RCA's Ford inks deal with Magnet

Toronto: John Ford, Vice-President and General Manager of RCA Records Canada, together with Michael Levy, Chairman of the U.K. label Magnet Records, announced the signing of a long-term agreement in which RCA will be Magnet's exclusive licensee for Canada.

The pair reports that all product will be released in Canada on Magnet, the first of which will be the Chris Rea single, I Can Hear Your Heartbeat from the forthcoming album, Water Sign.

"I'm very pleased in making this announcement," said Ford commenting on the arrangement. "In some ways, it's like renewing acquaintances with old friends. RCA distributed Magnet in the past through the short time we handled United Artists. I'm most impressed with Michael and I look forward to a long and profitable association with his organization."

"I am really excited about this new deal for Canada," stated Levy. "We are now identifying Canada as a completely separate market in its own right and with the professionalism and commitment of John Ford, Jim Fotheringham and the entire team at RCA Canada, we are looking forward to some beneficial results in this market."

At the same time as the announcement of the RCA/Magnet deal, Jack Feeney, President of Sunbury/Dunbar Music, along with Levy reported the signing of a new long-term sub-publishing deal between Magnet Music Limited and Sunbury Dunbar for Canada.

"I am very pleased that Sunbury/Dunbar will now represent Magnet's publishing interests in Canada," said Feeney commenting on the acquisition. "Magnet's catalogue will provide a wealth of new material for Canadian producers and artists."

"Sunbury/Dunbar have been extending their publishing activities in Canada and have been aggressive in the market place," commented Levy. "I am very happy to be represented by them and to be part of their major expansion plans in publishing in the Canadian market."

Initial release through the deal is a single by Chris Rea, titled I Can Hear Your Heartbeat, taken from his forthcoming album, Water Sign.

Rea is no stranger to the charts, chalking up four successful albums in his five year career. His most popular single, Fool If You Think It's Over, cracked the world market for him.

New Schwartz LP released by WEA

Toronto: WEA Music Canada has shipped the newest album from Eddie Schwartz, titled Public Life. Strike has been taken as the first single.

Schwartz is best known for penning Pat Benatar's Hit Me With Your Best Shot, which also earned him a Juno and instant worldwide attention as a songwriter of merit.

Public Life was co-produced by Schwartz, David Tyson and Tony Bongiovi at the latter's Power Station studio in New York. Bongiovi worked as a producer for Motown in their early years but more recently has worked with Talking Heads and The Ramones.

Much of the material on the album was co-written by Schwartz and Tyson. The latter also contributes some keyboards, bass and background vocals. Others giving an assist on the project were guitarists Rick Derringer and Peter Dinklage.

"There was no pre-production or rehearsal for the album," said Schwartz. "I think there are some great advantages doing it that way - a spontaneity and energy that you don't get when you're too rehearsed. For the same reason, we used Tony (Bongiovi) as co-producer. He makes records the same way."

"I wanted a leaner, more aggressive album," continues Schwartz. "With just two of us as the central band, we were able to steer away from over-arrangement and over-production."

Access single release for Restless Heart

Toronto: Scoot Irwin, Promotion Director of Access Promotions, reports the company's first release on their Access label will be She's A Romantic, a single from Restless Heart, a Belleville rock quintet, that previously released on Capitol.

Formerly known as Photograph, the group has undergone personnel changes and is currently playing dates in Eastern Ontario.

The single was produced by Dan Lanois and Stacy Heydon at Grant Avenue Studios in Hamilton. An album is expected by early spring, also to be produced by Lanois and Heydon. A video of the single is also available.

Attic flexes muscles in recovery battle

Toronto: Lindsay Gillespie, Director of Sales & Marketing for Attic Records, reports the company is strong again and experiencing success with several of their recent releases.

"We're getting positive response right across the country," he said. "We're hotter than we've been in a while, not that we've ever been cold."

The label is hoping to continue on their streak with the release of their first album for local female hard rocker Lee Aaron titled appropriately, Metal Queen. Shake It Up has been released as the first single.

Also just being shipped is the new single from the local a cappella group the Nylons titled Stepping Stone, written specifically for the vocal group by Lamont Dozier of the legendary Motown songwriting trio, Holland/Dozier/Holland. The group's LP, Seamless, produced by Peter Mann, is expected for release March 23.

Also ready for release are albums from the re-formed Steppenwolf and Mercyful Fate, the latter of which Gillespie reports has already been a top-selling import. In April, Attic will be releasing an album from world renowned singer, Julie Andrews.

"We're presently negotiating with three other acts," said Gillespie. "But we're also going to have an album from Adrian Zmed who plays on the T.J. Hooker series. It's a self-titled LP produced by Rick Derringer."

"We've been particularly hot with our dance records. With the addition of Walter Zwool as our A&R Co-ordinator, it means working more with artists in the studio than in the past and developing the act. It was Walter Zwool who produced Perfect Affair."

Gillespie says the label has been having success with the self-titled albums from Killer Dwarfs, Rock Angels and Perfect Affair, as well as with the Katrina And The Waves single, Walking On Sunshine.

"Killer Dwarfs was one of our surprises. Q107 was a major supporter. We think it was the video of Heavy Mental Breakdown that did it because we didn't have the radio exposure."

Gillespie explained that the Rock Angels, formerly the Bopcats, changed their image and sound as well as their name.

"The stations knew it was the Bopcats, but at retail it's like a new group. Their sound is more contemporary rock 'n' roll."

Gillespie noted that the company's main concentration is its position as one of the strongest Canadian independents and developing their artists to the fullest potential.

"A year ago we were perceived as a heavy metal label, now we're more mainstream rock. We spent the fall re-grouping and trimming the roster, and it's paid off for us. We needed a fresher approach so we just sat down and examined the situation, then came up with a game plan."

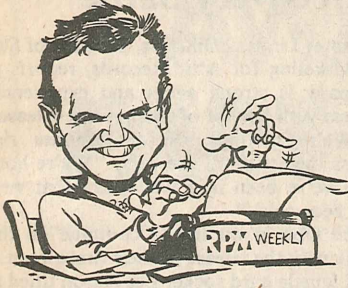

"We're concentrating on product that's going to be alive two, three, four and five years down the road. We're looking at artists with a future and what's good for the marketplace."

Lee Aaron, Killer Dwarfs, and Perfect Affair are all currently on tour.

WALT SAYS

Noisy noisy peanut gallery!!!

What really put a damper on the Grammy Awards was all that "too-spontaneous" applause, screaming and fan noise that came from all those civilians PLANTED in the balcony. (EC: Sounded like "canned consumers!") I'm sure the Academy Awards people were watching and someday they'll fill their balcony with screaming fans to add some class to their award show. The Grammys became another rock show and, do we need another one???

The camera doesn't lie!!

The unprofessional clods who have brought a bad name to the record industry, will now have to stand aside or learn to act and dance, and maybe learn to sing. With the popularity of videos, the consumer will be watching very closely. There's no more hiding behind the drum sets or monitors. What the camera sees, the consumer sees. Fortunately there are some pretty good video people in the business and I can just

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

Someone to spread the word

If that West Coast manager, promoter, producer and sometime aspiring background singer and offstage performer (EC: Is it human???) wants to get in touch with me, I'll give him a rumour about a certain singer who will either accept or refuse to appear on a certain awards show. I guarantee it will get him into trouble from coast to coast, and she'll come out smelling like a rose (EC: I bet you're talking about Bruce and Anne!!).

Living too high on the . . . ?

Rumours persist that what was considered a very healthy company, just might be in trouble. When the times are good, the bottom line is never taken seriously. Hiring an efficiency expert before the bottom falls out could keep losses to a minimum. (EC: You mean someone is going to bite the dust??)

Stealing the show!!

Talk about a classy outfit. A certain Canadian star stole the show at the Grammys when she appeared on stage in an outfit that was so tasteful and classy, she made a lot of the other females look tacky. Whoever designed the outfit took advantage of the lady's best features and made her look like a glamorous movie queen. Now the rumour is circulating that said lady secretly goes to Paris to buy the best and the latest, which is disturbing a number of North American fashion designers. (EC: Eat your heart out Grace Jones!!)

Big ones are on the way!!!

Personal favourites this week in the singles field are Dan Fogelberg's The Language of Love, Give It Up by K.C. and a Cancon outing, Goodbye To Love by Robert Armes. Album preference goes to Shannon's Let The Music Play, Nena's 99 Luftballons and a very clever Public Life by Eddie Schwartz, which is Cancon.

'70s hit All Right Now revived by SanTERS trio

Toronto: Determination and patience over the years has finally paid off for SanTERS, a Toronto hard rock trio as they appear to have scored their first hit with a cover of the early '70s Free classic, All Right Now.

The single was taken from their latest Ready album, Guitar Alley, produced by Triumph's Rik Emmett.

The single has picked up instant adds resulting in moves up the RPM 50. Although the trio did receive positive reaction to a previous single, Mistreatin' Heart from their four-song EP, Mayday, Ready confirms that the new single is already their strongest release.

A major tour is expected shortly to follow a just completed tour of Quebec. They will be playing Sarnia (March 14), Norval (15), Niagara Falls (23) and Kitchener (24). A U.S. tour, is also in the works to coincide with an album release.

of A&R of MCA Records (Canada). We were just going to press when the telex came through, which is the reason for this short piece. John is well-known in the music business and has had a great deal of experience in the management/booking business which gives him a bit of an edge when it comes to A&R work.

EC: is back again!!! and again!!!

EC: is Elvira Capreese who, twenty years ago started the Canadian music industry and wrote for RPM. Her comments, sprinkled throughout my column, come from the nunnery where, now in semi-retirement, she waits for her weekly copy of RPM and Variety which she keeps hidden under her dirty habit. Glad to have you back . . . Ellie!!

ON STAGE

by Kevin C. Wynne

TEENAGE HEAD

El Mocambo - Toronto - Feb. 25/84

Just back in Toronto after a very successful tour of Western Canada, the Head showed why they are probably the definitive Canadian rock and roll band Saturday evening, cranking out two compelling sets of classic rock.

All the requisite elements are present: vocalist Frankie Venom swaggers about banging a tambourine, while Steve Marshall thumps his bass with happy abandon. Meanwhile, drummer Nick Stipanitz and guitarists Gordie Lewis and Dave Rave motor through a solid mix of new material and familiar hits. Teenage Head would appear to succeed by the process of not really trying. This traditionally has been the secret of the truly great bands: climb on to the stage, make certain everyone's accounted for, tune quickly, then play. With a good push on their forthcoming live record, the Head would appear destined to make their mark once and for all.

BLUE PETER

El Mocambo - Toronto - Feb. 17/84

Arguably one of the strongest performance bands currently on the circuit, Paul Humphreys and Blue Peter have honed their style into a very danceable pop/funk hybrid. Occasionally reminiscent of similar British bands they nonetheless offer a solid stage presentation, and well-written and eloquently delivered songs. Propelled by drummer Owen Tennyson, Friday night's show was a near-perfect rendering of material from their Falling release as well as some new material. A new record (with Steve Nye once again at the board) is in the works, and could very well be the ticket to put this band over the top.

LISA PRICE/EYE EYE

El Mocambo - Toronto - Feb 14/84

Only now able to perform in support of the Priceless release, Lisa has done her best to make up for lost time, touring relentlessly with a band that includes ex-Max Webster drummer Gary McCracken. With a serious illness behind her, she seems intent on reconnecting with the audience she originally reached. Certainly a solid show, showcasing a unique voice and a very tight band.

Support was provided by Eye Eye, a relatively new outfit obviously enamored of the synthesized neo-pop rampant these days. This is no flaw however, with the band delivering a set of evocative tunes laced with strong guitar work and tasteful keyboard lines.

Armes launches label with single release

Toronto: Robert Armes, well-known commercial/jingle voice, moves into the label business with the launch of Cruise Records. Initial single is his own, Goodbye To Love, an Armes original.

Armes has won several honours in the commercial field for varied projects from praising the value of milk (Thank You Very Much, Milk), to soft drinks (Look Who's Drinking Pepsi Now), and children's sweets, Dad's Cookies (Life Would Be Fine). He has also most recently been involved in 13 beer commercials and, although most of his involvement is writing and voice over, he did make a rare appearance in the Budweiser TV commercial (This Bud's For You). He's the short guy in the elevator.

Armes has had a rare opportunity to witness first-hand the instrumental and vocal talent available in the Toronto area, one of the reasons for his label launch. "There is so much talent in this town that goes untapped by the record industry," says Armes, "I want Cruise Records to allow that talent to be heard."

Armes' background includes writing for theatre and performing as a solo artist on the club circuit. Six years ago he decided to concentrate on studio work and he moved quickly to become one of the top writers in his field.

The Armes single was produced at Sounds Interchange and features a line-up of the best musicians in the business including saxman Moe Koffman, bassist Tom Szczesniak, drummer Barry Keane, guitarist Pepe Francis, percussionist Dick Smith, Tim Tickner on Linn drums and Mark Hukezalie on Fender Rhodes. Background vocals were supplied by Shawn Jackson, Colina Phillips and John Rutledge.

Platinum Blonde gold as new single released

Toronto: CBS Canada has quickly followed up the first Platinum Blonde single, It Doesn't Really Matter, with a 7" and 12" of the title track from their Standing In The Dark album. The latter is now gold in Canada. A video of the track is also available.

The band has been touring to support the album which follows their self-titled and highly successful mini-album. Prior to the release of the mini-album, CBS released a three-track 12" radio-only sampler, which turned out to be the perfect promotional vehicle for follow-up releases. The full album includes additional tracks, Cast A Shadow, Sad Rain and Leaders In Danger.

Upcoming dates for the Toronto trio include Vancouver (March 29), Kamloops (30), Calgary (31), Edmonton (April 1), and Winnipeg (3). All dates are openers for Billy Idol.

Major changes for CJBK on-air line-up

London: Rick Richardson, President Middlesex Broadcasters, has announced what he describes as "significant changes" to CJBK's on-air line-up.

"It's a new year," he said. "We're freshening our outlook and our on-air sound. I'm sure our listeners will find it refreshing."

London native and seasoned broadcaster Cliff Jackson has become the station's new morning personality. Jackson, who has been with Middlesex since 1974, has held various positions with the company including afternoon on-air host, Promotion Manager, and most recently was Program Manager of CJBK.

Don "Beau" Dean has been named Music Director and also moves from morning drive to afternoon drive.

Taking over the mid-day position from Michael Dee is Promotion Manager Steve Garrison, a London native who has been with the station for seven years.

Dee, formerly a country recording artist, has moved over to country music sister station CJBX-FM (BX-93) for morning drive.

"The same professional team is here," said Richardson, who compared the moves at his station to a football team. "We're just changing positions. If a football team ran the same play every time, it wouldn't be very entertaining.

"If anything, we're going to be utilizing more of the talents of the very professional people we have. Nothing else changes."

Capitol gold to The Motels for their Little Robbers album. Capitol Canada President Dave Evans made the presentation.

Jack Green returned to Canada and picked up RCA gold for his Humanesque album. RCA's Ken Bain, Mike Gaitt, Jim Fotheringham and John Ford made presentation.

Platinum Blonde at Toronto's Massey Hall with well wishers from CBS Canada and New York. The group's album, Standing In The Dark is moving up the RPM 100.

WEA platinum to AC/DC for Flick Of The Switch. WEA group was on hand during the group's Toronto date to make presentation.

Whoops . . . MCA's Lesley Soldat fumbles Billy Idol's platinum album (Rebel Yell). MCA and Chrystalis were on hand to make the presentation during Toronto date.

Simple Minds & China Crisis score for Virgin

The British invasion continues as wave after wave of new artists and groups take a large bite out of the North American market, particularly in Canada where many records have been broken, later to be released in the U.S.

Virgin recording groups Simple Minds and China Crisis are two of the latest to gain a foothold in Canada.

Both bands are currently the focus of a

COVER STORY

By Peter Martin

major campaign by Virgin's Canadian operation. From Simple Minds comes their new album, Sparkle In The Rain, from which Speed Your Love has been taken as a 7" and 12" single.

With the release of Working With Fire And Steel - Possible Pop Songs, Volume Two, begins the introduction of China Crisis into the Canadian market with their first release.

The title track has been issued as the first single and released as a 7" and 12" as well.

Virgin is supporting both bands with print ads, point-of-purchase material and radio buys. The label has also released a radio-only album from Simple Minds, titled Sparkle Through The Years. The package contains highlights from their previous albums, as well as cuts from the latest.

Ironically, both bands are managed by Schoolhouse Management, based in Edinburgh. There's the possibility the two groups will link up for a tour which will include select Canadian dates.

The Glasgow-based Simple Minds first hit in Canada with Love Song, a single taken from Sons And Fascination, an album released in 1981. However, it wasn't until the 1982 release of their New Gold Dream when they caught the ears of the critics.

Produced by Peter Walsh, the album contained such monumental tracks as Promised You A Miracle, Someone Somewhere In Summertime, and Glittering Prize, and it was CFNY-FM's top album of 1982.

The band's latest album was produced by Steve Lillywhite who has worked with U2 and Big Country. In addition to Speed Your Love To Me, other tracks on Sparkle include Waterfront (the previous single), Up On The Catwalk, East At Easter, White Hot Day and Shake Off The Ghosts.

Simple Minds began as a trio in 1977 and now comprises guitarist Charles Burchill, bassist/vocalist Derek Forbes, lead vocalist Jim Kerr, drummer/vocalist Mel Gaynor, and keyboardist Michael MacNeil.

Both Burchill and Kerr had lived opposite each other on the same street in Glasgow's Toryglen district. With the exception of drummer Mel Gaynor, all the other four members shared the same working class background. Gaynor hails from London. He was the session drummer on the New Gold Dream album and is the band's newest member.

Simple Minds have also contributed vocals to Soldier, the recent Iggy Pop album, produced by David Bowie.

Thanks to CFNY-FM China Crisis was introduced to the Toronto and area market long before the release of their product in Canada. The new music station aired imports of African And White and No More Blue Horizons.

China Crisis is led by the songwriting duo of guitarist/vocalist Eddie Lunden and keyboardist/vocalist Garry Daly.

Longtime friends, Lunden, who worked as an apprentice mechanic and Daly, who took on various jobs, spent their spare time cutting tapes with a drum machine, which they used to build a song's foundation.

The duo released their first single, African And White, early in 1982 on the Inevitable label, a Liverpool independent. The relative success of the single, attracted the attention of Virgin, which signed the pair.

In July of '82 Virgin re-released African And White, followed by No More Blue Horizons. More members were added to the group and tour dates set up. By November of that year Virgin released their first album, carrying the long title of Difficult Shapes And Passive Rhythms, Some People Think It's Fun To Entertain.

China Crisis entered 1983 with their first substantial hit, Christian, and set out on their first headlining tour. Tragedy And Mystery, produced by Mike Howlett and included on their album, was their next hit.

Despite the relative success of their singles back home and support in Toronto from CFNY-FM, China Crisis product was not available in Canada, outside the import houses. However, the potential of the group was evident and Bob Muir, President of Virgin Records Canada, arranged for the early 1984 release of the group's single, Working With Fire And Steel.

Lunden and Daly have now been joined by bassist Gary Johnson and sax and oboe player Steve Levy.

Virgin reports "very positive" initial reaction to both the new Simple Minds album and the debut from China Crisis. The former has made substantial gains up the RPM 100.

Jackson Grammy sweep Thriller goes 2 million

Toronto: While Michael Jackson commanded the Grammy Awards show, winning a record-breaking eight awards, his Thriller album, is expected to go over the 2 million sales mark in Canada by the weekend (March 3). This will mark the first time in Canada an album has reached double diamond status. The album has already been reported as the single most biggest-selling album in the history of recorded music, selling more than 25 million copies worldwide.

Jackson won Grammys as Rock, Pop and R&B Vocalist of the Year, Thriller for Album Billie Jean as Best New R&B Song and Beat It as Record of the Year. He also shared Producer honours with Quincy Jones.

Canadians also fared well at the awards with Anne Murray receiving her fourth Grammy, being voted Best Female Country Music Vocalist for her single, A Little Good News. Rob McConnell & The Boss Brass won a Grammy in the Best Big Band Jazz Instrumental category for their album, All In Good Time. Ironically, this album was never released in the U.S.

Lastly, the late Canadian piano genius, Glenn Gould, was named winner of the Instrumental Soloist Award in Classical Music for Beethoven Sonatas 12 and 13. Gould died in 1982.

COUNTRY walk grealis

Bluegrass group showcased on CBC

The Ladies Choice Bluegrass Band will be showcased on CBC Radio's Ocean Limited March 3. The showcasing will be the band's concert at Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. The band was on the brink of folding early in 1982 and had planned a farewell tour. Fortunately they were signed to appear on Up Home Tonight, a Maritimes CBC-TV series. The show is still running and considered very popular through the Atlantic Provinces. Ocean Limited is hosted by Bill Stevenson and produced by Glenn Meisner.

Warren duets with Madonna Tassi

Jamie Warren, who established himself in the Ontario market with his initial single for the Spin label, World Of A Child, will be shortly

Manitoba honours country artists

Winnipeg: The Manitoba Association of Country Arts (MACA) will present their 8th Annual Awards Dinner and show on March 11. The event will be held at the Westin Hotel. MCA recording artist George Strait will emcee the show and awards ceremonies.

MACA consists of only seven members, who make up the Board of Directors. They are Maurice Proulx, Terry Morris, Maurice Bassett, Paul Graham (CKRC), Rob Mitchell (CKRC), Scott Howarth, and Al Jarvis (CFRY). It's the responsibility of MACA to arrange for the awards night which honours the best in Manitoba country music.

The entertainers however, have their own association, Manitoba Association of Country Entertainment (MACE) and they vote on the winner of each of the ten categories. There are three nominees in each category.

releasing his follow-up, We Care About Us, a duet with Madonna Tassi. The single was produced by Richard Hutt and Douglas Biggs. Warren and several other country acts including Wendy Davis, Terry Odette, Becky Barrie, Dennis McLachlan, and Madonna Tassi, were showcased at Kitchener's Stampede Corral in November of last year. Madonna and Jamie shared hosting duties while the Spin Records studio band, Men Without Horses, provided instrumental backup.

Peever sets MacIntyre dates

Harold MacIntyre & Area Code 705 are currently meeting a heavy club schedule that will take them east from Ontario through the Maritimes. MacIntyre is currently enjoying action on the RPM Country 50 with his Audiograph single, Roads and Other Things. The group kicked off their tour at the Dallas Club in Hamilton followed by the Stampede Corral in Kitchener, the Honey Pot Ranch in Maple, Ontario, the North Bay Blue Spruce (Feb. 27 - March 3), opening for George Jones at the North Bay Arena (14), the Kingston Arena with George Jones (15), the Lindsay Armouries (31). April sees them in

George Hamilton IV off with new single

Matthews, North Carolina: George Hamilton IV, off the recording scene for some time, makes an impressive return with a single release on Pete Drake's First Generation Label.

The single, It Must Be Love, was written by Bob Ruzicka and produced by Drake, and features the background voices of the Jordanaires. Although not marked, the single does qualify as two parts Cancon (ML).

Hamilton is no stranger to the writing talent of Ruzicka, having had much success with this Alberta writer's Dirty Old Man.

First Generation is distributed through Drake's Nashville offices. There is no distribution arrangement for Canada.

Port Hawkesbury, Nova Scotia (6-7), the Urban Corral in Moncton (9-15), Johnny Gold's Country Room in Halifax (16-21), back to Ontario for a date at the Stampede Corral in Kitchener (May 3-5), and back east to the Port Hawkesbury Arena in Nova Scotia (July 7) and at St. Peters, Nova Scotia (21).

Tim and Anita help charity

Here's some catch-up news. Tim Taylor and Anita Perras helped raise almost $70,000.00 in pledges in the 36th Annual Lion's Club Christmas Telethon. The money was used to give a Christmas to needy children in the Sudbury and surrounding areas. John Allan Cameron was one of the co-hosts for the event. Anita, who releases on the Tailspin label, has had three country music shows on the Mid-Canada network and has made plans for a possible fourth, 13 weeks series for 1984. She appeared on the Tommy Hunter Show on Feb. 10.

Armand Bellemare (l) now with Access, visits Peter Thompson at CJBQ Belleville.

Bellemare dropped by Kingston's country giant CFMP-FM where he met Music Director Wayne Cavanagh.

Bellemare meets an old friend, Steve Cutway at Kingston's CFRC. Both were students at Brantford's School for the Blind.

TRIBAL DRUM

Changes at CKEY

Michael Magialardo, Vice President and General Manager of Toronto's CKEY, has announced new additions to the station's force. Rick Hallson, who most recently programmed CJCL in Toronto, has been named the station's new Program Director. Hallson, who has a long and successful track record, also programmed CHUM Group's Winnipeg stations, Q94-FM and CFRW. Gene Stevens is CKEY's new Promotion Director. He has promotional as well as programming experience at CKMW Brampton and St. Catharines stations CKTB and CJQR-FM. Dan Williamson, formerly of CFTR, takes over the afternoon slot from 2 to 7 pm, and lastly Chris Mayberry has been named afternoon sports announcer. Mayberry most recently worked in the sports departments at CKOY and CKBY-FM in Ottawa as well as being Sports Director at CKSL London.

Quality commits to heavy Cancon policy

Toronto: Quality Records is banking on Cancon talent in a major commitment and launch in what the company describes as "an aggressive acquisition policy with respect to Canadian talent."

Celebrating its 35th anniversary this year, Quality recently signed Albert Hall, Nash the Slash, the two Calgary-based bands Qwest and Adventures In Paradise, Terry Carisse, and Terry Sumsion. Carisse and Sumsion came through Brian Ferriman's Venture label.

In addition, Vancouver native Susan Jacks is also being represented by Quality. The former member of the successful Canadian '70s group The Poppy Family recently moved to Nashville to work with Irwin Steinberg's Complete label.

"Quality Records has a solid foundation and 1984 will see us take an aggressive approach with regard to the development of a strong Canadian roster," stated Quality President George R. Struth. "The calibre of Canadian recordings has increased tremendously and with that increase, there is a growing number of recordings that require good distribution and promotion."

Quality has already shipped the singles Song For Little Davey from Albert Hall, Nothin' To Lose by Qwest, and You'll Never Know by Adventures In Paradise. Being readied are the 12" singles, 1984 by Nash the Slash and a re-mix of You'll Never Know.

Forthcoming albums include Amazing Stranger by Albert Hall, Dream Zone from Qwest, and American Band-Ages by Nash the Slash. Product from Terry Carisse, Susan Jacks and Terry Sumsion is expected by spring.

Larry Macrae, National Promotion and Product Manager for Quality Records, described the new commitment as a return to a strong independent philosophy.

"We have a young and aggressive marketing team ready to take on this challenge of promoting regional talent and making them national success stories," he said. "The time is right, the team is right."

CHQB calling listeners

Brian Langston, Manager, CHQB Powell River, B.C. reports a "very hot" promotion with their We Call You campaign. The station calls Powell River area listeners four times per day, asking for the phrase that pays "I shop the Plaza," and they stand to pick up gift certificates valued at anywhere from $10.00 to $100.00. A $1.00 is added each time there is no winner. The gift certificates are only redeemable from the station's participating merchants in the Powell River Plaza.

KX96 back up to full power

Brandon's KX96 is now back up to a full 100,000 watts after broadcasting from a temporary tower since an ice storm knocked down their tower last spring. The new tower stands over 2000 feet with the station's antenna about 1000 feet off the ground. "We're getting calls from all over Western Manitoba," says Program Director Michael J. "It's very encouraging. With the new coverage area KX96 is scheduling several promotions "We're excited about the prospects of our new coverage area and hope to become familiar with as much of it as possible," concludes Michael J. The patcov-ers most of Western Manitoba, parts of Saskatchewan and also goes down into North Dakota.

Miss Teen Winnipeg is chosen

CFRW and Eaton Place, corporate sponsors of Miss Teen Winnipeg, have announced the winners in their 1984 contest. Rhonda Smith of Transcona will carry the title of Miss Teen Winnipeg 1984, while Susan Myskiw was 1st runner up and Kendra Dee Williams, 2nd runner up. Kim Paquin was voted Miss Friendship. There were ten semi-finalists for the event which was emceed by CFRW's Barry Wall at the Westin Hotel (Feb. 12). The judges were Lyle Bauer (Winnipeg Blue Bombers), Karen Hogue (Pierrot Cosmetique), Brian Stone (CFRW News Director), Jack Davidson (Coca Cola), and Bea Broda (CKND-TV).

Rhonda will be competing in the National Finals, to be held in Toronto (Mar. 5) and which will be presented on the CTV Network.

The Osmonds in Lethbridge

1090 CHEC presented Donny and Marie in Concert at the Lethbridge Sportsplex, which helped ease the February blahs. On-air personality Kelly Latremouille was on hand to welcome the pair.

Tacky Tie contest at CKGL Kitchener (l to r) salesman/judge Ron Gaal, morning man Don Sanderson, salesman/judge Philip Rajotte (wearing original Tacky Tie) and salesman/judge Terry Middleditch. The contest ran for two weeks with phenomenal response.

NEW ALBUMS

JOHNNY MATHIS - Pop
A Special Part Of Me
Columbia - FC-38718-H

Produced by Denny Diante, the Mathis charm continues with what has been tagged his "finest album in years". His duet with Deniece Williams, Love Won't Let Me Wait, has been taken as a single. The album also contains a duet with Angela Bofill which is also notable. Mathis leaves the comfy confines of his ballad world for an uptempo song, You're A Special Part Of Me, which was co-written by Michael Jackson, Paul Anka and Kathy Wakefield. The key track however, is the Barry Mann/Cynthia Weill penning of Right Here And Now which features excellent horn work.

DALEK I LOVE YOU - Rock

Dalek I Love You - Korova - 24 02581-P
 Yes, that's the title of this Liverpool group, which will take a little work to break on this side of the pond. Their sound isn't that bad, perhaps a little weird, but it certainly fits into what has been invading North America lately. Alan Gill is the spark behind the group which he formed in 1979 but took a short leave to join Teardrop Explodes. He re-launched the group in '82 with keyboardist Gordon Hon and bassist Kenny Peers. Includes their current U.K. single release, Horrorscope. Also notable are Africa Express and 12 Hours Of Blues.

JOHNNY LEE - Country

'Til The Bars Burn Down
Warner Bros - 92 50561-P
 Johnny Lee hasn't been one of the most popular of country acts on this side of the border but this Jimmy Bowen production could open the door much wider. The Yellow Rose, the theme from the television show, a duet with Lane Brody, is already looking like a hit as it moves up the RPM Country 50. Lee is being billed as "new country" and key to that is the J.D.Souther/Glenn Frey (former Eagle), co-penning of the title track, which should be a single. Also key are Say When and Lee's own penning of Can't Nobody Love You.

VARIOUS ARTISTS - Country

The Greatest Country Hits from The Movies - Epic - FE-39001-H
 It might be surprising to many to learn that country hits were very important to the movie world and this package contains many. Included here are Willie Nelson's

Personnel changes for Shannock Marketing

Vancouver: Bill McCartney, President of Shannock Marketing Associates, has announced two major appointments within the company.

Doug Watt has been appointed Regional Sales Manager for British Columbia and Dave Wilcox moves to the position of Regional Sales Manager for Alberta.

Mr. Watt, who has gained a wide and varied experience in the aftermarket of the entertainment business, was Senior Sales rep for the firm prior to this appointment and prior to that had held positions with A&B Sound and RCA Records. He will now be overseeing all sales and marketing of Shannock's accessories and support products in the stereo, records, video and computers industries in B.C.

Mr. Wilcox is credited with being "instrumental in establishing Shannock's position in the Alberta marketplace in the audio and video industry." Prior to joining Shannock, Mr. Wilcox ran his own retail outlet in Calgary.

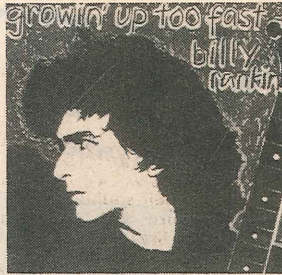

Founded by McCartney and Stan Loh, Shannock is a recognized success story in the audio and video market. The firm now carries a staff in excess of 25 and is regarded as a significant and growing power in the market. Lines carried include TDK, Philips audio tape, Recoton, video movies, BASF diskettes, Allsop, Disneyland Records and RCA and WEA compact discs. They also import accessories under the Protec tradename.

Canada was the first country to certify platinum, double and triple platinum on Kenny Rogers' Eyes That See In The Dark. RCA's Leah Alden (l) and Ray Ramsay present awards to Rogers during Vancouver date.

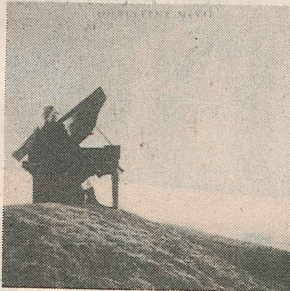

Robbins, David Allan Coe's I Love Robbing Banks and the Lacy J. Dalton/Bobby Bare duet of Beer Drinkin' Christian. Should be a front rack item in view of the crossover qualities of many of the tracks.

BILLY RANKIN - Rock
Growin' Up Too Fast - A&M - SP-4977-W

A member of Nazareth (he's been touring with them for the past three years), Rankin came to the attention of A&M, who signed him worldwide resulting in this John Ryan production from the summer of '83. Rankin is featured on guitars, keyboards, drums and percussion. His vocals are rock-edged and loaded with youthful but confident charm. Rankin wrote most of the material and key here is Baby Come Back and Rip It Up. The latter features additional guitar work by Zal Cleminson, an old bandmate from Rankin's days as a member of, Zal.

CHRISTINE McVie - Rock
Christine McVie - Warner Bros - 92 50591-P
Making excellent moves up the RPM 100, Fleetwood Mac's longtime keyboardist takes what is obviously a successful stab at being a solo act. Produced in Montreux, Switzerland by Russ Titelman, this package features some pretty big names in the business including Steve Winwood, who co-wrote, with McVie, Ask Anybody, Eric Clapton and Lindsey Buckingham. Got A Hold On Me, co-written by McVie and her guitarist Todd Sharp, has been taken as a single. Also key is Sharp's solo penning of I'm The One and his co-writing with McVie of Love Will Show Us How.

New MCG release by Yvonne Murray

Toronto: MCG has issued a new single from Toronto-based Yvonne Murray, titled Let's Not Waste Another Heartbeat.

Produced by Paul Zaza at his Toronto studios, the single was taken from Murray's self-titled album. The new single follows her release of Don't Send Me Roses, which enjoyed several weeks of action on RPM's Country 50 and Contemporary Adult chart.

The flip of the new single, Baby It Hurts, is a previously unreleased track that isn't included on the singer's album, and was penned by Doug Wass.

Murray and her band are scheduled to play Toronto's Pier 4 (Apr. 9-28) and Octobers (May 14 to June 2).

THE JIM CARROLL BAND - Rock
I Write Your Name - Atlantic - 78 01231-P
Produced by Earl McGrath, Jim Carroll, a poet who has used his verse to good use in the rock field, lets go with his third album and he is described as "honing his blend of literary intelligence and street-wise rock 'n' roll to an ever sharper point." These are all new Carroll compositions with the exception of Lou Reed's Sweet Jane, a key track. Also key are (No More Luxuries), I Write Your Name and Low Rider. Guitar work is by Lenny Kaye, former back-up for Patti Smith.
