a lot of bread being laid out for record sessions. Surprisingly enough the discs are beginning to show a return. Paul Misener, one of the really progressive record retailers (we know this is true, by the mere fact that he returns his RPM Report Sheet, faithfully), is finding an almost unbelievable increase in sales for Canadian product. Apparently radio listeners throughout the Alliston area, where his record bar is located, and Barrie are switching their listening habits from the Toronto Top 40 giant to several other stations. Even CFRB is attracting many young listeners. Top seller at Misener's is the Guess Who single "Hand Me Down World", followed closely by "As The Years Go By" by Mashmakhan with Anne Murray's "Snowbird" making disc sales look good for native talent. R. Dean Taylor's "Indiana Wants Me" has shown indications of being a giant.///Brian H. Master, rock music director and jock at C-HOW Welland has Leigh Ashford's "Country Place" as "One of the biggest Canadian happenings at this station." The group has played the Peninsula several times since the release of their RCA deck which probably accounts for their popularity.///Terry David Mulligan, of CKVN Vancouver, into Toronto setting down a series of commercials for Molson's. He reports top listener reaction to the station's album content. Mother Tucker's Yellow Duck is getting the 'VN red carpet treatment, along with Northcott, Howie Vickers ("Rum Ditty") and Anne Murray.///Gerry Thom, of CJDV Drumheller, lists Mashmakhan as the top selling Canadian group with Tom Northcott, a close second. Gerry has a couple of solid breakout items in Cat's "Marian" and "Ten Pound Note" by Steel River.

Leeds Pushing Norman Flip

The plug side of Montrealer Patrick Norman's Celebration disc is a Reed-Mason composition, "Love is All", but the flip has come in for a round of good promotion by Leeds Music that could bring it out on top. Actually, both sides have been receiving top exposure throughout the province of Quebec, but the Leeds' copyright, "That's Part of Being Your Man", was written by Ross Allen, a Canadian, and someone whose name 'you're going to hear a lot of in the future' says Leeds' Al Allbutt. Norman, who has been playing the popular Claude St. Jean Steak House in Montreal for the past three years, is one of the rare new breeds of French-Canadian. He is capable of transferring sincerity in song in either French or English. The single is a one hundred per cent Canadian production.

Polydor Acquires Stax/Volt

Frank Gould, label chief for Polydor Records (Canada), has announced the finalization of a distribution deal between Polydor and Stax/Volt. Signing for Stax was their president, Jim Stewart.

Included in the deal is the Enterprise label currently happening with Isaac Hayes product.

On the single front Johnny Taylor is looking good with "Steal Away", Booker T has a live one in "Something" and Eddy Floyd showed good initial action with "My Girl". Just released and showing early indications of a chart move is "Caboose" by Black Hands, White Cotton.

Leon Russell on His Own—At Last

Leon Russell finally had the stage to himself this past weekend at the Fillmore, and he turned the place into something akin to a revival meeting. The musician who has done so much to further the music of the white southern rock and rollers may be the next real-the songs that never really made it in his album. On stage and performed live, they were fantastic. 'Hummingbird', 'Roll Away the Stone', 'Prince of Peace', 'Delta Lady', 'Masters of War', 'Give Peace a Chance', all were socked out with a gospel-like flavour, and had the audience clapping along and yelling for more.

Leon Russell has made his move, and if he seems to be on a particularly singular ego trip, he can be allowed—for he is a superb musician, his arrangements are tight and his music is very together and joyous.

The third annual Isle of Wight Festival in England will be telecast live and in colour by satellite into theatres in the U.S. on August 29th. The event will feature Joan Baez, The Doors, Chicago, as well as Joni Mitchell, Lighthouse, Leonard Cohen and many British acts.

Presenting the telecast is Video Rangers, a sister company of Joshua Television which recently introduced video magnification at Tanglewood... allowing twice as many people to see the Who. Joshua Television will also provide video magnification for Tanglewood concerts in the future.

Another rock musical is in the planning stages for the fall, called 'Alltogether'. It is about a young man who comes to New York to find relevance and who is fired from forty eight jobs, loses twenty six room mates, is snubbed by the hippies and is rejected by the revolution. One of his happier experiences is a rock group he fantasizes, who immediately accept and admire him. One of the casting problems for the director of the show, David Frank, is to find a rock group who can sing, juggle, tumble and walk on the ceiling.....

ly big star. Backed by some excellent musicians and two particularly exciting female singers, (one being Claudia Linnear the ex-Ikettee who joined up with Mad Dogs and Englishmen and should record on her own) Leon did all

COSMO'S FACTORY

Creedence Clearwater Revival-Fantasy-8402-R
Already on the way to capture more Canadian gold for group. 8 track release has become phenomenal seller in less than two weeks. Back orders of this set makes initial pressing heavy. Display well - they're looking for it.

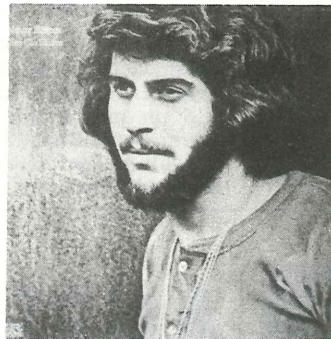

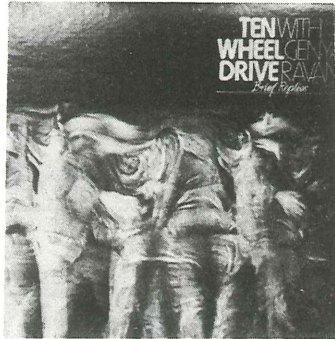

MUSIC FOR THE TWO OF YOU

Polydor-2486 008-Q
Keeping in pace with today's emphasis on sex, this set is a pleasant journey, hopefully, into two young minds. Well selected cuts by top bands could induce horniness or sleep depending on whom you are with.

Ten Wheel Drive
Polydor-2425 022-Q
Group has a lot going for it, including WNEW-FM. Genya Ravan helps but soft communication of pseudo-underground group almost overpowering. Even "chicken-rockers" will dig. "Interlude: A View of Soft" - powerful instrumental message.

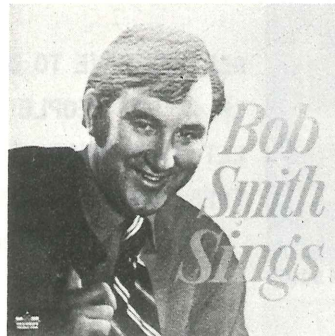

SLIM SLO SLIDER

Johnny Rivers
Imperial-16001-K
Off the album scene for some time, this set should re-establish Rivers as a top seller. Already on the RPM 100 Albums chart at #66. Contains recent charter "Into The Mystic". Titler written by Van Morrison, who also penned "Mystic".

MELODY FAIR

Lulu-Atco-SD 33-330-P
Current success of "Ray Stevens" show on which Lulu guests will bring much attention to album. Lots of solid talent on vocal and instrumental backing. "Hum A Song" our favourite. British soul mixes well with that from the south.

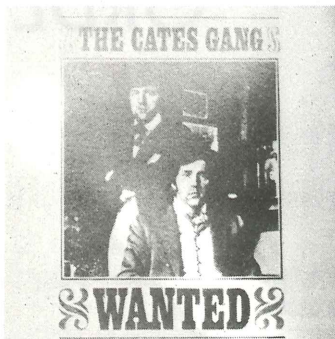

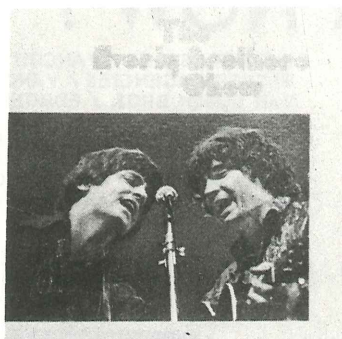

BOB SMITH SINGS

Damon-Apex-AL 71654-J
When the opener hits you ("Ode To Suburbia") you'll have to take hold of yourself. It's true, set was cut in Canada, at Edmonton's Damon Studios. Smith is one of the top candidates for disc stardom to come out of the west. Don't restrict to country.

EVERLY BROTHERS SHOW

Warner Bros-1858-P
They're back and making a giant bid for the top. This set plus their television show could do it for them. Album has good mixture of oldies and newies. Two record set taped "live" during one of their shows. "Bird Dog", "Games People Play" etc.

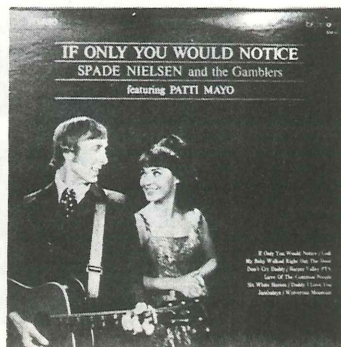

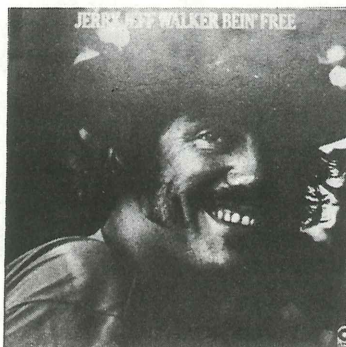

WANTED

The Cates Gang
Metromedia-KMD 1029-L
One of those albums programmers will cherish. The Gang is so unassuming as to become very popular with their swamp-rock original material. Not just for free-formers. "Song Man" should sell you.

BEIN' FREE

Jerry Jeff Walker
Atco-SD 33-336-P
Walker just might strike it rich with this set. Recent Canadian appearances and follow-up promotion by label will add to sales potential. The "Bojangles" kid has matured. "I'm Gonna Tell On You" to be culled as single.

IF ONLY YOU WOULD NOTICE

Spade Nielsen/Gambler
Birchmount-BM 561-M
Another fine example of a Canadian singer/composer giving only a pittance of his writing talents. Titler far more appealing than all the other cuts combined. Vancouver talent superb. Good vehicle for 'Pegger Patti Mayo.

and Manitoba) will attest to their disc power in both provinces and their growing potential as a Today's Sound group. He finds them an easy group to sell because of their unpredictable enthusiasm. Both Paul Hoffert and Skip Propkop, who head up Lighthouse, consistently come up with ingenious methods of promoting the group. They have already integrated their sound, successfully, with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, and after this ballet experiment will no doubt come up with another invasion of righteous listening — all of which makes for good reading and promotional gold.

The 20 member group have just returned from an Ontario Government sponsored trip to Expo '70 where they performed in the Province's Pavilion, which will no doubt add to their importance in the international market. They, at first, had some difficulty with bookings but appear to have overcome this problem. They now have bookings a full year in advance.

Brian Macdonald, a Montrealer by birth, is one of Canada's most distinguished gentlemen of international ballet. After formal and university training in the bi-bi town (McGill), he became a music critic for the Montreal Herald (1949). He became increasingly interested in the ballet scene and received extensive ballet training under several noted teachers. He was one of the first members of the National Ballet of Canada which was cut short by an accident, causing severe arm injuries.

Turning to teaching and choreographing for local television he produced several ballets for the CBC-TV's "Concert Hour". He became known nationally for his choreography and direction as well as playing the lead in "My Fur Lady", which toured Canada for 18 months.

In 1958 he became associated with the Royal Winnipeg Ballet. He was appointed official choreographer to the Company, five years later. By this time he had proven himself with "The Darkling", "Les Whoops-De-Doo", "Pas D'Action", and "While The Spider Slept". Receiving a senior fellowship from the Canada Council he was able to study in Leningrad, New York, Copenhagen and London. The year he became Artistic Director of the Royal Swedish Ballet, his "Aimez-Vous Bach?" was awarded the gold medal in Paris at the second International Festival of the Dance.

Macdonald works have been danced by world famous Companies including: The Deutsche Opera Ballet of Berlin, The London Festival, Dutch National and Ballet Contemporains of France.

Canada honoured Macdonald in July of 1967 when he was presented with the Service Medal of the Order of Canada.

Three new ballets were mounted by Macdonald in 1970, which were to be unveiled during the Ottawa and Toronto engagements.

"A Ballet High" under which these engagements are billed, is the first rock ballet — which should prove interesting from that standpoint alone.

New Slant on Sheet That is...Cleaning Up !!!!

THE MUSIC INDUSTRY.....is being badgered by a publication that is AGAIN asking for ads (and we don't mind the competition.....but). They are also offering a service that "cleans up". Past experience would lead you to believe that the mess is usually left behind.///WHY DON'T I.....use names in my column???

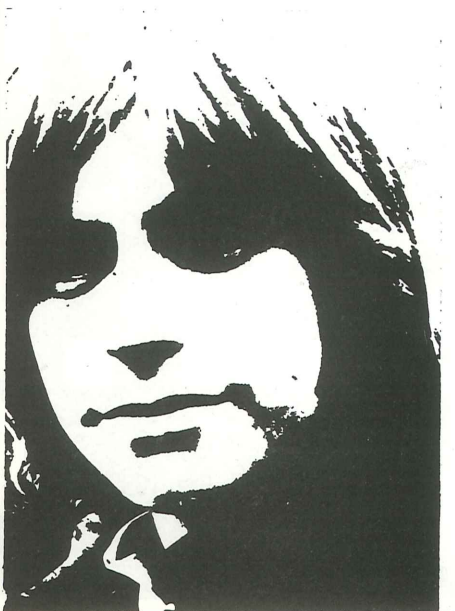

WELL!!! It's my column and I make the rules. It becomes more obvious to me that I don't have to name names when the industry is so aware of what I speak. The threatening phone calls I am getting (Ed: Pardon me! I'M the one who gets your messages.... ..dear!!!) have caused me to cool it on many of the people I was so nicely EXPOSING. One such phone call got me a severe reprimand from Old Ed. (Ed: And an assignment to do an in-depth investigation of a yet un-ended investigation that could lead to a 46 part series!!!)///OPEN MESSAGE to "Lonely People".....

...contact the Green Phantom immediately!!!//QUESTION FROM A READER....."Do you still put all packages received by RPM into a pail of water before opening them?" YES! For six years now, we have been very careful about anything that looks suspicious. It has only led to a very large collection of soggy records and bottles with the label soaked off. Latest to meet the dip and see procedure was two very expensive but now sadly drooping Stetsons from our friends whooping it up at the Calgary Stampede.///READER WRITES....."I read your column and it is silly, stupid, childish and ridiculous!" YES! But it is about the music industry.///TORONTO'S FAIR HAIRED WONDER.....is reportedly planning a record complex bigger than his father's communication and media monopoly. Keep your eye on this boy.....if that's at all possible!!!//THE THREE MINUTE PROMO MEET.....has spread from Toronto to a borough near London where you get a reasonable facsimile of the real thing, after a quick check in

Bruce in for Pubbery Talks

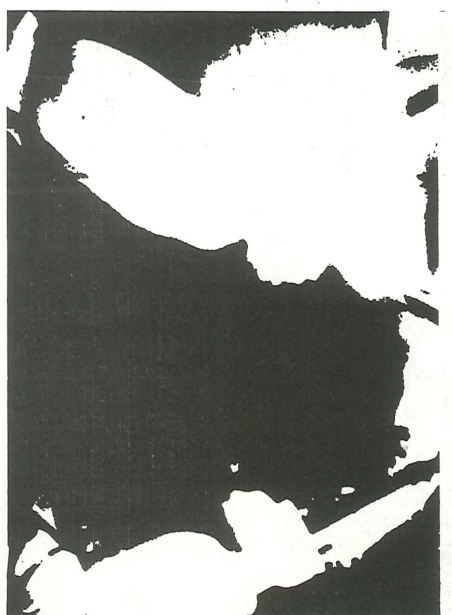

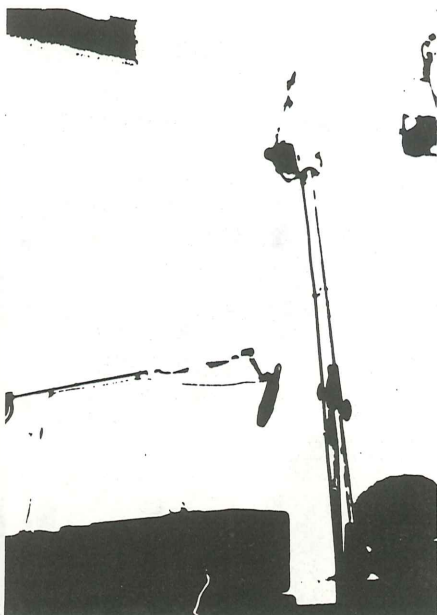

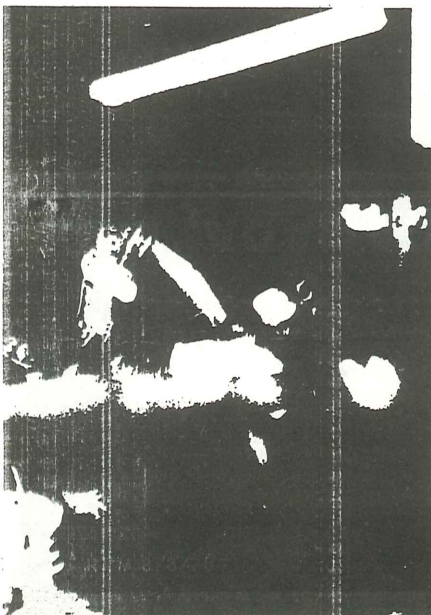

Allan Bruce, one of Canada's top supper club acts, flew into Toronto for talks with several publishing firms with a view to placing some of his material this week. Bruce became well-known on the disc scene with his Warner Brothers album of "My World of Song", which was never released for the international market. He has, however, become a familiar face on the U.S. club circuit, playing many of the top rooms in major centres, including New York. Much of the club activity came about as a result of his appearance on the Johnny Carson show last year.

Coming up are dates at the Champlain Valley Exposition (Sept. 1), where he'll perform and emcee the week-long show featuring several top-name groups. Following is a week at the Pittsburgh Hilton and a date in Dayton. He has received excellent reviews wherever he has appeared, particularly his home town of Montreal where he is virtually a regular at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel.

Kaye Signs with Singleton

Debbie Lori Kaye, one of Canada's rising young vocal stars, has been signed to a recording contract with Shelby Singleton's Plantation label in Nashville. A regular on the "Tommy Hunter Show", Miss Kaye has consistently placed high in the annual RPM awards polling, taking top place in February of 1969. During the past few months, she has been touring Canada as well as taping an appearance on the Everly Brothers summer replacement show and an in-person set at the Calgary Stampede.

ter', is among the company's top selling product. Meanwhile, Edward Bear have released a follow-up to 'Mexico', 'You Can't Deny It', and their recordings are now being released in England, Denmark and Holland.

Halifax's Pepper Tree, new on the disc scene with 'Mr. Pride', are now set for U.S. release in view of the outstanding acceptance of the tune across Canada. Pepper Tree travel west to Toronto shortly to line up a concert tour. In the French-Canadian market. Capitol is moving strongly with Pierre Lalonde who recently received company awards for sales of over 50,000 of both 'Caroline' and 'Chaque Jour'.

CKGM Making Changes

Geoff Sterling's CKGM FM in Montreal, underground voice to that city's youth, has come to the point where it must make changes in order to survive. CKGM shifted to underground format with little or no emphasis on making money, but that policy seems to have succeeded so well that the station must now decide whether it should continue to depend on its AM sister for financing or pay its own way, mainly by a drastic reduction in overhead. Among the plans being discussed is one involving the wholesale importation of taped underground shows, thus dispensing with costly on-air staff. Another solution would be a subscription set up, in which the station would be supported by voluntary donations from the listening community. According to station manager, Jim Sward, the right course lies somewhere between the two. Financial troubles have reached the point where a benefit concert was held for the station featuring Mashmakhan, Jesse Winchester, Albert Failey, Coven, Chris Kearney, Bruce Murdoch, and others. Dave Bist, writing in the Montreal Gazette, pointed out that solid community support behind the station could bring the attention of national advertisers to the station and make it a self-sustaining operation.

Hunter on Promo Tour

Tommy Hunter, Columbia recording artist and host of the 'Tommy Hunter Show' on the CBC, is currently touring the country with the cast of the weekly show. The show is drawing capacity crowds everywhere. During the group's stop-over in Saskatchewan, they dropped in at CJGX, Yorkton. Hunter's deck of 'Wait for Sunday' is currently riding high on the GX chart with his LP also receiving heavy airplay. Hunter's backing group, the Rhythm Pals, are also finding acceptance with GX listeners via their CTL album "Tennessee Birdwalk".

Rovers Sing 'Unicorn' in Japanese

The popularity of the Irish Rovers jumped quickly following their two week stint at Expo '70 in Osaka, Japan. Reaction to the five man group was reported to be little short of fantastic, especially to a version of the "Unicorn" in Japanese. Plans are now being discussed for a Japanese language version of the tune to be recorded. On their return, the Rovers begin a tour of western Canada to include stops at Winnipeg, Regina, Yorkton, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Medicine Hat and other western cities. Set to coincide with the tour is the release on Decca of their next single, "Years May Come, Years May Go", produced by Tom Northcott at Vancouver's Studio 3 for Ballycastle Productions. Recording was done during the group's appearance at the posh Cave nitery in Van.
