

Maple Sugar album to Canadian Embassies

60 CENTS
Volume 21 No. 23
July 27, 1974

The Department of External Affairs recently ordered a large quantity of the "Maple Sugar" album to be distributed to Canadian embassies and commissions throughout the world. The album, which features songs of early Canada, has been receiving a fair amount of exposure on Canadian radio.

Promotion for the album has been looked after by Dorothy Hogan, conductor of the Guelph folk choir. The album is available now through Sam The Record Man stores, Methuen Publications and Springwater Productions of Guelph, Ontario.

The Maple Sugar troupe recently presented selections from their album at a concert for delegates attending the international conference of gnotobiotic research scientists, held at the University of Guelph. Their featured "Queen of the Canadian Fiddle", Eleanor Moorehead, now Mrs. Graham Townsend, gave an added boost to the album when she appeared with her famous husband, Graham at the Ontario Agricultural College's Old-Tyme Dance (July 11).

Described by Dorothy Hogan as "A community love affair with Canada", the two-record "Maple Sugar" set is a "live" recording of the Maple Sugar festivals, presented during the spring of 1973. The session was taped by Eastern Sound engineers Stuart Taylor and Roger Viner with an assist from Ian MacDiarmid, operating co-ordinator of Radio Gryphon (Guelph). The session was co-produced by Professor Homer Hogan and his wife Dorothy. The album cover was designed by Carl Brett, president

A large sized boost in album and singles sales by RCA groups and solo artists are expected over the next few months. Touring dates have been scheduled over the "sun" months which will allow the label to gear its operation for increased sales.

Making his Canadian debut will be John Denver who is set for a concert at the PNE/Vancouver (Aug. 22). His latest single, "Annie's Song", became a Top 5 item on the RPM Top Singles Chart July 20th after only eight weeks on release. A follow-up album, "Back Home Again", including his hit single, has now been released.

Charley Pride will make it to the PNE with his Pride Of America Show. His featured guest will be Ronnie Milsap currently seeing country playlist action with "Pure Love". Wilf Carter, an RCA recording artist for the past forty years, will play several dates throughout the west over the summer months.

The Guess Who, making good gains up the

McLAUCHLAN & NICOL ACTIVE WITH DATES

Terry McGee, Ontario promotion for Columbia Records, is currently touting single product by Dave Nicol and Murray McLauchlan, both of whom are adding to their national image with Canadian concert dates.

The McLauchlan single, "Shoeshine Working Song", a five minute plus country-cum-folk ballad, has become a top sales item at Columbia but has yet to impress contemporary rock major programmers. The single became an instant hit with country and pop programmers on release and has become a heavy playlist item at several breakout stations. Strong play on Toronto's CKFM and CHUM-FM has contributed much to the sales success of the single and it's hoped that a breakout situation will emerge over the next few weeks. McLauchlan is currently making news south of the border with club dates in Boston, New York City, Philadelphia, Washington, Atlanta, Nashville and Chicago. He returns to Canada and the Winnipeg Folk Festival (Aug 9-10) where he will join John Hammond, David Rae, John Allan Cameron, Sylvia Tyson and fellow True North artist Bruce Cockburn. He will also appear in concert in Kenora, arranged through rock music columnist Doug Powers.

Columbia's promo rep, Mike Watson, will work the Winnipeg area with branch manager Corrine Burke, a week prior to the Festival, setting up in-store displays and bringing the McLauchlan message home to the pop and contemporary rock programmers of that city.

The Dave Nicol single, "Mexico", a self-penned produced by Jim Eaves, has found favour with pop programmers and he too will assist Columbia's promotion people with dates in several Canadian centres. He has just completed an engagement at the Sudbury Folk Festival (July 5-7) and moves west to Winnipeg's Thing Tea Room (July 23-28) where he will work with Columbia's Burke on in-store and radio and television promotions.

Nicol has also been scheduled to play Vancouver's Egress Club from July 31st through August 1st. Columbia's west coast promo man, Frank Gigliotti, will launch a province-wide promotion on the Nicol single to tie-in with his club date.

RPM Top Singles chart with "Clap For The Wolfman", and on the RPM Top Albums chart with "Road Food" will headline shows at both the PNE and Toronto's CNE. Gate for their last year's Toronto date was well over $100,000, netting them $64,000. This year they appear with a new member, Dom Troiano, who replaced Don McDougall and Kurt Winter.

Jose Feliciano, not currently active on the record scene, returns to Canada for several dates. He kicks off his Canadian tour with a July 31st date at Convocation Hall in Toronto followed by one-nighters in Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Regina, Calgary and Vancouver (Aug. 1-5).

Canadian appearances by David Bowie sparked strong album sales for "Diamond Dogs". His Toronto concerts — both sold out, were attended by U.S. and British rock writers including those from Rolling Stone, Zoo World, Melody Maker and Rock Scene. It's expected that Bowie's current North American tour will launch him as a new "rock phenomenon". Elvis Presley's Niagara Falls, New York concert was close enough to the plum of the Canadian market to allow RCA sales and promotion people to launch his new album, "Elvis Presley On Stage in Memphis". A promotion by Dave and Murray Hoffman of Muntz whereby they supplied several hundred tickets to the concert, as well as press ducats, gave an added boost to sales in the Ontario market.

On the Canadian talent front, RCA's Toronto studios were busy cranking out single and album product by Jack Cornell and Robert David. Cornell is currently seeing pop playlist action with "In The Park". His single will be followed by an album in the fall. Cornell was also the producer for David's new single, "Sunshine Man". An album follow-up is expected in the fall as well. Newly signed to RCA is Rick Neufeld, who will shortly be heard on a session backed by local Winnipeg musicians: Cummings, Wallace and Peterson (?).

RUTLEDGE WINDS UP WESTERN TOUR

Van Los recording artist Doug Rutledge is now working his way back to Vancouver after a hectic tour of western Canada which has seen him play in Williams Lake, Abbotsford, Grand Prairie, Prince George, Meadow Lake, Prince Albert and Medicine Hat. The tour, booked by Dennis Compo through Nellis Agencies, consisted mainly of club and hotel dates.

Upon arrival on the west coast, Rutledge will enter North Vancouver's Stoney Sound, to begin work on a single for Van Los. This will be followed by an album in the fall.

TELEVISION USED TO PUSH DENVER PRODUCT

RCA Records' Vancouver branch has launched a major television campaign to push product by the label's John Denver.

RCA contracted with the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation for spots over its thirty one stations and repeaters throughout British Columbia. The campaign, which began June 26th is scheduled to end July 26th. The spots, concentrating on Denver's "Greatest Hits" package, are being done in co-operation with Kelly's Stereo Marts. A campaign similar in scope and content, is scheduled to begin shortly in co-operation with The Bay department stores.

MCA'S JOHNSTON FINDS WURLITZER TREASURE

A rare 1935 original Wurlitzer "in mint condition" was the prize MCA's Quebec sales manager, Bob Johnston, came up with for his "Sting" contest.

Vehicle for the contest was Montreal's giant pop outlet, CJAD — mainly because "The Entertainer" drew the biggest reaction of any record at the station this year.

The popularity of the movie was another factor in the timing of the contest which involved the six Bay stores, arranged through Pindoff Sales, and two A&A stores — all in the Montreal area. Ballots and special ballot boxes were made up for each of the locations with displays arranged at all the stores as well as the Odeon Theatre where the movie was being shown. Highlight of the contest was the display in A&A's downtown store window (St. Catherine St.) where the reaction from the public was described as "fantastic" resulting in excellent sales and a ballot box full of entries.

A total of 12,000 entries were submitted with the winning ballot being drawn on stage at the Odeon.

COLUMBIA ACTS DESCEND ON WESTERN CANADA

Columbia Records recording artists will invade western Canada in record numbers over the summer. Much of the activity centres in Vancouver. Chicago kicks it all off July 17th with a Coliseum date, followed on the 24th by Santana and on the 26th and 27th by Maynard Ferguson and Paul Horn, who are appearing as part of the Belvedere Jazz Festival.

Country artists Johnny Duncan, Freddy Weller and Bob Luman appear in Vancouver August 15th, preceded by a date in Victoria. Lynn Anderson appears August 18th at the Coliseum, followed by Jim Nabors (21), King, Biscuit Boy (25) and Charlie Rich (31).

Edmonton also receives its share of Columbia's attention during that city's Klondike Days when Bobby Vinton and Lynn Anderson play July 17-20 and July 22-24 respectively. Santana plays the Alberta capital July 22nd.

What's wrong with Canadian country????

PART TWO

by WALT GREALIS

Well . . . we've obviously opened a whole new can of worms. Perhaps this is what us country folk need — a little written controversy to stir the adrenalin. The key to this whole bloody country mess is PROMOTION. Radio stations become involved in giant promotions . . . of Nashville and the country artists who made "Music City U.S.A.". Is it really possible for Canadians to create their own Country Mecca? Can we do, in Canada, what the Americans have done in Nashville? Geographically . . . we're screwed. We have tremendous input by country programmers like Charlie Russell, CJCJ/Woodstock, Ron Robinson/CJVI Victoria, Larry Kunkel, CFAC/Calgary, Dave Johnson, CFGM/Toronto, Tom Peacock, CKWX/Vancouver, Ron Foster, CKLW-FM/Windsor, Ron Mullin, CKRM/Regina, Peter Grant, CJOB-FM/Winnipeg, Peter Darrell, CHSC/St. Catharines, Frank Martina, CJIB/Vernon, Paul Kennedy, CKDH/Amherst, J. Gold, CHFX-FM/Halifax, Cliff Birnie, CKX-FM/Brandon, Ted Daigle, CKBY/Ottawa, Ted Hockaday, CFTK/Terrace, Bob Weidman, CKDM/Dauphin, Kevin McGowan, VOCM/St. John's, John Murphy, CHML/Hamilton, Freeman Roach, CJC/Sydney, and Bill McGee and Curly Curlock at CFCW/Camrose . . . but that's where it ends. The Canadian country music scene is, unfortunately, only capable of nickel and dime promotions. But don't be discouraged . . . it's getting better.

Here's mud in your eye. John Rowlands has just returned from a swing through Tennessee and he got caught up in the excitement of Nashville's Fan-Fair. So, chew a little on your Canadian apathy and read what it's like to be part of a U.S. national phenomenon — all brought about through promotion.

FUN-FAIR — John Rowlands

The magnetism of the people that sing country music recently attracted 15,000 followers to music city, that fine old city they call Nashville. Now into it's fourth year Fan-Fair was put together by an association of fan clubs to attempt an event that would allow the fan to spend some time and money in studio city and see a cross-section of the greats of country music. It also took some pressures off the D.J. convention, held at the opposite end of the year, and there lies the entertainers' only reason for appearing. Fan-Fair is recognition and thanks to the fans, the D.J. convention the same for the Disc Jockeys. The large circular auditorium in the downtown area is the home for Fan-Fair. Downstairs in this building fan clubs rent booth space for the five day affair and here they sell everything from combs to cowboy hats with their entertainers names inscribed. Glossy 8 by 10's, buttons, flags, radios, newspapers, newsletters, scarves, recipe books, posters, bumper stickers, whistles, backscratchers, T-shirts, information kits, post cards and records are all sold, raffled, or given away from these posts.

Most of the folks who pay the twenty-five dollar subscription fee to the five days, wear at least six buttons and carry large shopping bags as they cruise the displays looking for another fan club to join.

Buttons, buttons and more buttons to come. Country lass has lots of faith and room to promote country acts.

Upstairs in the hall is where the real value takes place. Up to four shows a day give the fans what they came to see. Almost everyone on the country charts today, from Conway Twitty to Ronnie Milsap, from Lynn Anderson to Tanya Tucker are there to perform for their friends the fans. After each show the artist moves downstairs to either the fan club booth or the record label booth to sign autographs, pose for pictures and be pushed and pulled by anxious people who are afraid they'll miss their turn unless they force their way to where the action is. Imagine the 260 pound Dolly Parton look-a-like trying to make her way through a crowd of 300 so she could have her photo taken with Dolly just to prove to the folks back in Iowa that they really could be sisters. After all everyone has told her so anyway.

Canada was represented in a few ways. RCA Canada had a booth and George Hamilton the fourth did a fine one man show as part of the RCA Concert. The Boot Record people had a flashy red and white booth with Canada's number one country artist Stompin' Tom on display in every way but in person. Around the corner from Tom's booth was a curious surprise. It was a booth set up by Canada's number one female country singer, that name we all know and love, Gracie Dee.?? That daughter of the north, who books her act out of Madison, Tenn., never once had to worry about a large crowd pushing or pulling her in front of her Canadian booth, reason being one never formed.

The real number one female singer from Canada did show up in Nashville but her appearance was almost as secret as Paul McCartney's. Paul was in town for eight weeks recording and Anne Murray came in for two days of promotional duties. Fans in the know were at the Country Music Hall of Fame as Anne, Ray Griff, Johnny Rodriguez and a few others were officially admitted as members with their names being added to the Walkway of the Stars. From there Anne taped several Ralph Emery radio shows on WSM, one with Hoyt Axton, and then attended a reception.

The week did have a few surprises to offer, and the country fans just ate them up. The first took place when Ernest Tubb presented Mother Maybelle Carter with the first Annual Tex Ritter award for her contributions to country music and recording. Next out on the stage came John Cash, much to the delight of the Instamatic fans who stormed the stage area to flash their excitement and catch a good shot of Big John.

If you were lucky enough to get into the rooftop lounge at the King of the Road Motor Inn, you saw guest sets onstage by Charley Pride, Ronnie Milsap, Norvel Felts, Joe Lewis, Johnny Walker, and many others. The co-star in many Roy Rogers

It was like an election rally. Charlie McCoy, here with a bevy of supporters . . . and promoters.

EARL SCRUGGS SETS EGRESS AFIRE

Picker Earl Scruggs surprised everyone during his recent Vancouver appearance by packing the mid-town Egress for two shows every night and winning a series of standing ovations and encores. Appearing with his Earl Scruggs Revue, he created an atmosphere which Columbia promotion rep Frank Gigliotti described as "almost Beatlelike. I've never seen that kind of reaction at a club like the Egress."

While in the city, Scruggs gave interviews to members of the local press, including representatives of the Vancouver Province, the Sun and the Georgia Strait. His current Columbia single, "Travelling Prayer" f/s "Silver Eagle", drawn from his "Rockin' Cross the Country" album, is now being serviced to all stations.

RPM...One helluva big ego trip

It occurred to me recently that there has been more written in RPM about RPM than any other subject. Could be . . . and there must be a reason — so I have attempted to pen a reason for this ego trip RPM has been on.

There's one fact that's obvious — RPM is a thing, an object belonging to and responsible to the music industry. Maneuvering this thing throughout the past ten years has been my job — either by plan or by error.

Frankly speaking, I really don't think I ever believed that RPM would last for ten years. The fact that it has, is a constant source of amazement to me.

NO NEED FOR NEWSWEEKLY

Is there really a need for a Canadian music weekly in Canada? Since the Canadian music industry has been little more than an extension of the U.S. music industry for all these years, there are those who believe there's really no reason for RPM to exist.

There are various trade papers and sheets coming into Canada each week, most of them covering the Canadian music scene in one way or another. There's the possibility their combined revenue derived from Canada may be as much as twice the revenue realized by RPM each year.

Someone once asked me: "Is this what you do for a living? What do you do the rest of the time?" Sure . . . RPM is a sad imitation of a trade paper. We receive many glossy and colourful trades touting some very strange and monied Canadian industries. Their size and gloss are a source of envy to me — and a tremendous image booster to their individual industries. Take into consideration however, that most of them are monthlies — and they deal with industries that don't require instant communication.

FIRST CLASS SUBSCRIBERS

I'm guessing, but I am sure that few publications in Canada have as high a percentage of first class subscribers as does RPM — an indication that RPM is wanted . . . quickly.

I recall back in 1964 when a programmer wrote to RPM: "We don't care what RPM looks like, we just want it every week and we want what's in it". Based on that I think the formula of RPM has stayed the way it is — we lock up, print and mail. Over the years, record men returning to Toronto from a cross-Canada trip tell me how much RPM means outside of Toronto (Outsiders who think RPM is a "Toronto rag", please note: RPM supposedly means very little in Toronto).

SOMEONE MUST CARE

So, RPM continues with its many ups and downs — and the industry continues with its many ups and downs and somehow every once in a while I get the distinct feeling that what we are doing here does matter . . . to someone . . . somewhere.

Philosophizing, I tell myself that one of the problems is Canadian apathy. We, as Canadians, are notoriously known as having little faith in things Canadian. We all love a parade — only because of the noise and excitement. Attach any significance to it and our interest wanes. I can then extend that thinking to the theory that perhaps that is the very reason RPM came into being. We made a lot of noise in the beginning and we sure as hell created a great deal of excitement. Is the interest now waning?

What has RPM done for me personally? I can now boast a sixty hour work week — for fifty-two weeks of the year, in one of the most exciting industries in the world. The last ten years have been eventful — and seldom boring. It has given me the opportunity to meet many very real and genuine people . . . and also many many misguided souls.

ONE BATTLE TO ANOTHER

We have gone from one battle to another . . . and survived, riding out some very difficult periods. We have worked with some very dedicated and unbelievable people who have been the backbone of RPM. I am grateful that there are those, just short of genius, on my staff and working in cooperation with me who have really been the ones responsible for the past ten years of RPM.

RPM has written a great deal about RPM and I think our main purpose for all this self-press is the fact that the need for a music industry weekly in Canada has never been established. We have rationalized our existence to the industry, hoping the industry might someday realize that RPM is exactly what they make it.

It's been a pleasure piloting this ship over these ten years plus, but the fuel and the need — and the encouragement came from across Canada (and outside Toronto) and one half hour later in Newfoundland.

ONLY FOR AMERICANS

With up to 1000 U.S. readers, the following column will allow our American friends to become more aware of Canada and Canadian things.

As well as major and independent record labels, RPM goes to all the major radio stations in the U.S., developing an increase in interest by music directors and on-air personalities.

Toronto, Canada will soon boast the tallest free-standing structure in the world, when the CN Tower is completed in June of 1975. The Tower was designed to house a transmission mast that will be shared by Toronto television and FM stations.

Here are some of the vital statistics:

The over-all height above ground will be 1800 to 1815 feet depending on the final design of the transmission mast. At the 1140 foot level there will be a skypod dining room that will seat 400. There will be an observation level at 1100 feet that will afford visitors a 75 to 80 mile view. Above that at 1500 feet there will be a higher observation level. The observation and public areas will accommodate 600 people.

High speed elevators will move 1300 people an hour.

Eight TV channels and 11 FM radio station antennas will be housed in the transmission mast.

Presently under construction in Poland is a TV tower that will reach 2100 feet, but unlike the CN Tower will be supported by guyed wires, so the CN Tower will remain the tallest free-standing structure in the world.

By the way, the Sears Tower in Chicago is 1450 feet tall and is the largest office building in the world. The Empire State Building is 1250 feet high.

HOSPITALITY SUITES FOR C9 SHOULD BE RESERVED EARLY

Hospitality suites at Vancouver's Bayshore Inn for RPM's C9 (Sept. 21-22) should be reserved early to avoid the disappointment experienced by some at our last Vancouver meet. Those who have reserved so far include: Columbia Records, Motown Records and RPM.

Those wishing to reserve a hospitality suite, in the tower or main building, should contact the Bayshore direct to Barbara Danuke, Telex: 04-51442 or telephone (604) 682-3373, mention the RPM event and where you would like your suite located. You may also contact Stan Klees, RPM Special Projects by Telexing 04-54358 or Telephone (416) 425-0257. Miss Danuke advises that twelve hospitality suites are available for the RPM dates.

Speakers for C9 have not as yet been firmed but will be announced within the next few weeks. Columbia's national sales manager, Bert Dunseith, who will be making a presentation in Vancouver earlier in September, will be holding his product presentation over for a special showing during the C9 weekend. Activities and presentation plans for other record and production companies will be announced as they are firmed.

Those planning special events for the week-end should send details to Klees at RPM.

LIGHTHOUSE BREAKING RECORDS IN MARITIMES

The eastern section of the cross-Canada tour by Lighthouse has resulted in the establishment of new records in many major centres throughout the Atlantic Provinces. The Campbellton, Newcastle and Amherst concerts drew the largest local audiences ever assembled for a rock concert.

Serge Sawchyn, tour promoter, worked closely with CJCH Radio in Halifax for the Forum date (7) and drew the largest ever rock audience in Nova Scotia. The one night grossed almost eighteen thousand dollars. On Newfoundland Island and working with CJON St. John's, two nights were sold out in less than twenty-four hours and a third was sold out clean within twelve hours. Other dates on the Island, Gander, Grand Falls, Corner Brook and Stephenville, at press time, were shaping up to indicate record crowds.

ONTARIO ARTS GRANTS GIVEN TO PUBLISHERS

Literary grants amounting to $600,000 have been given to thirty-one publishing houses and forty-four periodicals. The publishing houses grants of $240,000 are scaled from $2500.00 to $15,000. Grants to periodicals include $12,500 to Saturday Night and Books in Canada.

Non-profit literary organizations were also allowed grants with the Union of Canadian Writers receiving their first grant of $13,000. A pilot project of grants in the amount of $15,000 was allowed through publishing houses to "provide quality illustrations for children's books".

R. DEAN TAYLOR ON TOUR OF GREAT BRITAIN

R. Dean Taylor is currently on an eight week tour of Great Britain. His one man show began June 24th and coincides with the chart success of "There's A Ghost In My House", one of his last productions for Motown. Rather than the one shot concert type of tour, Taylor prefers discotheques and cabarets where he will reach a larger cross-section of the British people.

Taylor's tour was set up between Steve Metz and Contempo's John Abbey.

NATIONAL IMAGE FOR TONY COOPER

The small west coast Dorato label has succeeded in gaining a foothold in the Canadian market with their single and album releases by Tony Cooper. The single, "New Words For An Old Song", sustained a berth on the RPM Pop Playlist for almost ten weeks. Much of the Cooper action happened in western Canada but just recently began spilling over into the eastern sector. Heavy play by CHML/Hamilton resulted in a request for product by Paikin's Melody Lane, who have two major outlets in the Hamilton area and one in Sault Ste. Marie.

Rudi Peichert, president of Dorato, is currently in talks with a major Canadian label for national distribution of his product.

BOOK REVIEW

THE ROCKIN' 50'S by ARNOLD SHAW PRENTICE-HALL OF CANADA LTD. $8.95

In the early 50's, the rock era brought an end to the "hit parade" concept of music. In the revolution, the effect was felt by the traditional top pop stars of that time.

New and innovative music was taking over from the music and record establishment.

Not too many people in today's music industry are familiar with this part of the music and record industry's history.

In this book, Arnold Shaw describes the fight that ensued. Rock and roll and rhythm and blues were taking over and many a songwriter, publisher, artist, manager as well as the performance rights organizations and finally the government got involved in the fight to kill the new sound and the new music.

Shaw stars with Presley, Freed, Storz, McLendon, "Sh-Boom" and "Rock Around the Clock" and takes you to the payola probe that ended the decade.

The book covers the death of Tin Pan Alley from 1950 to 1953 and the birth of rock and roll in 1954. It brings to light the black originals and the white covers. American Bandstand and the Country rockers all play a part in the saga that unfolds to create the 60's and the return of rock in the 70's.

Filled with names, places, events and hits, stars and industry intrigue, the book reads like fiction but is history and fact.

Record oldies who lived through the era will appreciate the nostalgia. Newcomers will find it interesting that the rock era began in 1954 and it wasn't just a new sound, but a battle to create new frontiers in the music industry. — S.K.

WEST COAST ACTION FOR NEW RCA ACTS

Two recently signed RCA Records artists will have product released in the very near future. Edmonton's Bob Suzicka has already completed six sides at that city's Damon Studios under producer Gary McDonald. A single release is expected very shortly, to be followed by an album in the fall. Another new signing, the Hans Staymer Band from Vancouver, have finished recording at Vancouver's Little Mountain Sound and Can-Base. The material, enough to fill an album, is now being mixed in Los Angeles.

MacLEAN & MacLEAN FINALLY ON WAX

They've been a long time in the making but MacLean and MacLean are finally scheduled for an album release. Entitled "Toilet Rock", the album was recorded "live" at Toronto's Chimney and produced by Skip Prokop. The Maritime brothers describe their album as "Straight Toilet rock the flush your muddy mind". The album jacket warns buyers and programmers that the album contains dirty words.

Blair and Gary MacLean, natives of Glace Bay, Nova Scotia, first came into prominence with their appearance at last year's Canadian Entertainment Conference (CEC) in Kitchener.

Just recently on an extensive cross-Canada tour with Lighthouse, MacLean and MacLean will be appearing at several Canadian concerts over the summer.

FLUDD/ATTIC RECORDS — MARITIME TOUR

Fludd, who were recently the first act to sign with Attic Records, have picked up excellent initial reaction on their new single "Brother & Me". The tune was previewed June 23rd, a day before release, at Nathan Phillips Square, when Fludd played before an estimated 50,000 people. The first Attic album, entitled "Great Expectations", is scheduled for early November release — with sessions throughout August at Manta Sound.

Fludd begin their Maritimes tour July 25 — with dates arranged through Entertainment Contacts in Halifax.

POLYDOR PUSHES FOR AZNAVOUR CROSSOVER

Polydor's national promotion network will shortly launch a campaign to move Charles Aznavour into the contemporary rock scene. His latest Barclay single, "She", topped the British charts recently and has been rush released for the Canadian market.

Aznavour's English and French releases have always enjoyed strong sales in Canada and heavy play on pop stations.

KOFFMAN READIES UNIQUE JAZZ LP

GRT recording artist Moe Koffman, becoming known for his adaptations of classical themes, has taken a turn to the left for his fourth album. He is now preparing an album of original jazz material. The session is taking place at Toronto Sound Studios with Doug Riley producing.

Several Canadian writers will be represented on the album including Riley, Hoffman and the latter's bass player, Don Thomas, Rick Wilkins, Ron Collier and Freddie Stone. Hoffman hasn't gone the full straight route however. The nine pieces will each represent a planet in the solar system.

PSI CHORD SINGLES GET STRONG ACTION

Two discs released by Vancouver's Psi Chord are receiving strong regional play in the west. Charles Townsend of Psi Chord reports that "Can't See the Mountain Anymore" by Peter Ebner and Micky Malone's "Welfare Valley" are both strong items in various regional markets.

Strongest areas are the lower mainland of British Columbia, Alberta and Manitoba. The label is independently distributed.

NEUFELD SIGNED TO DUNBAR MUSIC

Dunbar Music has entered into a multi-year artist agreement with Winnipeg singer/songwriter Rick Neufeld. The RCA publishing arm has also firmed a co-publishing agreement with Waldheim Music for Neufeld's compositions.

Initial single release, "A Love Worth Living For" and "Morning Song" showcases the instrumental backing of Burton Cummings on piano, Gary Peterson, drums; and Bill Wallace, bass. The session was produced in Winnipeg and Toronto with Barry Keane producing and Bob Hahn of Champlain Productions as executive producer. Mark Smith, now living in Los Angeles, flew into the 'Peg and Toronto to engineer the sessions.

Voyagers on the road to Gottterdammerung

WENGEN, Switzerland

Well friends, here we are 6,000 feet up in the Alps literally besieged by beauty. Such sweet relief for a ravaged soul, mind-opener to forgotten pleasures, visions of other times. No cars, no noise, no industry, no record biz, no phonies flunkies or pseudos, no ugliness, no TV, no low life high rises, no

"progress." What we have here is a splendid and surviving quality of life. Paradise is what I feel compelled to call it. Down there is Dante's Inferno while up here are the gates of heaven. And you don't need god to find it.

Since TV, radio and newspapers are in German, we are effectively cut off from the bad news. Wasn't it Kurt Vonnegut who observed recently: "Things are going to get worse and worse and never get better again." Of course he's right. Learning to live with it (or, by preference, without it) is the name of the new game for us voyagers on the road to Gottterdammerung.

What we're doing in Wengen is living, loving and learning — and writing a book on Van Morrison and catching up on some words and sounds. In response to a fair number of enquiries from around the globe, I shall now set out details of precisely what supplies of books and tapes we have brought along to the mountains for the next couple of months.

In the case of literature, I made a lengthy visit to Foyles book market in Charing Cross Road before leaving London. The selections were mainly titles we've been wanting to read (or re-read) for many a moon. More than likely, they'll probably give you a good indication of where our heads are these days.

The Philosophy of Nietzsche - edited by Geoffrey Clive; The Origin of Species - Charles Darwin; The Idea of Progress - Sidney Pollard; The Sound and the Fury - William Faulkner; Ethics - Aristotle; The Republic - Plato; Brave New World - Aldous Huxley; Meditations - Marcus Aurelius; Philosophical Dictionary - Voltaire; The Politics - Aristotle; A Dictionary of Famous Quotations; Drugs and Human Behaviour - Gordon Claridge; The Last Days of Socrates - Plato; The Poem of Hashish - Charles Baudelaire; Voss - Patrick White; The Tree of Life - Patrick White; Riders in the Chariot - Patrick White; One Hundred Years of Solitude - Gabriel Garcia Marquez; Writing A Novel - John Braine; After the Ball - Ian Whitcomb; The Odyssey - Homer; Naked in Garden Hills - Harry Crews; The Pop Process - Richard Mabey; Aldous Huxley Biography Pt. 1 - Sybille Bedford and The Story of the Blues - Paul Oliver.

On the musical front, we have a splendid new Ferguson Cassette Player with superb tone and a stock of cassettes including the following titles: Laid Back, Gregg Allman; Low Spark of High-Heeled Boys, Shoot Out At the Fantasy Factory, Traffic; Astral Weeks, Moondance, St. Dominics Preview, Hard Nose the Highway, It's Too Late To Stop Now, Van Morrison; Piano Concerto No. 17 in G Major, No. 21 in C Major, Mozart played by Geza Anda; Scrapbook, Dave Mason; Fragile, Closer to the Edge, Yes; Buddah and the Chocolate Box, Cat Stevens; Tubular Bells, Mike Oldfield; Elton John, Tumbleweed Connection, Madman Across the Water, Don't Shoot Me I'm Only The Piano Player, Goodbye Yellow Brick Road, Elton John; Phillip Goodhand Tait; In the Court of the Crimson King, King Crimson; The Best of Otis Redding; Stephen Stills (first album); Deja Vu, Crosby Stills Nash and Young; A 25th Anniversary in Show Business Salute to Ray Charles, Parts 1 and 2, Ray Charles; Unborn Child, Seals and Croft; Aretha's Greatest Hits, Let Me In Your Life, Aretha Franklin; Yellow Submarine, The Beatles; Everybody Knows This is Nowhere, Harvest, Neil Young; Grand Hotel, Exotic Birds and Fruit, Procol Harum; Bridge of Sighs, Robin Trower; Striking It Rich, Dan Hicks and the Hot Licks.

In addition, I am anticipating the imminent arrival of a cassette of the next Van Morrison album, Veedon Fleece.

As far as other cultural activities are concerned, we have heard rumours of the occasional classical music concert in the village church. There is also a cinema showing American westerns on Friday and Saturday night, which has no interest for us. Who needs to see any further vilification of the American Indian by Hollywood?

I don't think we're going to have much trouble getting through the next couple of months.

Our only other regular entertainment comes from weekly copies of RPM and Record World. Who could ask for anything more?

After all, as Rudyard Kipling once wrote: "If you can keep your head when all about you, Are losing theirs and blaming it on you."

Or in the words of the 16th Century playwright Thomas Kyd.

"In time the savage bull sustains the yoke, In time all haggard hawks will stoop to lure, In time small wedges cleave the hardest oak, In time the flint is pieced with softest shower."

This is an 8 by 10 glossy. This is a press release

Walt Grealis often tells the story of a top Canadian group leader who brought a photo into RPM in 1964. It was a photo taken by a small home camera, it was dog-eared and the artist asked if he could have it back the next day. It was the only one they had.

That was the rock scene in Canada in 1964. Bios of artists were unheard of and photos and information on groups was very hard to come by.

I have a theory about what caused the situation to change, but I doubt if I would be able to get it printed in RPM. It did change. Something created the need for 8 by 10 glossies, bios and press releases and the Canadian music industry became just a little more professional.

As much as we have moved ahead, there are still times when there seems to be a laxity on the part of some record companies to be able to supply artist glossies to the dailies and others that might want them. Glossies aren't of the best artist quality and bios on artists are rare or badly put together.

A record heavy told me recently that press releases don't really matter that much and since then I have found that his company has created quite an impressive pile, so one can assume that they don't matter, but they keep them coming.

Too often the artist, record company or

HEAVY TV SCHEDULE FOR ANNE MURRAY

Major television showings have now been scheduled over the summer months for Capitol recording artist Anne Murray. She just completed a taping in Denver for a special guest appearance for a TV special, "Meanwhile Back At Caribou Ranch" which features Charlie Rich and Chicago. Televising date for this ABC-TV network special has been set as August 16 at 8:30PM EDT.

Murray has also completed the taping of her third "Midnight Special". She was the hostess on this NBC-TV network show which was televised July 5. No dates have been set but it's expected that the "Monsanto Night Presents Engelbert Humperdinck In Bermuda" will be shown the first part of August. Murray flew into Bermuda for this taping.

After a month of rest, Murray returns to the tour circuit with a date at the Schaefer Festival in New York's Central Park (August 3). She follows this with three days with Loggins and Messina at the Universal Amphitheatre in Hollywood (5-7).

On the record front Murray is having double-sided action. Pop and contemporary rock programmers gave her side "You Won't See Me", a Lennon/McCartney song, good chart action for the past thirteen weeks.

Country programmers however, flipped the single to "He Thinks I Still Care" where it has been a steady climber on the RPM Country Playlist for the past ten weeks.

manager take a very strange attitude about trade press. Often a phone call will come into the RPM offices and the party at the other end feels that a reporter and camera man should show up in two hours for an earth shaking event. To him it may be earth shaking, but to the rest of the industry it is interesting but happens every day.

Sitting on my desk are press kits and press releases that were retrieved from RPM's mail of last week. Most of them are from the U.S. and from very important publicists. They are sharp, smartly done and well written. They are packaged with appeal and photos are enclosed with properly affixed cutlines and complete information.

I could name here a dozen PR people that I could recommend in the U.S. to look after my interests (if I had need for a press agent) but I really can't name one in Canada nor can I say that any in-company setup produces this kind of press packaging. Small wonder the dailies and the wire services ignore a great deal of what is happening in the Canadian musicbiz.

RECORD COMPANY MAGAZINES

A number of record companies put out their own reczines that are well circulated in the trade. They are often well done and look expensive. Just how many go out and who reads them are another question. I have a personal theory that these reczines are the answer to everything and that is where promotion and publicity ends. The budget and the time is shot on oneshot a month and the scribes and radio people are expected to lift from the reczine and THAT'S promotion and publicity.

It is not only my feeling, but a fact (confirmed by RPM) that RPM does not glean any of these reczines or any other publications. Once it is printed and in circulation, there is no reason to repeat the story for a wider audience ... after the fact.

Were I preparing something for RPM that I really wanted published, I would head it "Special to RPM". I would send it by Special Delivery MAIL (not by courier) or by telex.

If you want a prototype of a good press package, many come from the U.S. and someone will gladly show you one.

Just how important is press to you is reflected by what you submit. It's all in the presentation (and the newsworthiness).

Record sales and record play conflict

Radio stations "play what the listener wants to hear", but with the changing times I'd like to ask a few questions about their relevance to record plays. But let's be careful in what we say, because I'm talking about album sales in particular — and it's a fact that the programming of albums and album cuts is a format not yet perfected.

Somewhere out there in radioland there is someone with a better answer and perhaps through this article we might stimulate the formulating of a system whereby albums and album cuts can be programmed to reflect the tastes of the public (at least as reflected at the record counter).

Progressive radio, in its heyday, did experiment in the programming of album cuts and they were very successful in gathering a large audience. Even today, there's a certain amount of FM play that creates talk . . . and controversy, and brings new listeners to FM, which does offer an alternative.

Even the straight AM pop programmer will take a chance and lean on an album cut because of listener response — and the on-air personality will take it upon himself to play the cut . . . and often.

I'm suggesting that two factors should be considered in the programming of album cuts. The fact that the record industry markets albums — and very successfully, and that the record buyer responds to albums not being programmed. The latter raises the question of . . . is radio missing a whole new audience that would respond to the airplay the way they do to the record counter cash register?

There are many questions that should be brought up with a definite view to finding the answers. Someone out there will find the answer — either by intent or accident.

As long as the singles and album charts don't agree on hits and hit albums, there is reason to believe there is a programming concept that could revolutionize radio, or at least shake up the ratings — when someone comes up with some answers.

We don't have the answers yet, but we are on record as having asked the question . . . on records.

EIGHTH BIG YEAR FOR ROTHMANS/CHIN PICNIC

The eighth year for Rothmans/CHIN International Picnic was perfect timing for Canada's political leaders — all of whom took advantage of the more than 125,000 Torontonians who weathered the 90 degree heat at the Toronto Island site.

Johnny Lombardi, president of CHIN and the originator of the annual picnic, welcomed Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and his wife, David Lewis, leader of the NDP Party and his wife, and Robert Stanfield, leader of the Conservative Party. The latter had the honour of meeting and bussing this year's Miss Bikini, eighteen year old Marion Rose Stafford. Lombardi presented the pretty Miss with the sash of honour and a bouquet of roses.

The picnickers, representing almost every country in the world, ate their way through 5,000 salads, 45,000 yogurts, 27,000 hot-dogs and several hundred gallons of ice-cream and Faygo beverages. They were entertained by folk dancers, pop and rock singers, rock, brass and steel bands as well as wrestling and soccer contests. Prizes including trips to the Caribbean and Florida were given for winners of the spaghetti eating contests as well as to those who could eat the most pizza, knackwurst, pealeu, sardines, bananas, and the consuming of most Faygo beverages.

Lombardi could have set a record for the two day event. He has been advised by the Guinness Book of Records that they don't know of any other picnic in the world that draws an attendance running into six figures.

CFRB — A 50,000 WATT SOAPBOX FOR THE YOUNG

CFRB/Toronto has introduced a new feature, "All About Young People" reported by Valerie Pringle. The three minute feature is heard Monday through Friday between 4 and 5PM on "The Bill Deegan Show" and four times each weekend.

CFRB program director, John Spragge, describes the new feature as one to "sell young people to old people using a 50,000 watt soapbox". Spragge hastens to add that "the programme is not geared toward attracting a young audience to CFRB, but intends to inform and entertain CFRB's present adult audience with items of interest about people age 13 and over".

Valerie Pringle, a native Torontonian, was an honour student at Bishop Strachan and entered Ryerson's Radio and Television Arts course in 1971. Because of her outstanding qualities as a broadcast journalist she became part of CFRB's Good News Team in the summer of 1973. During her final school year at Ryerson she worked on special assignments for CFRB News, and also worked in the media department at Foster Advertising.

Just recently married to Toronto stockbroker Andrew Pringle, Mrs. Pringle began her "All About Young People", Saturday June 22nd. The series has been purchased by Coca Cola Limited and their bottlers in the CFRB coverage area.

SIMON GINSBERG RESIGNS CKLG-FM

CKLG-FM program director Simon Ginsberg has resigned his position with the Vancouver progressive effective September 1st.

Ginsberg has expressed a desire to devote more time to his marketing enterprises through Project Holdings and to expand his involvement in the field of programming consultation. The station has not as yet named a successor.

CKWX TO PROMOTE COUNTRY PACKAGE

Vancouver's new country outlet, CKWX, is embarking on the promotion of a major country entertainment package to tour through Victoria, Vancouver and Calgary. Artists already signed include Bob Luman, Freddy Weller, Johnny Duncan and Ginella Hutton (of Hee Haw). A number of Canadian country artists will be added, although names are not yet available.

The show will occur August 14th in Victoria and the 15th in Vancouver at the Orpheum Theatre. The Calgary date has not yet been finalized.

CKWX will begin promoting the concerts in mid-July with a boost from Columbia Records, who will provide album product by the artists for give-aways. Ticket prices will be scaled from four to six dollars. A portion of the proceeds from the Orpheum date will go to the Save the Orpheum fund.

CFRB SCORES FIRST WITH ROYAL BANK

The Royal Bank of Canada has purchased the CFRB traffic reports, heard Monday through Friday during the morning and evening rush hours and on Sunday evenings during the summer months. These reports are given by traffic reporter Henry Shannon from the station's Twin Comanche. Effective June 24, the one year contract is believed to be the largest single station radio buy ever made in Canada by a single company. Kathleen Flaherty, of the Royal Bank, went aloft with Shannon the morning of the 24th to initiate the CFRB/Royal Bank arrangement.

of the Society of Graphic Designers of Canada. Featured on the cover is a Kriehoff print of old-fashioned maple sugar making. The cover also displays historical notes and a "Folk Map of Canada" showing the thirty-one locations where the folk and country songs on the album originated. A special feature of the album is its recognition of Canadian fiddle music and country songs and their importance to our culture.

Besides Eleanor Townsend and her Country Combo, the album features guest appearances by Harry Hibbs and Stompin' Tom Connors.

Soloists are Nickolaus Kaethler, Judy Greenhil, Robert Missen, Michael Woodside and Dorothy Hogan - from the University of Guelph. They were given instrumental backing by James Bard, recorder and percussion; Barry Steffler, banjo; Patrick Luciani, bass; Tom McLelland, drums; Bishop Macdonell and Ian MacCrimmon on Scottish pipes.

The Dorothy Hogan "Maple Sugar" album represents many months of preparation. While teaching school at Guelph's Bishop Macdonell High School, Mrs. Hogan discovered, that among the more than one hundred students, not one could name a Canadian folk song but experienced no difficulty in coming up with titles of American folk songs. She was determined to produce an album of Canadian folk and country tunes, concentrating on the contemporary sound. She worked for more than ten months with Guelph's Madrigal Singers (University of Guelph), changing the name of the thirty-five voice choir to the Guelph Folk Choir for the album credits.

Consumer demand for the album has been slow but encouraging. The album does have the stigma of being an educational piece - receiving accolades from Canadian educators from coast to coast in Canada, which could relegate a "superb bit of Canadiana" to the dreary library shelf. Noted one observer: "There's a great deal to be heard from Canada's folk and country past and Dorothy Hogan's production of 'Maple Sugar' captures much of it".

and other westerns, Chill! Wills was there too, taking in all the activities. Pride, who was in town recording, also made an unexpected appearance at the RCA booth at Fan-Fair and when they announced his name as being there, most of the other booths emptied as over a thousand people pressed towards the RCA tables.

In performing at these shows and signing autographs at booths, the artist, in most cases, is not the same way inclined, as the one who hits the road and does one or two shows in hometowns across North America. At Fan-Fair people try to keep him busy from eight in the morning till past midnight for several days straight. This way he is not as flashy onstage nor as cheerful about undertaking such duties here as he might be on the road where a short time ends both tasks. Many male entertainers left the auditorium directly after their performances because they saw certain smiling female faces and memories in the crowd, and they didn't want their Nashville ladies to know about their road geography lessons. You could pick those types out readily because they departed the stage area giving close inspection to their shoes as they walked to the door.

Is it all worth it? I asked people from Rhode Island to California, even Bob Powell from England was there, the answer every time was affirmative. The hotels, airlines, bus lines, gas stations, restaurants, shops and camera stores that service Nashville think so, and so do I
