Increasing activities at Nimbus 9 Prods.

Nimbus 9, foremost in Canadian independent production, seem determined to maintain that position with stepped up recording activity. The new Cat single "Sunflower" f/s "Take My Life" is ready for release this week. Both sides were penned by group member Mike McQueen who is also responsible for the Toronto Together outing, "We're All In This Together". The single was produced by Jack Richardson and Bob Ezrin at the RCA Mid-America Studios in Chicago.

Noah (formerly Tyme and a Half) had their first album released this week, simultaneously in the United States and Canada. The group from Trenton, Ontario includes Paul Clapper and Marinus Vandertogt who penned all material on the album.

Nimbus' stock in trade, the Guess Who, won again with their "Share the Land" album. In only a few weeks of release RCA has shipped over 350,000 in the U.S. alone, almost assuring it of instant certification in the States. The album is making similar dramatic progress north of the border. The Guess Who appear in Toronto at the O'Keefe Centre on November 8th following their Queen's University gig in Kingston on the 7th. Then, on December 2nd, the group leaves for a ten day European tour which takes them to the U.K., Holland, Belgium and Germany. "American Woman", a million seller, is now appearing in the top ten of charts in such diverse places as Venezuela and Malaysia.

Among other happenings, the Tobi Lark/Toronto Together deck of "We're All In This Together" was released this week in the United States. A highly favourable response is anticipated. One of Nimbus' newer signings, the Enchanted Forest, is skedded for recording in November. The all girl group have been acclaimed throughout the U.S. and having appeared on the Ed Sullivan and Johnny Carson TVers. In the beginning of the month, Bob Ezrin will do a week's pre-production work with the New York-based group in Florida.

In addition to production for the Nimbus label, Ezrin and Richardson have been busy producing for major U.S. labels. For RCA, the two have been working with new group at the Chicago studios and are presently hard at it with sessions for Warner-Reprise's Alice Cooper. Both single and album sessions are underway.

Workshop established for writer composers

BMI Canada Limited have established Canada's first workshops for professional writers and composers. The workshops are to be held at BMI's Valleybrook Drive location.

With much emphasis being placed on Canadian film and musical productions of late as well as an increased interest by composers and authors in writing for these fields BMI found it advantageous to establish this first for Canada.

The announcement of the above was made by BMI's Nancy Gyokeres. It was also stated that "The aims of the workshops are not only to stimulate professional writers, but also to encourage and develop new creative talent for the contemporary field".

Workshops will be held separately for films and musicals. The first meeting, for musical theatre was held in April and the one dealing with films in September.

Lehman Engel, distinguished U.S. composer and musical director, addressed the April gathering. He will conduct the Musical Theatre Workshop sessions. Richard Kirk vice-president BMI Inc. (California) was the speaker for the September session.

BMI Inc. have held Musical Theatre Workshops in New York, Los Angeles and Nashville. The establishment of the Canadian sessions will eliminate the necessity of Canadian writers travelling to these centres.

Engel returned to Toronto (Oct.9) for the first working session of BMI's Musical Theatre Workshop. A session for Canadian films is expected within the next two months.

Those requiring further information should contact Nancy Gyokeres at (416) 445-8700.

CMS picks up distrib rights for Sugar Hill

Jury Krytiuk, of Canadian Music Sales, announces the acquisition of the Sugar Hill label for Canadian distribution. The Nashville-based label will initially release singles by Raymond A. Smith and Stann Gunn. The Smith single is "Fifteen Years Ago" a self-penning which Conway Twitty currently has happening. Gunn comes forth with "I'll Be There" a rousing gospel number.

US release for Gene MacLellan single

Following the Canadian invasion of the international marketplace by Little Caesar and the Consuls, the Guess Who, the Poppy Family, Mashmakhan, Lighthouse, Gordon Lightfoot, Edward Bear and others, "Snowbird" composer, Gene MacLellan makes his bid for international recognition with "The Call". Released in Canada some time ago, "The Call" achieved success in most formats. Flip of the U.S. release is MacLellan's own version of "Snowbird". MacLellan records for Capitol, Canada.

Art Gallery bash for True North's Syrinx

Columbia's ad chief, Bill Eaton, gathered together the label's top brass and threw one of the talk-of-the-town parties for True North's Syrinx at Toronto's Art Gallery (Oct. 23). A combination of radio, press and key dealers and the Art Gallery's subscribers resulted in over 250 young and old Moog Synthesizer fans sitting in for the concert and wine and cheese — which followed.

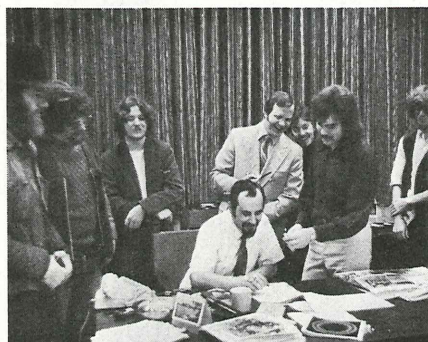

John Mills-Cockell, Alan Wells and Doug Pringle, who comprise Syrinx, put their instruments through a well-paced hour and a half that must have been exhausting. Mills-Cockell has taken the wierdness out of the Moog and perhaps added a new dimension to its sound beauty. Some of those attending became so totally involved it was necessary to clear an area of the concert hall so they could dance off their frustrations, or what have you. It should be noted that this was before they got into the bingo.

Initial album release by Syrinx, on the True North label (TN-2) has already shown indications of it becoming a top seller. CFRB's music director, Art Collins and George Wilson, host of the station's highly rated "Starlight Serenade", were so taken with the "Journey Tree" cut, an airing of this selection is expected shortly. (See photos on page 19)

New acts & new action for Love Productions

Love Productions, which has come from literally nowhere to its present position of being a major force in independent production, is envisioning even more ambitious undertakings for the winter months. In the past couple of weeks, Love has completed negotiations with four new acts and is preparing a rush release on one of them, Christmas from Oshawa. The four acts, Christmas, Matt Lucas, Anne Bridgeford and a group called the Ming Dynasty, are skedded for release on Love's label, Daffodil, distributed in Canada by Capitol.

GET INTO THE PICTURE ... in RPM. Ever wonder why OTHER people get their pictures in RPM, while you remain - just a reader? One of the first things to consider is that RPM receives your promotional photos. Equally important is the quality of the photo. The entertainment business has established 8 X 10 GLOSSY PHOTOS as (practically) a tradition. Over the years, we have tried to influence a higher quality photo for press use. Possibly, if your photos aren't used, it might be that the photographic reproduction was not up to standard. If it is important enough to photograph ... GET A GOOD PHOTOGRAPHER ... and get into the picture.

Frank Davies of Love has been in New York in recent days negotiating U.S. rights for Christmas, whose debut album on Daffodil, "Heritage" is skedded for November 15th release. Idea behind the push is to provide simultaneous U.S./Canadian release for the set to take full advantage of the extensive promotional effort Capitol is readying. All material on the set was composed by group member Bob Bryden.

While in New York, Davies also entered into talks with Dee Anthony of Bandana Management for the handling of Christmas. Davies and Anthony have already reached an agreement on the management of Crowbar. Bandana handles such groups as Joe Cocker, King Crimson, Ten Years After and Jethro Tull. North American PR for King Biscuit Boy and Crowbar is being handled by Bob Gibson who performs a similar function for the Guess Who, Traffic and others.

Among the other Love signings, Matt Lucas is set to lay down several sides for an early 1971 release. Lucas had an early-sixties hit with "I'm Moving On".

Anne Bridgeford, also an experienced performer, from Detroit, has a single release projected for January. The Ming Dynasty have already laid down a number of tracks, several of which are being considered for single release, again in January of 1971.

Said Davies, "We auditioned at least fifty different acts before deciding on the four we have named. There is an amazing amount of talent around at present, but we think we've made the right decisions."

Upcoming from Love is announcement of further world representation of the company's repertoire, specifically in Europe and South East Asia. Also in the works is a second King Biscuit Boy album, "Gooduns", and a follow-up single, both to be released in February in Canada and the United States. According to Davies: "By Christmas of 1971, we intend to have at least three separate acts established on the world market."

A native of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Wozny comes to Webcor with considerable knowledge of the small appliance field having had much experience on both the wholesale and retail levels.

Formerly with Hoover, working the Toronto and London areas he was, prior to this, owner of his own retail outlet in Tillsonburg, Ont.

Promotion for Webcor will centre around a new design created by Joe Urvan of Creative Dimensions, picturing an ear and the teaser "You'll be hearing more from Webcor..."

A&M colourful inner sleeve is merchandiser

A&M's policy of protecting discs in album packages with a four colour insert showing available product has shown encouraging consumer interest. The most recent inserts include an offer of a free catalog of all A&M products simply by writing to their Willowdale address. Jerry Lacoursiere, director of the Canadian operation, has taken a personal interest in the scheme because of the consumer reaction.

The colourful 24 page booklet contains miniature four colour album covers listing selections contained on the album. The booklet also contains photos of A&M's top recording units.

Reno steals the show at National Arts Centre

Her stage presence is completely disarming. She strides on-stage in purple and sequins and belts out with a mature, powerful voice. And right from "The Last Waltz" to her encore (a torrid torch song), she has her audience enthralled. She switches from pop songs like "How Can I Be Sure?" and "Spinning Wheel" complete with gyrations to beautiful ballads like "Forbidden Games" and "Windmills of Your Mind" with ease. She adjusts herself smoothly to French and English songs, her diction pure in both tongues.

The place is National Arts Centre in Ottawa (17th). The audience begins to feel the impact and magnitude of Ginette Reno's talent. Ginette remains herself all through the evening, joking with the audience, throwing herself into her songs, taking the occasional drink of water - "I haven't been training for the past few days."

English Canada has been on to her for maybe a couple of years. But she's been Quebec's reigning queen of music for almost ten years.

From the day she was born (April 28, 1946) she was determined to sing. Ginette is strongwilled, and at the age of five, she was singing at weddings, banquets and the like.

In 1961, her career was officially launched with a recording contract leading to nightclub performances and appearances on the Juliette Show.

Other milestones? Cross-country tours playing to capacity houses. "The Last Waltz", French version (her own recording) passes the 100,000 mark. Voted most popular female vocalist in 1967. Named "Miss Radio-Television". The founding of her own recording company, "Grand Prix". Performs to packed houses in the Garden of the Stars, Expo for three consecutive weeks. Last year, Ginette's first trip to England. Appears on the popular "Young Generation" and "Simon Dee" TV shows.

Back in Canada, hosts the spectacle "Bonjour Canada". And of course in Quebec, she is known as the Pepsigirl...for the innumerable commercials she's done.

Last year, she was voted Top Canadian Female Vocalist of 1969 in the annual RPM Poll. With all these accolades, is it any wonder that Les Reed (of "Delilah", "It's Not Unusual", etc fame) was prompted to write a song...Beautiful Second Hand Man...expressly

Charlebois teams up with Italy's Patty Pravo

Robert Charlebois, one of French Canada's top recording acts, has returned to Canada after successful appearances at the Venice Song Festival. While in Italy he recorded his song "Sensations" in duet with Patty Pravo, popular Italian recording star. The Italian version is titled "Solitudine" and is released by RCA Italiana.

While in Italy, Charlebois made three guest appearances on the Italian television network which resulted in him being booked for return engagements the end of October.

It should be noted that "Ordinaire" won the first prize at the Sopot Song Festival in September of this year and was released in France the same month. Reaction from the release has been exceptional resulting in him appearing with Mireille Mathieu on French Television (Oct. 26).

Released in Canada in September "Ordinaire", chalked up 30,000 sales in the month of September alone.

Ampex launches right into Vanguard promo

Following the announcement of a long term contract for distribution of the Vanguard catalogue of classical, popular and folk music in Canada, Ampex of Canada has announced plans for an extensive push of the label's product in this country.

National marketing manager, Joe Pariselli, has unveiled a Vanguard "twofer" series in which double albums show a suggested list of $6.98. The first release under the deal is scheduled for this month with "Chicago Blues" featuring Muddy Waters and James Cotton.

The Vanguard line includes the Bach Guild Series, Everman Classics and the Cardinal Series in addition to Vanguard. Featured are such artists as Ian & Sylvia, Buffy Ste. Marie, Country Joe and the Fish and Joan Baez. Skedded for the near future is a "Best of" series designed to fully exploit the strength of the catalogue.

Columbia negotiates for Carrol Baker recordings

Don Grashey, president of DMG Sound Studios of Thunder Bay, Ontario, reports the finalizing of a production and lease agreement with Columbia Records of Canada. The deal involves all disc product by Carrol Baker.

Miss Baker is currently showing chart action with her initial release, "Mem-Ries of Home" written by George Petralia of Oshawa, Ontario.

The Baker release and subsequent chart action without a national distributor is somewhat unique. Grashey mailed the disc to every important country radio personality across Canada as well as a good representation of jocks at MOR stations. With the disc he included a ballot-type form giving the jocks the opportunity of sounding off against or for the single. Returns were high (approximately 38%) and most indicated the disc had already been charted or placed on playlists. Reports to RPM indicated the single had potential which resulted in a listing on the RPM Country Fifty.

Grashey is now working on another single and an album session for release in early January.

Neil Diamond appearance at Hamilton campus

MCA's Neil Diamond (Uni Records) appeared in a sold-out concert of 4,300 persons at Hamilton's McMaster University Thursday October 22. The singer's 65-minute set consisted largely of his own material from Solitary Man to Cracklin' Rosie but included songs by Joni Mitchell and Bobby Russell. Accompanying Diamond were guitarist Carol Hunter, drummer Eddie Ruben, bassist Randy Sterling, and organist Mark Kapner.

MCA Ontario promotion manager Barry Paine arranged a forty-minute press conference with Diamond for a number of university newspaper writers, a taped interview with Toronto's CKFH, and an interview for the Hamilton Spectator. Paine was very pleased with both the audience reaction to the performance and Diamond's p.r. co-operation.

Sharing the bill were Capitol's Hedge and Donna. The folk act was rather dwarfed by the large McMaster gymnasium but the duo's sincerity and goodwill made them many friends. The duo travels with the Neil Diamond Show

Quality is riding on MacDonald Cartier Fwy

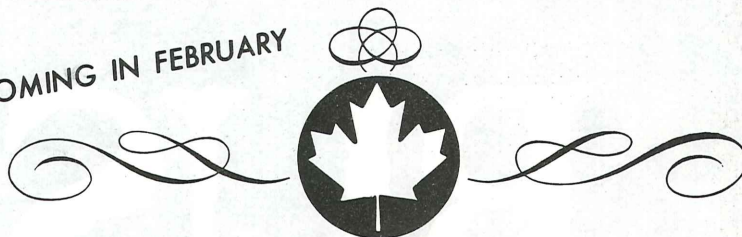

MacDonald Cartier Freeway, a new Canadian group, have signed an agreement with Quality Records. The signing was followed by their initial release, "We Can Make It Together". This group self-penned is described as "putting together the feelings of today in a manner that will hopefully bring people closer through the enjoyment of music."

The cleverly-worded press release indicates that many months of subtle promotion of the group went on before this release. The promotion had a natural tie-in with one of Canada's busiest freeways — with 8' by 12' green and silver highway signs reading MACDONALD CARTIER FREEWAY, placed at every major cloverleaf from Montreal to Windsor on the highway from which they derived their name.

"Ride the MacDonald Cartier Freeway up the charts" will be the slogan used by the label and the group for the coming weeks of engagements.

Chilliwick to perform with Toronto Symphony

Parrot recording group, Chilliwick will appear in concert with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, Saturday November 7th. at Massey Hall.

The Toronto Symphony experimented with the integration of today's sound with their own (Light-house) and found the results good box office. This will be the second such experiment.

Chilliwick, a Vancouver-based unit, have become one of the most successful out of Western Canada and created an excellent image for Canadian musicians/composers with their engagement at the Canadian Pavilion at Expo '70.

The group's initial album release for Parrot (distributed by London Records), under title of their own group name, has met with good sales success across Canada and picked up extensive airplay on both MOR and Top Forty stations. "Rain-O", a single culled from the album, has shown early indications of breaking nationally for the group who have shown much aggressiveness in concentrating on their own original material. Chilliwick performed their "Rain-O" penning on the recent CBC-TV "Rock II" (Oct. 25)

"Muk Tuk" makes gains for Jimmy Ordge

Jimmy Arthur Ordge, one of Edmonton's favourite sons and Damon recording artist, has been chalking up good sales and chart action with "Ballad Of Muk Tuk Annie" (# 3 RPM).

This country single has also picked up heavy exposure on several MOR stations. Much of Ordge's strength came from Western Canada where he is well known. Radio Stations in Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia aired the single almost immediately with chart listings following. As the novelty factor of the disc became known in other parts of the country, these listings began spreading. The giant CFGM (Toronto) have been giving excellent exposure to the lid. Says John Hart, the station's program director, "everytime we air the single we receive calls."

Ordge has recently signed a management agreement with

CBS Instruments Roy Burns sets clinic dates

Roy Burns, one of the world's busiest drummers and associated with CBS Instruments since 1965, moved back into Canada for several Clinic dates.

Held in conjunction with dealers in major centres, these clinics are considered one of the most effective promotions for the sale of Rogers Drums. The Clinics also focus much attention on the other lines of instruments and accessories carried by CBS Instruments.

Harry Dunnette, Director of the Canadian operation of CBSI, accompanies Burns on his Canadian junkets.

FLQ master up for the taking but no takers

Three young Canadian songwriters — a recording artist, classical musician, and a graduate in musicology from a major university currently playing in a well-known rock group, have put together a topical ditty entitled "FLQ". But, Canada's recently levied War Measures Act has cast a doomsday cloud over the production.

The trio knocked on several record company doors and found initial reaction from good to excellent. However, after checking with legal brains this enthusiasm cooled quickly.

Tagging themselves the Eye of Pipe band LP release coincides with tour

"Sounds Cermonial" recorded by the Coldstream Guards and the Black Watch, has been released in Canada coincidental with their highly successful tour of the continent. The two military units have already drawn enthusiastic response in Montreal, Ottawa, Kingston and Toronto. They are currently receiving similar reaction in Western Canada. Their Pye album is representative of the vitality embodied by the units in personal appearances. Pye is distributed by Phonodisc.

Anne Murray certifies for US million seller

Capitol recording star, Anne Murray, who has topped the charts of the world with her Gene MacLellan penning of "Snowbird" has certified for U.S. Gold (3).

Presentation of a Gold Record, which represents the sale of 1,000,000 copies, will be made on the Merv Griffin TVer, Nov. 10.

Miss Murray is the first Canadian female vocalist to top the million mark in the U.S. It's expected she will certify for Canadian Gold within the next few weeks.

Ready for release is her follow-up single, "Sing High, Sing Low", which is expected to become a strong chart item before "Snowbird" moves off the charts.

Miss Murray is represented on the RPM 100 Albums chart with her two album releases, "Honey, Wheat & Laughter" and "This Way Is My Way".

Horus, the trio have had the lyrical content checked out by a reputable law firm, claimed to be "fully acquainted with the War Measures Act." This law firm has apparently found the contents to be "perfectly clear of any violations whatsoever."

Described as "totally pro-Canada and along the same lines that the government has been advocating," the final verse reads:

"A thing like this could bring a country down but, in our case it's got us right off the ground and, it's led us to the place where we all have to see
That we're all one country and the same family."

The production, perhaps, leaves something to be desired, but the song, obviously Canadian Cajun (Acadian) or Holland Marsh (swamp) is catchy and has much potential. The lyrics aren't that politically offensive but there is an element of chance that could create a police action.

Eye of Horus have only one other alternative and that's to door knock in the U.S. If released in a foreign country and "officially banned" for airplay in Canada, the disc could become one of the hottest "true underground" releases on the market — if it gets on the market.

JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR
Decca-DXSA 7206-J

It they ever get this fantastic "rock opera" on the stage it could be the biggest thing of the decade. Theologians believe it could put the "U" back in church. Quality and taste is perfect whether you dig the religious bit or not. Lacks only the visual bit.

NATURALLY HIGH

Laurel & Hardy
Douglas-10-M

Fat & Skinny shouldn't be any strangers to the young crowd. High camp and excellent listener attention-getter. Set brings out little known fact that both weren't too bad as singers. Laurel & Hardy Film Festivals (TV) will add to sales potential.

GREATEST HITS

Booker T & MG's
Stax-ST 52033-Q
Great material for most formats. The ole fluid fingers at the keyboard work their magic through "Hip Hug-Her", "Eleanor Rigby" and others. If some of them weren't Booker T's hits to start with, they should be now.

LOOKING IN

Savoy Brown
Parrot-PAS 71042-K

Group showing admirable self-restraint and result is a highly musical set deserving of both programmer and dealer attention. Title cut, a standout. Don't be fooled by freaky cover.

CLOSE TO YOU

Johnny Mathis
Columbia-C 30210-H
The team of Jack Gold and Ernie Freeman have captured that old Mathis fire and come up with a winner. Buffy Sainte Marie's "Until It's Time For You To Go" should be a top favourite but don't overlook "Everything Is Beautiful".

50 GUITARS FOR MIDNIGHT LOVERS

Tommy Garrett
Liberty-LSS 14047-K

This is Garrett's 21st set and all are still good sellers as this one should be in a short time. Charles Aznavour's "Yesterday, When I Was Young" — a standout. Middle of the roaders already leaning on this one.

I (WHO HAVE NOTHING)

Tom Jones-Parrot-XPAS 71039-K
Needless to say this is a chart happenner right now. Contains his current hot single, "Can't Stop Loving You" which he performed on his own TVer as well as a recent Glen Campbell show. Lend an ear to McKuen's "Love's Been Good To Me".

DEFROSTED

Frijid Pink-Parrot
PAS 71041-K

Basically the same old Pink, but somewhat mellowed with age. Contains "Sing A Song For Freedom" and "Bye Bye Blues" which, although a little long (4:57) would make a great single. On the chart this week.

GREATEST HITS

Johnny Taylor
Stax-STS 2032-Q
Soul man Taylor has a set to delight even non-soul types. Easy going but with almost hypnotic rhythm. Smooth uncluttered production. Artist currently charted with "I Am Somebody" not contained on set.

ALL STAR COUNTRY

Various-MGM-SE 4690-M
Some of the big ones from U.S. country including Hank Williams' "Moanin' The Blues" and Williams Jr. with "It's Lonesome Down Here". Also includes cuts by Mel Tillis, Ben Colder, Sheb Wooley, and Luke the Drifter and the younger Luke.

Returning home to Halifax, Anne Murray, now certified as having a million seller with "Snowbird" was given the

Carlton Showband hit in Thunder Bay area

As has become a custom, RCA lent its full support to the recent appearance of the Carlton Showband in Thunder Bay. Following their smash appearance at the newly-named city's Winter Carnival, the group made a promise to return, which they did at the Fort William Gardens. As usual, the Carleton Showband put on a tremendously enthusiastic four hour set which was received as riotously as it was performed. In addition to RCA's active support, Marg Raynard of the News Chronicle laid on a good review in which she said: "...the merry men of music had performed a mini-miracle-- a prodigious four hour almost non-stop program of ram-bunctious song and dance. When the night of lusty music was over, each of the eight members were bathed in perspiration and basking in the knowledge that they had once again captured imaginations and hearts of hundreds."

While in the area, the group performed two benefit concerts and did a round of interviews with CKPR and CJLX radio as well at CKPR-TV. Jim Hogg, RCA's man in Winnipeg, supplied CJLX with give-aways to promote the concert.

Andy Kim sole winner of MLS station's vote

Andy Kim picked up the sole top vote for this week's MLS voting but because he is an established artist, it was decided to give the nod to Joey Gregorash who placed second in the scoring. Both artists will receive plays over the next two weeks.

DISCERIES SHOULD GET ON STICK

I too would like to add my "bit" concerning the sad state of affairs in which most Canadian Radio Stations find themselves.

Being a 50,000 Watter serving most of Atlantic Canada, you'd think we'd get new record releases extra-fast. However, this is not the case. Some labels we never see, others occasionally.

I do the Rock Show here and after taking a count of the Current Top 100 in Billboard and Cashbox, I find we have about 60 of the records. Some are a month or so old and others a week. We may get some of these and others we'll never see.

I think Canadian Record Distributors should get on the Stick and realize that we sell their records, and make the hits at Canadian Radio Stations.

I must add that not all labels give us poor service, some have been EXTRA-GOOD to us, HOWEVER, there are many offenders.

All I ask is something to keep my listeners from tuning to USA stations to hear the current TOP 40.

Thank you for taking time to read this letter and I hope you can find a space to publish it or at least inform the record companies that something has to be done.

IT HAPPENS 45 MILES AWAY

Concerning the "exclusive" interview granted Jim Smith in your September 26th issue, I can say with complete sincerity, that I found it, interesting. It was also informative; giving me a better look into CHUM and how they arrange their playlist. But I firmly believe that by the time the song reaches their charts, it's already a hit thanks to a station not 45 miles away, and the insight of its Music Director. The opinions, of course are my own, formulated after living in the greater Hamilton area for more than 14 years, and probably you'll get more personal opinions. I just felt I should express mine, although it's small and unimportant.

PUT END TO MUSICIAN TRIPS

I think that it is high time that the Musicians Union adopt a kind of pro-football and baseball system of investigators dealing with musicians taking drugs. If musicians are found taking drugs then they should be suspended. With four musicians dying within the past two years and I am sure many more to go, we have to start thinking now of their protection. Jimi Hendrix was the last straw; he might not have died solely because of drugs but solely indicates that he did die somewhat from drugs.

SING OUT EDMONTON!!!!

As a concerned Canadian announcer working in Western Canada; may I ask where is your Western Canadian content? The kind of development here in Edmonton recently has to effect the Canadian Recording Industry shortly.

Let me be the first to tell you of two names you will be hearing a lot of within the next year. The first is a group called UMBRA currently learning about entertainment and entertaining the hard way (the only way), in front of a live audience. This group has the dancers and drinkers standing to listen, laugh, and applaud during their sets, it's more than music it's ENTERTAINMENT!

The other name to watch for is Mick Burr; a young man who moved to Edmonton to write and compose. His belief that he has to work at writing has his material improving rapidly. Everytime I hear Mick's new material (which is at least once a month) I'm more and more impressed.

In Edmonton alone the number of groups and single entertainers with potential is overwhelming; may I suggest on that basis a Western Canadian rep for RPM: ITS HAPPENING HERE TOO!

Andy Michaelson
CJCA RADIO

(Ed: Congratulations on being the first Edmonton broadcaster to recognize that there is Canadian talent in your city. We are most anxious to hear about the Edmonton scene and hope that yours is the first of many communications from Western Canadian broadcasters interested in promoting the local scene.)

A few guidelines for the new songwriters

All songwriters, especially new writers should be on guard against song sharks. Or the practice of extracting money from songwriters, for little or poor service. Including charging excessive prices for writing music of low quality, to a writer's poem, plus a low grade demo of the completed song. The sad part of this is that many songwriters have sent these demos to publishers, and recording companies with the obvious results.

In recent years many new ideas and gimmicks have been used in regard to this kind of business. Out of interest and curiosity, I have been collecting, mostly by inquiry, many of the current services offered to songwriters. Among the offers which I have received, after submitting a song or song poem, include one to broadcast my song on a special weekly radio program. This, of course, after I have paid the usual collaboration fee. The only value of this service, is that someone may hear your song, and want to use it. The chance of this happening could be very remote, since the songs would be broadcast on a local station in the United States.

Another offer which I received, was for a guaranteed income of at least twenty percent of the collaboration fee, over a period of two years or more. If my song poem was selected as suitable to be used. Which is another way of saying that you get a twenty percent discount on the collaboration fee, even if your song is never heard of again.

In one offer, the point was made, there would be no charge to me, for the recording and pressing of my song, if it was selected. But each time I sent in music to go with my poem which they had selected, I was told it was unsuitable, and that I would have to collaborate with one of their composers, at the usual fee.

In another case, at a fairly reasonable cost, I could have had my own master tape of my song, pressed on an LP along with nine other new songs. An idea which for her?! But this is the polished internationally known "chanteuse" Ginette Reno.

One of Ginette's greatest outside interest is her two and a half year old Natasha, who seems as precocious as her mother was at that age. (Ginette's been married to Robert Watier for five years).

She delights in buying gifts for Natasha and proudly says "I know which ones she'll like." Ginette has her own "bag of laughs" which include a couple of water pistols which she gleefully uses. She also has a marvelous sense of humour.

When Ginette's around, everything else seems to fade out. Her very potent personality grabs all. And that's what she carries on to the stage. She lives each moment to the full, each song to its fullest meaning. An exhausting but exhilarating experience. No put-ons, all Ginette with her tempers and laughter...mostly her laughter because she always finds something funny or good about life.

One of her songs portrays the intensity of Ginette Reno as a person and as a singer. Its the French version of "Yellow River"... "L'Amerique"...more or less a statement on the musical takeover of the States. "L'Amerique, je le veux, L'Amerique je l'aurais". "America is what I want, America is what I'll have." With that determination, personality and talent...she'll do it. —Claire Lalonde

Jeannie Harmon bows on Square Sounds

John Rodney, of Van-Los Music International Ltd., announces the release of "The Shadow Of Summer" by Jeannie Harmon the on Square Sounds label. The plug side was written by Walt Slavinski. The flip, "My Room" is a co-penning by Leahy and Russell. Producer of the session is listed as Joe Leahy.

Square Sounds is a division of Van Los Music, a Vancouver-based firm. At time of writing, there is no information available as to national distribution.

in some ways may hold some merit.

In closing, to mention one other offer which I received. This involved submitting songs or song poems for recording consideration, which would be done at no cost to the writer, if his song or song poem was selected. But with each song or song poem submitted, two dollars had to be sent as well, to defray costs of handling and mailing. There is one thing certain about this kind of offer, your song or song poem may be returned, but your two dollars will not.
