Walt Grealis Day proclaimed by Ottawa

When RPM publisher Walt Grealis arrived in Ottawa (Mar. 21) he was under the impression he was going to attend the Jubilee celebration of The Esquires (see RPM Mar. 7 & 21/87), a concert at the Civic Centre flying the banner of Rock 'n' Roll 'n' Remember. Little did he realize he was going to be part of the celebration.

It was the intention of Jim Durrell, the Mayor of Ottawa, to proclaim Mar. 21, 1987 as Esquire Day, in view of the recognition this Capitol recording group had brought to Ottawa in the early '60s. The Esquires thanked the Mayor for recognizing their efforts, but asked that the honour of such a prestigious event go instead, to Walt Grealis.

In a letter, penned to the Mayor, The Esquires wrote: "As we were contemplating this honour, we began looking at our roots, and have come to the conclusion that The Esquires and many other Ottawa pop groups of the '60s would not have achieved success if it were not for the efforts of one man, Mr. Walt Grealis, who, in our opinion, pioneered the Canadian pop music industry out of the dark ages." They continued with, "We, The Esquires, believe that March 21, 1987 should be labelled Walt Grealis Day, in the City of Ottawa for his continuous efforts to support and promote Ottawa talent to the country and the world."

Harvey Glatt, Chairman of Ottawa's CHEZ-FM, himself a veteran and supporter of the city's popular music scene, presented Grealis with a framed letter from the Mayor's office bearing the seal of the City of Ottawa, which read: "I take great pride in acceding to the wishes of the Esquires. In so doing, we recognize the contribution of Walt Grealis to the development of Canadian popular music. I am proud to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Grealis on behalf of all musically minded Ottawans. On this day of Rock, Roll and Remember, we are pleased to call this day in Ottawa, Walt Grealis Day."

Rock 'n' Roll 'n' Remember was that and more, as a capacity house paid $10.00 each to capture the sounds, once again, of the '60s. This was vintage Cancon rock, performed, for the most part, by the original

Huckster Kulin guests on new Brighton Rock video

The video for Brighton Rock's Can't Wait For The Night features WEA president Stan Kulin, who appears in a cameo role as a T-shirt vendor. The news was leaked by Ralph Alphonso of Head Office Management.

Can't Wait For The Night, the band's second single from their debut album, Young Wild & Free, ships to U.S. AOR stations next week on the Atco label.

The band recently opened several dates for Joan Jett's tour. They have now returned to Canada where they'll do the same for Lee Aaron. "What we're finding," says Alphonso, "is that whatever we play . . . we sell records."

Following the open slots with Aaron, Brighton Rock head back into the U.S. for a two month swing that ends in California. They will then move north into British Columbia in late May to begin a Canadian tour.

Honeymoon Suite, Head Office's other prominent act, currently in the pre-production stages for their next album, have also released a new (Rob Quartly directed) video, for the title track to the new Lethal Weapon movie, adds Alphonso.

Top Gun goes 5-times platinum and Alan Fletcher, CBS Central Region Director, present metal honours to Sound Insight's Bruce Van Allen (l) and Robin Ram (centre).

Pepsi sponsorship for Bowie concert tour

Pepsi-Cola Canada has announced the exclusive sponsorship of the upcoming 30 concert North American tour by David Bowie. At least 6 major Canadian cities will be included.

Flying the banner of The Glass Spider Tour, this will be Bowie's first tour in 4 years, and coincides with the release of his Capitol album, Never Let Me Down.

As part of the deal, Bowie is to be cast in a new Pepsi commercial opposite Tina Turner. The latter is currently touring Europe under the Pepsi banner. The coupling will feature both singers performing Modern Love, one of Bowie's biggest hits.

"Our association with David Bowie enhances Pepsi-Cola's reputation for bringing the best in contemporary entertainment to Canada and the world," says Colin Moore, Director of Marketing for Pepsi-Cola Canada. "David's union with Tina Turner in our new advertisement will capture all the electricity between these two great performers," he concludes.

PolyGram seeks more rock success with Cult LP

The Cult's latest album, titled Electric, currently prefaced by the single Love Removal Machine, will enjoy a full scale marketing campaign from the PolyGram label worldwide.

A limited edition 12" single of Love Removal Machine contains 4 other songs not found on the album and included in the gatefold package is a 24x24 full colour poster, which comprises the initial thrust of the campaign.

The single is also available as a 12" DJ-only sampler, a 12" commercial disc and the 7" version.

Produced by Rick Rubin, although originally produced by Steve Brown, the album contains 11 tracks, including a cover of the Steppenwolf classic Born To Be Wild members of the parading rock heroes, The Esquires, The Townsman and Octavian. The profits from the concert went to ROTEL, an organization providing economical accommodation for outpatients and visitors to impatients of all Ottawa-Hull hospitals.

Rock 'n' Roll 'n' Remember was organized by Al Pascal, John Pozer, Nelson Davis, Dick Maloney, Dean Hagopian, and Max Keeping, with an assist from Mel Shaw. They were supplied with an immeasurable amount of energy and support by Esquires' drummer Ricky Patterson.

Axe bows national distribution for indies

Greg Hambleton, President of Axe Records, has announced the formation of Axe Distribution. Using his own catalogue as a launch for the new service, Hambleton has already opened accounts with many major rack wholesalers, which are being serviced by sales reps, Hector MacNeil and Blair Moody in Ontario. The western provinces are being handled by Alta Distributors of Calgary.

There is a new spirit in Canada" says Hambleton, "and I perceive a changed attitude to indie labels and fresh original product." He continues with, "It's a myth that only major record labels can sell records. Records are sold by the quality of product and consumer demand generated by exposure on television and radio. If you have a hit, it's easy to distribute product."

Hambleton has had much success with his catalogue over the years, a major factor in forming his distribution service. Among the best sellers in his catalogue are the self-titled Sattalites album, Professor Piano With The Canadian Aces (Modern Primitive), Greatest Hits of Gary And Dave, 20 Irish Favourites, Thundermug (Strikes), Walter Ostanek (German Beer Drinking Songs and Canada's Polka King), and The Band of The Third Military District (Marches Old & New).

The Sattalites follow-up, Live Via Sattalites, which was recorded live at Toronto's Bamboo in September of last year, is now shipping.

Axe was formed in 1971, "and is probably the longest established independent in Canada," says Hambleton. Those labels looking for national distribution, or artists who are label shopping should contact Hambleton at 416-924-5781.

and PolyGram certainly is hoping to capitalize on the success of rock breakthrough act Bon Jovi.

The Cult, once known as The Southern Death Cult, went platinum in Canada with their previous release, Love, which was produced by Brown. As explained by guitarist Billy Duffy though: "Ever since we'd done Love, we decided that the next album was going to be 10 or 11 tracks of rock, no ballads, just straight ahead rock music."

Evidently Brown's production effort was not aggressive enough, "too mushy," in fact, Hence, after hearing Rubin's work in Toronto during their last tour, the band decided to radically change the sound of their new album and re-record the entire piece again at New York's Electric Lady studios.

CASBY Awards' show firmed for June 19 & 20

The CASBY Music Awards 1987 will be held at the Toronto Convention Centre on June 19 and 20. A special one-hour radio broadcast featuring winners from this year's show will go to air on the 21st.

The Awards Ceremony will take place on the 19th, immediately prior to a gala dinner. Video highlights, including acceptance speeches, will be incorporated into the activities for the following evening. The CASBY people will mount a live musical show on the 20th at the Toronto Convention Centre Theatre. This will include Canadian and international talent, including past and present CASBY winners. The entire show will be recorded live-to-tape to be packaged as a two-hour television/radio simulcast Superspecial.

David Marsden, Executive Producer of the CASBY Awards, has also announced that this year "we will be introducing the new CASBY double ballot procedure, emphasizing two ballots, in which the Canadian Artists Selected By You (CASBY), will be truly a people's choice awards."

Major newspapers across Canada are featuring the first ballot on a weekly basis, which began mid-March and will run through mid-April. The ballot asks that readers provide one name in each category from the sug-

Cinderella's debut jumps over platinum mark

Currently making chart moves placing them quickly into the RPM 100 Top 20, Cinderella's debut album, Night Moves, has now surpassed the platinum sales level, reports PolyGram's Ken Ashdown.

The Philadelphia-based group, who last year were seen supporting David Lee Roth's tour, are now enjoying similar exposure on the Bon Jovi tour.

Nobody's Fool is still bulleting up charts nationwide, while the Somebody Save Us track has been released to AOR via an imported (U.S.) DJ-only 12" sampler, to "incredible response."

Price Waterhouse will tabulate the results from the first ballot, which will constitute the second ballot listing the top five nominees in each category. Again, newspapers will carry the ballot, asking readers to check off their favourite in each category. This ballot will appear on a weekly basis during the month of May. Again, the results will be tabulated by Price Waterhouse with the winners being announced at the awards ceremony on June 19.

The CASBY Music Awards 1987 nomination categories are as follows: Most Promising Artist, Best Non-Recording Artist, Best Male Vocalist, Best Female Vocalist, Best Album Art, Single of The Year, Best Independent Artist, Best Group, Video of The Year, Engineer/Producer of The Year, Most

WALT SAYS

Double celebration for CHEZ-FM

What better way for a radio station to celebrate a birthday than to become No. 1 in the market at the same time. Ottawa's CHEZ-FM celebrated their 10th anniversary on March 25, and they were also riding high over the recent BBM book, which put them in the No. 1 slot. Although the guys I met from the station were trying to be humble, it was difficult not to look like they were walking 10 feet tall. Congratulations, particularly to Harvey Glatt, Chuck Azzarello, and Greg Torrington

Of Ottawa and humbleness!!

I must say that after publishing RPM for the past 23 years, I was rather shaken and at a loss for words when I learned the Mayor of Ottawa had named March 21, 1987 as Walt Grealis Day. This was a well-kept secret and I knew nothing about it until they asked me on stage where Harvey Glatt made the presentation. My thanks to all those who were involved, particularly The Esquires, who are still rockin' and rollin'.

Are we suffering from over-hype??

The industry is selling more records today than ever in history. The promotion, the projections and the hype could be creating a negative factor. What's so wrong with selling

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

platinum, double, triple and even quintuple platinum? When the goals are set too high, and never reached, the frustration that goes on within the marketing, sales and promotion departments, borders on trauma, and what we hear is "the record stiffed," yet reached never-before-attainable numbers. I think a realistic approach would make for a much happier industry.

Who is that handsome devil??

The CFNO crew up at Marathon, Ontario (Paul, Dan, Randy and Chris) sent along a note that reads: "Perhaps we're wrong, but isn't that always the same photo we see of CHUM-FM's Wayne Webster? Does Wayne know this, or is it perhaps he only owns one T-shirt?" Take a look at page 8 this week, and "voila" the new Wayne Webster, sans the T-shirt.

Why viewers shun Junos??

How many specials begin at 7 pm? The CBC's Junos weren't promoted by the CBC as much as they should have been says a spokesman for the CBC. Well then, we really have a problem. Someone dropped the ball. This presents a BIG question mark!!! The show needs a foreign headliner? Show had no star performer!! Bryan Adams? David Foster? Anne Murray? The Junos have problems that won't be licked easily. The very people who have the greatest interest in the show are starting to view it with apathy because of the high costs and the . . . many intruders. (EC: Count on us to be helpful in being . . . the messengers!!) DON'T SHOOT!!

Where are they now??

It was good to see Sandy Gardiner again in Ottawa. It was even better to find out he is now with British Airways in New York, as Vice President Public Affairs North America. Not too many people in the music industry go on to better positions in the "real world". Sandy started out managing a number of groups in the Ottawa area and writing on music in the Ottawa Journal.

Now the real "beavers".

The year was 1964 and the group was The Beavers. Their hair was just a buzz down the middle of their heads. They were from Halifax and their manager was Mike Duffy, the same Mike Duffy who now says ". . . for the Journal" Rock and roll strikes again. When RPM went glossy in 1964 . . . in the first issue was a full page ad for The Beavers.

Skipper of the Minnow . . . ??

WEA's Dave Tollington just bought himself a 23 1/2 ft. sailboat . . . he always deals in half sizes (EC: Have you seen his boating shoes??) . . . and because he looks like Gilligan, I wonder if he's going to call his boat The Minnow??

It's time to take the gloves off!!

That Florida connection is a major topic of conversation within the industry. Remember, back a few years, when we had the same situation, but there were more players at that time. Well, get ready for a major move, on the part of the manufacturers.

Play ball . . . !!

It's time to get rid of that winter fat wouldn't you say . . . GN? It's getting close to the opening of the ball season . . . the softball season for the Ontario industry people. This year however, CHUM-FM and Q107 will add a lot of excitement to the games . . . and I've seen these guys play ball, so look out WEA, this could be the year (EC: For what . . . ??) The league is now represented by retail, radio and manufacturers. I'll have the opening date for you soon.

Speaking of winter fat . . . !!

It's time to shake out the old golf bag, and get ready for the industry golf tournament. The date this year has been firmed for July 27 at the Aurora Highlands . . . same as last year. (EC: I know someone who won't be there this year!!)

Now you've done it . . . !!

Someone told them they should clean up their image and they certainly are working at looking legitimate. If you are followers of this column, you may know who I'm talking about. But all the right moves don't mean they are going to get a clean bill of health . . . as a matter of fact, one of the early supporters feels the whole thing may blow up in their faces. He's right! Ottawa is asking questions! (EC: Several of them!!!)

Who can forget . . . John Pozer?

John Pozer has been living in Vancouver for sometime, but at a recent rock 'n' roll nostalgia event, I bumped into John, who is now promoting a game his son invented . . . and the stock is listed on the VSE. The name of the company is Rush Ventures, and a number of people in our business own a few shares!! This is not a tip!!

The Georgia Strait celebrates 20th birthday

Vancouver's Georgia Strait will celebrate their 20th Anniversary with what Promotions Manager Woody Turnquist describes as "a special collector's issue", which will be dated May 1st, 1987. The issue will include a historical supplement featuring 20 years of Vancouver, "as seen through the eyes of The Georgia Strait," continues Turnquist.

The Strait has weathered years of controversy, taking on all levels of government, since their beginning and, in particular the established music industry and major entertainment events that were launched "east of the Rockies."

COVER STORY - by Graeme BoyceStranglers still struggle for radio recognition

Consistently over the past decade, British "post punk" band, The Stranglers, have struggled to attain the lofty heights of rock stardom. Their new album, which took 9 months to fully record, serves as a reminder that this is one band where quality takes precedence over quantity.

Not often do Strangler songs make the airwaves however, their first single, Always The Sun, taken from the Dreamtime Album, did make significant headway in most major markets.

Although the band's Hugh Cornwell emphatically boasts, "It's the best album," they've released to date, adding it isn't any more commercial than any album previously released.

"None of us receive grants from the government," he is quick to point out. "So, everything we do is commercial, because if we didn't sell records we wouldn't be able to do it in the first place.

"If you're an artist (in England)," he continues, "you can apply for grants to support yourself while you're doing your art, but unfortunately that opening isn't available for modern musicians. We don't have any chance of that . . . and none of us have any private income . . . so we'd better record commercial records."

The actual recording process unfortunately, was somewhat lengthy. The band began production in Belgium with Aural Sculptures' producer Laurie Lathan at the helm, but in Cornwell's own words, "It was a fiasco," and the band returned home to start again.

"Unfortunately, we didn't do much production," he elaborates. We turned up the first day of recording with all these ideas that weren't really songs and Laurie had the terrible task of trying to piece together some sort of order out of it.

"And we hadn't made any sort of decision over which ideas to work on, or which ones to discard, because we really didn't mind working on any of them. So, we thought 'let's let Laurie decide.' We were just too lackadaisical in our attitude."

After several months of work with Lathan, the band called it quits, returned to England, and slipped into a "local" studio in Cambridge to complete the project. However, one track did survive those Belgium sessions: Shakin' Like A Leaf.

"The reason why that one came out successfully," Cornwell relates, "is because we'd been playing it live for the six months previously. But it was a very unsatisfying period for everybody. We decided the best thing to do was to come back to England."

The Stranglers are currently preparing for several dates in Canada: Toronto (Apr. 9 & 10), Montreal (11), and the release of the new single.

Radio reaction, so far, has been "disappointing," says Cornwell, adding however, "anything less than a No. 1 is disappointing."

RECORDS TO RADIO - by Ken AshdownPolyGram enters into exciting second quarter

There's no doubt that this quarter is shaping up to be one of PolyGram's biggest. Heading our list of "hot" product is one of Canada's most gifted songwriters, Gino Vannelli.

From Gino's new album, Big Dreamers Never Sleep, there's a brand new commercial 12-incher of Wild Horses coming your way. Shipped March 27, it features an extended remix of Wild Horses plus Shape Me Like A Man, also culled from the album.

There's a third track on the 12", the so-called "single version" of Wild Horses, but it should be noted that it's actually an edit of the newly remixed, extended version that appears on this 12" - in effect, it's a great alternative mix of the actual 7" and album versions of Wild Horses.

Bon Jovi's Slippery When Wet is now sextuple platinum in Canada with over 600,000 copies sold! The next single from the album will be Wanted Dead Or Alive. The initial pressing run of the 7" comes in a limited edition picture bag.

The single - backed with I'd Die For You, also from Slippery - features the 5:07 album version of the song, but it's prefaced at radio by 7" and 12" DJ-only samplers, both containing the LP version and the radio edit.

Judging by early reaction, this single (which follows their two consecutive gold singles) could be another monster. AM106 in Calgary, for example, reports that the song was the undisputed No. 1 champ on their nightly showdown feature for a solid week and then on the evening of March 18, it went head-to-head against the new Brian Adams single. The result? Listener response made it

Molson's dates extend to Vancouver and Montreal

Coming off an extremely successful rock sponsorship year in 1986, Molson's Breweries have extended now into the Vancouver and Montreal markets, according to Don Antle, Manager of Promotions.

The brewery will not only be sponsoring events at Vancouver's PNE, but also B.C. Place - a major coup following their competitor's involvement with Expo last year, relates Antle. As well, Molson's will be sponsoring Edmonton's Klondike Days, Calgary's Stampede, Toronto's CNE, Ottawa's CCE, and Montreal's La Ronde shows.

The success of sponsorship has clearly been indicated by several analytical studies conducted, and expansion into the music and brand identification fields will be undertaken this year, says Antle.

TERRY CRAWFORD: In Control on the A/C Charts

Terry Crawford has been on stage for 10 years, and four albums later, all the hard work is finally falling into place. I'll Be Back, the first single from her new Attic album, Total Loss Of Control, is breaking at A/C stations across Canada: now there's interest in the song from CHR as well.

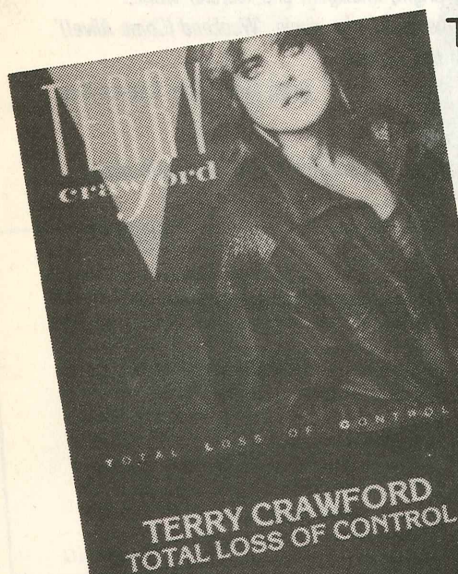

Like much of the material on the album, I'll Be Back was co-written by Rick Johnson and Joel Feeney with Tim Thorney. Johnson, Feeney (and Terry Crawford herself) are longtime CAPAC members; just three of 16,000+ songwriters, lyricists, composers and publishers affiliated with Canada's senior performing rights society.

PMIA releases series of cost-sharing recordings

The Pacific Music Industry Association (PMIA) has released a 4-song, 7" single, titled Sneak Previews, featuring 4 performers brought together through the efforts of this Vancouver-based non-profit society (see RPM Mar.28/87). This is the first in what is hoped will be a regular series of recordings, manufactured on a cost-sharing basis by the artists involved, and packaged and distributed to the media by Pacific Music volunteers.

It was pointed out by Jessica Gihon, a Pacific Music volunteer, who is also a publicist and artist manager that the performers invited to participate by a PMIA committee, "provided finished masters and split the costs of manufacturing, packaging and postage, taking advantage of discounts solicited by the committee." There were 1000 records pressed, 400 of which were mailed to the media across the country. The remainder will be allotted to the performers, record personnel, and the Pacific Music membership.

The performers on Sneak Previews are Rona Good, a recent runner-up in Vancouver's Write-On '86 songwriting competition. Here, she showcases On The Borderline, recorded by students at the Trebas Institute, with herself on vocals and guitar, keyboardist Basil Karahalios, bassist Tony Moser, and drummer Paul Dwyer. Blue Wave Studios in Vancouver was the setting for the production by Basil Karahalios.

Duane O'Kane, is well-known in Vancouver, and is also responsible for the cover graphics on the cleverly designed single jacket envelope. His showcase production, Voices In The Night, is from his FACTOR-supported self-titled independently-produced album. His session people were Paul Garay (keyboard bass), Sean Vedova (drums) Glen Smith (lead guitar), ID Guinness (keyboards), and Trevor Hoffman, Jane Reed, Jodie Bronson, and Leslie Harris on background vocals. The session was produced by Ken Spence at Ocean Sound.

Tony Papa, has been hailed as "one of the most talked about up-and-comers on the coast." He is known to New York audiences, having been a member of Pigeons Of The Earth, and boasts major international video production credits (Dire Straits and Huey Lewis). His vehicle for Sneak Previews is Don't Stop, a Papa original, taken from his upcoming album. Papa produced this session at Bullfrog Studios with himself on guitars and vocals, Jeff Dyke looking after keyboards and programming, and Jerry Lee Aire supplying background vocals.

Urban Heat is fronted by Brian Trudeau, known locally as Vancouver's "singing cop". His session people were Paul Garay (keyboards and background vocals), Sean Vedova (drums), Troy Samson (bass), and Stuart Lester (guitar and background vocals). The session was produced by Ken Spence at Blue Wave and Ocean Sound studios.

Gihon goes on to point out that Sneak Previews "acts as a music demonstration, the cover/poster design included in the package showcases graphic arts personnel," continuing with "The project provides the opportunity for more established west coast music business personnel to help 'reforest' their harvested territory, plus it provides experience for those volunteers interested in pursuing a career in the industry."

The principal organizers in the project to date have been Al Hyland, Promotions Director of the Amnesia nightclub; Gihon; and journalist/publicist Sorelle Saidman. Media mailing lists were donated by Platinum Promotions.

Says Saidman, "Pacific Music will again be asking potential participants for cassette copies of their masters for airing by the selection committee," to be used for future Sneak Previews. Saidman goes on to explain that "each performer is given one-quarter of the cover/poster space available and is responsible for that content within the boundaries of the format." Participants are "free to seek sponsorship and print their sponsor's logo."

IRS to release R.E.M. compilation on A&M

Although R.E.M. have recently entered the studio to begin work on their fifth album, their label reports a compilation of B-sides and previously unreleased material for release. The package will be available through a one-time only distribution deal with A&M Records, in late April.

R.E.M.'s new album is being produced in Nashville by Scott Litt, known for his work with Patti Smith, Katrina & The Waves, Beat Rodeo, and Robert Gordon. The release date is set for the fall and details were unavailable at press time.

Titled Dead Letter Office, the compilation was only previously available to owners of singles and imports. Liner notes provided by guitarist Peter Buck reveals: "Nobody listens to (a B-side) anyway, so why not have some fun.

"You can clean the closet of failed experiments, badly written songs, drunken jokes and occasionally, a worthwhile song that doesn't fit the feel of the album."

The "Chairman of the Board" is back with the 1987 version of . . .

Bev Marie re-enters music field

Bev Marie left the country music scene in 1974 after a long solo career that began in the late '60s. She had toured across the country with her Canadian Showband, and released her first album, Country Girl, in 1969. Her second album, Spin It Country, was released on the Rodeo label in 1972, from which Life Is Like A Merry Go Round and There's A Little Town (Bobcaygeon) were taken as singles, both of which gained national chart action. Now, Bev Marie is back with the release of Brand New Me on the Oshawa-based Ambassador label. The single was pro-

BX-93 talent winners

Marshall Law from London and Madonna Tassi from Kitchener have won this year's Country Roads Concert series finals, which is sponsored by BX-93. The winners each received $3,500 in cash. There were 5 performers in the finals, selected from preliminary concerts in Mt. Brydges, Thedford, Aylmer, and Lucan. Past winners have included Terry Sumsion, The Stoker Brothers, Wendy Davis, Michelle Wright, Jamie Warren, and Mary-Ann Epp.

New releases from GBM

The GBM label from Brampton, Ont., has released a couple of very interesting singles, one from Brenden Gillam, titled Jamaica, a Gillam original which was self-produced and taken from his All My Music LP. The other is Vickie Van Dyke's Look Before You Leap, which she co-wrote with Roger Honeywood. Richard Hutt and Steve Hogg produced.

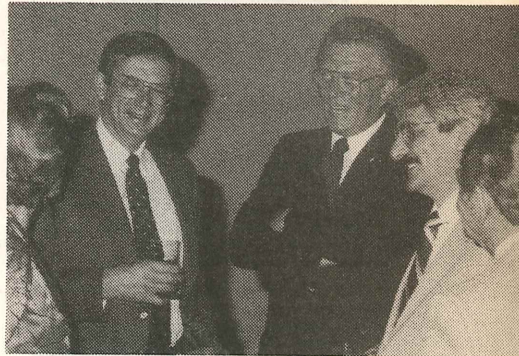

Knot tied on ice

CHAM's Fairytale Wedding On Ice, took place at Hamilton's Copps Coliseum (Mar. 20). CHAM PD Jim Johnston reports that "Well over 100 letters were received from listeners interested in our Wedding Of A Lifetime." During a press reception at CHAM on Mar. 13, Kandi Ross and Evan Churm of Hamilton were "unveiled" to the public, which followed their formal proposal to each other on-air during The Love Songs with Mark LaPointe. There were more than 11,000 of an audience at the Coliseum as the Maid of Honour (Snow White), the Best Man (The Handsome Prince), and the Ring Bearer (Mickey Mouse), waited for Kandi and Evan to be united in Holy Matrimony, as part of the scheduled Walt Disney On Ice performance. Says Johnston, "For Kandi and Evan, this very special night will not soon be forgotten."

Hall Of Honour awards presented by CCMA

The Canadian Country Music Association (CCMA), began inducting "outstanding members of the industry" into their Hall of Honour in 1984. To date there have been 7 members to receive the distinction: Hank Snow, Wm. Harold Moon, Papa Joe Bown, Orval Prophet, Wilf Carter, Don Messer and Tommy Hunter.

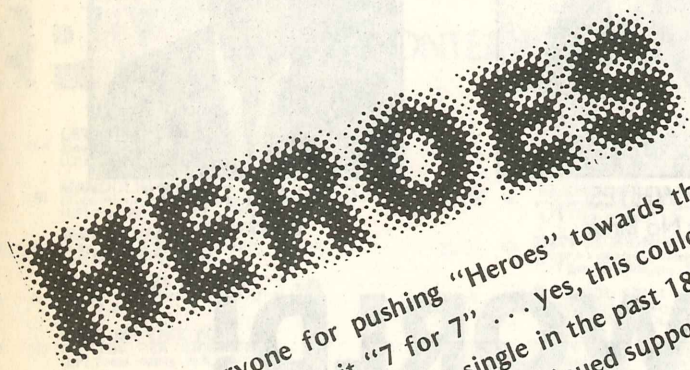

A special presentation was made on Feb. 28/87 at the Edmonton Convention Centre

honouring each of the 7 inductees with bronze plaques, a gift to the CCMA from the City of Edmonton.

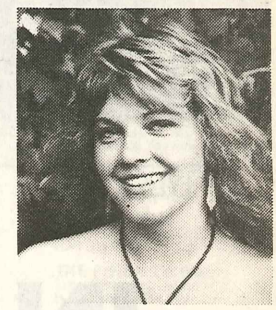

Tommy Hunter was honoured in person, while friends and family members of the other inductees were assisted in the official unveiling by Edmonton Mayor Laurence Decore. On hand were Lawanda and Barry Brown, Janis Messer (daughter of the late Don Messer), Mrs. Vera Moon, Mrs. Helen MacCauley and Betty Prophet, (sister and sister-in-law of the late Orval Prophet), and Ron Solleveld of RCA and Curley Gurlock, who represented Wilf Carter and Hank Snow, respectively.

Thanks to everyone for pushing "Heroes" towards the top.
We're hoping to make it "7 for 7" ... yes, this could be our
7th. consecutive RPM Top Ten single in the past 18 months.
We truly appreciate your help and continued support.

quite clear that the boys from New Jersey had the runaway favourite over the Adams' track!

Just arriving is Eight Seconds new single, Where's Bula, in the form of die-cut gatefold 7" package containing a bonus disc with previously unreleased material from the Almacantar sessions. The first single, Kiss You (When It's Dangerous), following its No. 1 position at radio in Quebec, is now approaching gold status.

Already Top 20 across the board at CHR radio in the U.S., Hipsway's first single, The Honeythief, is now finally starting to make significant chart gains in Canada too.

The Cult's new single Love Removal Machine is just being received at radio and the forthcoming album from which it's culled, Electric, ships April 1. The album is being supported by a heavy, multi-phase marketing campaign which, in its early stages, will include the release of a "videosingles" package containing four clips from Electric - at a great low price too.

Of course there will also be an extensive Canadian tour of major and secondary markets, and the word from the U.K. on their ongoing European tour dates is that they are bigger (literally) and better than ever before.

The Mission also has a special video package slated for commercial release, tentatively for the first week of May. The video, entitled Crusade, captures the band live during their late 1986 Crusade tour of Britain and Europe.

Wasteland, the first single from their album, God's Own Medicine (now gold in the U.K.), has just been shipped in a special edition 7" sleeve. In the wake of the recent announcement of the band's forthcoming Toronto gig, another concert date has been added to the itinerary; they're now confirmed to appear April 18 at the Spectrum in Montreal.

Robert Cray's Canadian gold album (and a very strong CD seller), Strong Persuader, is not only rebounding back up U.K. charts, but our AOR is digging deep. Two cuts are making tremendous inroads: Right Next Door (Because Of Me) and I Guess I Showed Her, while the lead single Smoking Gun is still burning up the CHR charts.

Therefore, add to this list new product from The Style Council, Anna Domino, Cinderella, Deep Purple and Youssou N'Dour (to name a few), PolyGram is indeed set to have one of our best quarters.

On a final note, programmers should check out N'Dour's version of The Spinner's classic Rubberband Man . . . it has enormous possibilities.

Franklin & Michael top MuchMusic's Top 30

Aretha Franklin and George Michael's I Knew You Were Waiting (For Me) moves to the No. 1 position on the MuchMusic Top 30 (Mar. 27).

New to the chart this week are Bryan Adams' Heat Of The Night (No. 15), David Bowie's Day In Day Out (No. 24), and Gowan's Moonlight Desires (No. 29).
