CBS Records Canada splits marketing chores

Norman Miller, who is now Senior Director Artist Marketing for CBS Records Canada, reports a restructuring of the company's marketing department. "We have strengthened our position, and we are looking towards the future as being an aggressive one for CBS," says Miller, going on to explain that the marketing department has been split into two divisions; an Artist Marketing Department dealing with current product by active artists, which will be headed by Miller; and the Special Marketing Department, headed up by Len Friedman as Senior Director, Special Marketing.

Friedman will add to his special products

Canada's MIDEM Booth pioneered yearly concept

CIRPA has announced that registrations are now being accepted for the Canada Booth at MIDEM '90 to be held in Cannes, France from Jan. 21st through the 25th. This will be the ninth year for the Canada Booth, a concept that Canada pioneered and which many countries are now fashioning similar booths.

As Mary Vratsidis, booth coordinator for CIRPA, points out, the Canada Booth is "an effective and cost efficient way for an independent to attend MIDEM and expand the market for their music." She continues with, "One fee covers MIDEM registration and contributes to the administration and operating costs of the booth," concluding with, "The large booth provides a convenient office away from home with receptionists and listening booths and promotions such as a compilation compact disc, an exclusive president's luncheon and sweatshirts."

Fox leaves CRIA to consult copyright field

Patrick Fox, Director of Investigative Services for the Canadian Recording Industry Association (CRIA) exits this position to become involved in the consulting and copyright fields.

The above announcement was made by Brian Robertson, President of CRIA, who pointed out that during his six year tenure, Fox had been "instrumental in drastically reducing the levels of piracy activity in Canada," as well as establishing "effective licensing procedures and controls" for VLA, CRIA's licensing organization.

chores that of classical and jazz product. Heidi Knobovitch will continue her role in special products. Deborah MacCallum, former Classical Product Manager, will add jazz product to her responsibilities and will report to Friedman, along with Danna Sayers, who will remain responsible for catalogue marketing i.e. reissue marketing.

Friedman will also be responsible for TV and concept marketing, and is now looking for a manager for this division. Karen Hunter, who looked after direct marketing, becomes Manager, National Accounts, which she was doing together with her television responsibilities. In this new position she will report directly to Don Oates. Also reporting to Oates is Tina McCulloch, who remains coordinator of Marketing Services, supporting both Artist Marketing and Special Marketing.

Miller also reports that he is expanding the Artist Relations and Press & Publicity Departments. Bill Bannon has accepted the responsibility of handling artist relations and country product. Bannon is currently seeking a national press and publicity manager for this department.

Also being beefed up is the pop product management area. Art Graham becomes Director of Domestic and CRI product and Bill Neily is now Pop Product Manager for CRU/Columbia. A position is open for Product Manager for CRU/Epic. Additional support staff will also be added.

"We are signing a lot of new acts," says Miller, concluding with "most of them work acts . . . and this restructuring will enable us to devote more time to the development of their careers as well as further develop our already strong marketing interests."

Blue Rodeo back home from Hollywood filming

Blue Rodeo have just returned to their homes in Toronto from Hollywood where they have been filming scenes for an upcoming Columbia movie starring Meryl Streep. Based on actress Carrie Fisher's book, Postcards From The Edge, the movie also features Shirley Maclaine, Gene Hackman, Richard Dreyfus and Dennis Quaid.

Blue Rodeo is in a scene where Streep portrays a country singer in a movie called Blue Rodeo. The script calls for her to sing a song, I'm Moving Out Of The Heartbreak Hotel, with her band. The song was written for the movie by Shel Silverstein and arranged by Blue Rodeo.

As Blue Rodeo's Jim Cuddy explains, "The song goes from a very fragile ballad to this whooped up country tune, and then we reprise it in our own rock 'n' roll fashion, with the credits rolling over us. It turned out to be fantastic." Cuddy and the band performed at the movie's "wrap party" before returning home.

In September of this year, Howard Shore, the musical director of the movie and a former member of Lighthouse and ten-year veteran as musical director of Saturday Night Live, was apparently looking for a group similar to the early Band. When Blue Rodeo's name came up, Shore got the go ahead from Streep who, thanks to her chauffeur, had been introduced to the Blue Rodeo sound during a trip from New York to Connecticut. After giving Shore the nod, Streep travelled to Toronto to rehearse with the band and two weeks later Blue Rodeo were on the set in Hollywood.

As well as the two versions of I'm Moving Out Of The Heartbreak Hotel, Blue Rodeo is planning to record one of their own songs in addition to one other collaboration with Streep for possible inclusion on the soundtrack recording.

Postcards From The Edge is scheduled for a mid-1990 release.

MCA's Cannibals lead September certifications

CRIA's certifications for September were led by Fine Young Cannibals. Their MCA album, The Raw And The Cooked, scored quintuple platinum, representing sales of 500,000 units. Their self-titled album was also certified in September as a platinum album.

Certifying for double platinum were Bob Marley (Legend), New Kids On The Block (Hangin' Tough), Tom Petty (Full Moon Fever), Milli Vanilli (Girl You Know It's True), The Jeff Healey Band (See The Light) and Bobby Brown (Don't Be Cruel).

Single platinum certifications were registered for The Phantom Of The Opera (Original London Cast), Love and Rockets (Self-titled), Cowboy Junkies (The Trinity Session), Janet Jackson (Rhythm Nation 1814), Martika (Self-titled), and Melissa Etheridge (Brave And Crazy).

Albums certifying gold were Francis Cabrel (Sarbacane), The Proclaimers (Sunshine On Leith), K.T. Oslin (80's Ladies), Janet Jackson (Rhythm Nation 1814), Elton John (Sleeping With The Past), Andrew Lloyd Webber (The Premiere Collection-The Best of Andrew Lloyd Webber), Gloria Estefan (Cuts Both Ways), Grapes Of Wrath (Now And Again) and Melissa Etheridge (Brave And Crazy).

There were three gold certifications for singles: Michael Damian (Rock On), Richard Marx (Right Here Waiting), and Roxette (Dressed For Success).

Fine Young Cannibals pick up quintuple and single platinum for Raw And The Cooked and debut LP respectively from MCA's Ross Reynolds, Stephen Tennant, Randy Lennox and Paul Orescan of IRS.

WAL SAYS

When it's time to go . . . ! Watch for a well-known name from that not-so-closely knit family of regulators to move into the private sector. It's a good training ground and if you're foxy . . . down the line you can call favours . . . and the private sector pays much better . . . but there isn't much security. (EC: Here today, gone tomorrow!)

How cum . . . ? With the long list of committee members for the Pierre Juneau tribute, many of them I've never heard of before, how come one of the most important publicists in the business, and one who did more for the Junos in its early days than anyone . . . and much of it for free, wasn't even considered? No initials necessary here . . . Gino Empry is the name . . . a hard act to follow! (EC: Right on . . . !)

Veronique . . . what a classy lady! When Veronique walked out on stage at Berlin's last week, my sixth sense told me I was watching a star . . . and her audience of industry and media watchers were stunned into silence (EC: A rare happening for an industry crowd!) when, after performing a couple of numbers, she came down off the stage and literally took us all by surprise with her one-on-one style of communicating. This was her show . . . she was in charge, there was no doubt about it. By the way, there's a sleeper track on her album . . . All Those Years Ago. Check it out. (EC: It's a hit . . . !)

Broadcasting by the stars? Remember, a few years ago when a famous broadcaster revealed that he programmed his stations with help from the stars . . . and from a mysterious astrologer? Well, there's another one . . . and he's charting the future of his stations on Saturn's moons and all the other little moons and stars, but he doesn't have an astrologer, unless that beautiful young blonde chick I saw him with the other day is a professional star gazer. (EC: Many moons ago . . . !)

Jobs! Jobs! Jobs! We haven't heard too much lately about job opportunities in the record industry, but here's three that sound very interesting. CBS is expanding and they're looking for a manager for the TV and Direct Marketing Division and a manager for Artist Relations and Press & Publicity, as well as a Product Manager for Epic . . . and support staff. (EC: I've got good references!)

Attention Juno bashers . . . ! In case you are one of the critics who snipes at the Juno show each year . . . you should have seen the recent ADISQ Awards. You'd feel a lot better about the Junos. I felt I was living in a time warp! (EC: John Candy would have been the perfect host!)

Too early for predictions . . . ! The two big names of the nineties will be Roch Voisine and Celine Dion. Watch both of these acts, and the funny thing is that both are from the Quebec scene and both will be singing in English. This could finally be the big breakthrough now that we are through with the hype and dealing with real talent. (EC: In my mind, they are both already BIG stars!)

Turn the other cheek . . . ! How's this for gall. After berating a certain governing body for the past fifteen years, a couple of fast talking dudes will be front and centre with their hands out in front of that very same group of powerful people. (EC: What goes around comes around . . . !)

Buying the REAL talent. Rumour has it that a recent spectacular record company purchase has to do with buying the REAL talent. Seems that what they were buying was the top gun who can bring their company back . . . into the business. Street talk is that the same scenario will take place in this country . . . and the irony is that this is where it's REALLY needed. (EC: Two phone calls for you. One is your car company and they're recalling your car. The other is head office and . . . guess what!) Stand up JS and take a bow.

Johnson firmed for Berlin engagement

Debbie Johnson, Marigold recording artist, has been firmed for an Oct 19 through 21 date at Toronto's Berlin Club. Much of her repertoire will be from her first two albums. Johnson is also set to perform at a Variety Club (Tent 28) luncheon saluting Sam Sniderman and Family (20) at the Metropolitan Toronto Convention Centre.

Johnson, who is managed by Tony Paniccia, has chalked up an impressive track record which includes nominations for the 1989 Toronto Music Award in the Pop/Dance category, a Juno nomination in 1987 for Most Promising Female Vocalist and again in 1989 for Best R&B/Soul Single. She has also been active in the Variety Telethon, CITY-TV's Electric Circus, CFMT's Upfront and CTV's Miss Canada Pageant. She was also a major player in the Fashion Heartbeat Tour which took her from Vancouver to Montreal in 1988. She is currently on release with her Marigold video, Mega Love.

"...the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans, and by all those preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent, and their capacity for inspired leadership"

COVER STORY - by Chris MurrayRoch Voisine - a three year overnight success story

Quebec pop singer Roch Voisine has a lot to smile about these days, recently winning Pop/Rock Single and Song of The Year for Helene, as well as Discovery and Male Artist of The Year at Quebec's L'ADISQ Music Awards. His current album, Helene, a French-language album, has gone double platinum in Quebec. In light of his remarkable breakthrough, Voisine is now gearing up to take on the English market with the aid of a high-powered promotional campaign being handled by The Music Brokers.

While to many Voisine may be a new face in the crowd, he has established a high profile in Quebec through frequent television appearances, both musical and non-musical. In 1987, he sang oldie hits on a weekly local video show, performances which compromised his debut album release which met with little response. Subsequently, Voisine landed a lead role in the CBC sitcom He Shoots, He Scores which led to his activity as host of Quebec video show Top Jeunesse.

Voisine attributes the rate at which his current album broke to this earlier exposure. "You come up on TV and people know you, what you can do and who you are, and they see your face and hear your voice," he comments. "Now you don't have anything to

FACTOR funds assist 45 sound recording projects

FACTOR has supplied funding for 45 sound recording projects through its Loan Program for the first half of this year. Funding was supplied for projects in five provinces covering ten musical categories.

Receiving loans in B.C. were Clayton Carrigan, Robin Shier Quintet, Saffron Henderson, Ken Michael, Ben Hur, Empty Vessels, Al Rodger, Montana, Marty Gillan, Beverly Elliott, Geoff Gibbons and Connie Scott.

Ontario recipients were The Sattalites, Kim & Jerry Brodey, Ray Lyell & The Storm, Jim McMillan, One To One, Jeff Jones, Jeffrey Hatcher, Roy Patterson Trio, Anton Kuerti, Morgan Davis Band, Look People, Canadian Electronic Ensemble, Alanis, Lorraine Scott, Deborah Dunleavy, Dave McMurdo Orchestra, Toronto Mass Choir, Bambi, Kerry-Anne Kutz, Arlene Smith and M Plus M.

Funding was supplied for two projects in Manitoba (Chocolate Bunnies and Burke-Gaffney and one each for Quebec (J.F. William) and Newfoundland (Figgy Duff).

The FACTOR program provides funding for two tracks, EPs, LPs and CDs through loans which are repayable from sales of the product. Canadian-owned or controlled labels, production companies, producers, managers and artists can apply for up to 50 percent of their projected budget costs to maximums of $5,000.00 for two tracks, $10,000.00 for an EP and $20,000.00 for an LP. The next deadline for applications to the program for all musical categories is Dec. 29/89.

sell, so you're doing promotion before having your material for two or three years and then, when you come out with the material, and if they like it, it obviously should sell faster because everybody is aware of who you are.

"We were ahead of our time with TV," Voisine asserts. "I think, in the nineties, TV is the best promotion that you can get . . . He Shoots, He Scores did a great deal of helping because there were two million people watching it every Saturday night."

Voisine's second album, also in English, "was very folky and it didn't do that good," he admits, "not expressly because it was in English, but I think we had a problem with distribution."

Waiting a year, Voisine decided to record a French single thinking, "At least if it's in French here they'll give a little push to it." Going into the studio independently with two or three hired musicians, the song Helene was recorded and pressed. At this point he started shopping the self-written, arranged and produced 45 to local labels.

"Nobody would really believe in Helene," he recalls, "and finally we'd gotten on to Star Records and they said 'Okay, we'll try it and see,' and boom! We had to do the album pretty quick after that because it just got mad."

Now, prompted by the remarkable success in French Canada, an English version of Helene, accompanied by a video, has been released to the rest of Canada. Voisine explains that this newest version is actually truer to the original state of the song. "The very first demo years ago was in English. I write all my songs in English and then rewrite

BMG Music Publishing acquires Two P(i)eters

BMG Music Publishing Worldwide has purchased a majority interest in The Company of the Two P(i)eters, a Dutch-based music publishing company. The announcement was made by Nick Firth, President of BMG Music Publishing Worldwide and Pieter van Bodegraven of The Company of the Two P(i)eters.

The Dutch company is considered the leading independent music publisher in Holland, and over the past ten years has become one of the most successful music publishing companies in Europe.

To be known as BMG-Two P(i)eters Music, the merged companies will be managed by Shoonhoven and van Bodegraven. Joop Plagge of BMG Music will have total administrative responsibility.

In commenting on the acquisition, Firth pointed out that this new association "demonstrates BMG's intention to extend its music publishing interests worldwide."

The new company will be housed in a new building at the Lindeneuvel in Hilversum. The company publishes works by Prince, Eurythmics, Milli Vanilli, Bee Gees, Rod Stewart, ZZ Top, Suzanne Vega, Spandau Ballet, Kandanz, Vaya Con Dios among others.

them in French."

While all his songs exist in an English language form, no firm date has been set for the release of an English version of the album, the single being used to try the waters. If an English package is released, Voisine expects it will stray from the content and style of his current set.

"I think an English album is different than a French album even if you keep the same songs," he argues. "I don't intend to keep the same tracks because I think the feeling is different. I will probably change a couple of songs on the album. The next album should be a little more folky than the one in French . . . a bit more edgy . . . some songs more folk and some other songs more rock and roll, less middle of the road, because I think the English Canada market is different from the French Canada market."

When asked his feelings on the strongly worded press release issued by Star Records reading, "We have waited decades for someone as special and talented as Roch Voisine," the regional celebrity tempers the hype slightly with a dash of realistic thinking. "I've been living this for at least two or three years here in Quebec and I've sold 200,000 albums and I have sold out shows throughout the province and New Brunswick," he says, "Here, I guess, that's the way people feel . . . For them, that's exactly what I am."

"Now I'm pretty aware that English Canada is a new market," he continues. "I know what I am and I know what I can do. I just want the chance to come up there and do a couple of live gigs and get a chance for people to see me and see what I can do . . . From there, we'll just follow up. It'll be either up or down."

"I'm pretty aware of that fact . . . but I'm a hard-working guy and I can handle my share of the work." And plenty of hard work is what Voisine can look forward to as 150 shows are already booked to May, 56 before Christmas.

"The faster you get it, Voisine says of success, "the more intense it is. I've learned a great deal in two or three years. I feel like I've grown ten years older in three years . . . Show business, like any other business is a matter of choices," he concludes. "If you make the right choices when you're sitting at the table . . . it goes much faster."

It will be extremely interesting to see if Star Records and Roch Voisine succeed in making the choices that will break the young singer as effectively in English Canada as in Quebec. With expectations raised sky-high, the pressure is on to deliver the goods, and the Edmundston, New Brunswick native is thoroughly confident that he can.

ALBUMS

VERONIQUE - Pop
Veronique - A&M - SP-9154-W
Quebec chanteuse Veronique should take A/C by storm with this eponymous release and House Of Love, the first single, is rapidly climbing the RPM A/C chart. Falling In Love stands the best chance for CHR interest, but will only be of concern to the lightest adherents to that format. I'm Gonna Make You Love Me has a certain singalong appeal, a much hotter version being used by Burger King for their high-profile 20 years in Canada television campaign. Produced and co-arranged by Richard Carpenter who shares writing credits on All Those Years Ago. (CD reviewed). - CM

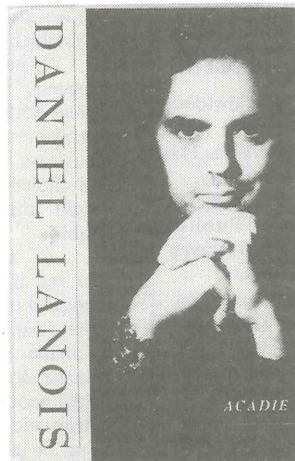

ANIMAL LOGIC - Pop
Animal Logic - IRS - IRS-82020-J
After all the supposed supergroup corporate rock outfits we've had to live through, it's refreshing to come across a group that actually consists of truly excellent musicians who are clearly interested in more than the mighty dollar. Needless to say, Stewart Copeland and Stanley Clarke are impeccably tasteful and memorable without being flashy, comprising one of the most entertaining rhythm sections to come along in ages. The real news here, however, is Deborah Holland. With her clear and captivating voice and writing credits on all tracks, songs which combine pop sensibility with emotion and maturity, she is as valuable a player on this team as either of the two big names. All tracks are key and are lushly, but not overly, produced which should result in heavy AOR and CHR results. There's A Spy (in The House Of Love), no relation of the Was (Not Was) song, should prove a strong first single with the most likely follow-up possibilities being the mellow Winds Of Santa Ana, the reggae-influenced I'm Through With Love and I Still Feel For You. If justice is served, this package will be recognized by the masses as the priority listening it is in time for stocking stuffing seasonal buying. (Cassette reviewed). - CM

BOB WISEMAN - Pop
In Her Dream
Risque Disque - 25-69134-P
Anyone expecting this album to sound like a Blue Rodeo release will be sorely disappointed, but perhaps pleasantly surprised. Less commercial and more eclectic than his primary musical involvement, the album is nonetheless a showcase for some fine songwriting and musicianship. Harking back to the roots of folk, country and rock 'n' roll, Wiseman has taken the emphasis off studio hi-jinx and rightfully placed it on capturing the spark generated by the honesty of live performance. Feet tap, pant-legs rustle and voices occasionally crack, but that doesn't matter. The warmth and the spirit of the music, which predates studio isolation by light years, are preserved and result in a cohesive package that ultimately makes excellent sense, although it likely will also make a few music directors wince. Having smash potential at the campus level, the best bet for commercial airplay are If I Knew, Ship At Sea and We Got Time. More artists should have this type of unconcerned attitude when recording. (Cassette reviewed). - CM

DANIEL LANOIS - Pop
Acadie - Opal - 92-59691-P
Although The Maker alone stands a chance for CHR airplay, so far it has been released only as a track to AOR where it has been well-received. While this strategy may not be the most financially advisable, it is logical, as this effort is clearly all about the album as a whole. Atmospheric and passive, Acadie spins a delicate web of sound designed to ensnare more than the hand that holds the wallet. Lanois' voice is suitably mellow and subdued and his writing admirable. Hopefully he will not demand such a long waiting period before his next release. This is the type of album that gives background music a good name, yet will please the active listener with its layered subtlety. (Cassette reviewed). - CM

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK - Pop
Merry, Merry Christmas
Columbia - FC-45280-H
Merry Xmas, Y'all! Quite honestly, this whole New Kids phenomenon is getting scary. This album will probably end up the year's top-selling seasonal package, although it may prove too gimmicky to achieve much airplay. Featuring New Kids versions of Chestnuts Roasting On An Open Fire, White Christmas and Little Drummer Boy which don't stray too far from the originals, the balance of the material consists of headmaster Maurice Starr's compositions. While Last Night I Saw Santa Claus has a slight edge and Funky, Funky, Xmas is straight out pop rap consciously imitative of several name rappers, the majority of the package relies on slower ballad-style numbers with big ethereal production, making it likely that no one who actually goes out and buys the record will be surprised or disappointed. (Cassette reviewed). - CM

CHALK CIRCLE - Pop
As The Crow Flies
Duke Street - DSR-31049-J
While the album has some high points, it will not make big stars of Chalk Circle. For the most part, the songs are not very radio-accessible, although they should receive good airplay at the campus level. The first single, Sons And Daughters, is off to a respectable start, making moves up the lower end of the RPM 100 Singles chart. The main problem with this effort seems to be the production, which has made the music, especially the drums, sound too clean and often lifeless. Fortunately, the album ends strongly with Clothes You Wear, a gospel-tinged R&B tune with lighthearted lyrics; a charming outtake of Ottoman New York; and Can Of Worms, which is the hardest rocking of all tracks included on the package. (Cassette reviewed) - CM

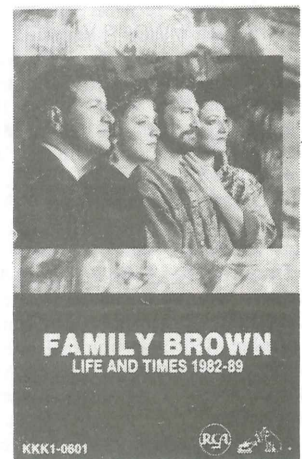

THE WAY MOVES - Pop
The Way Moves - Dail - D1-74754-W
While this group breaks no musical ground, relying too much on an outdated synth-pop sound, several tracks which place greater emphasis on guitar stand above the rest. In particular, Shadows Of Love recalls Echo & The Bunnymen. Love's In Fashion has potential for club play. Forever After, Killer and Crown Of Thorns are also worth a listen. Unfortunately, the rest of the material can best be described as filler. - CM

MYRNA LORRIE - Country
Blue Blue Me - Sibley - SIBC-8901
It didn't take long for this country veteran to re-establish herself and move back onto the charts. Her first single, the title track, made impressive gains up the charts and her follow-up, Sometime, another Lorie original, should follow suit. Lorie has a way with lyrics and a confidence in projection that makes it obvious this is a talent going somewhere. Effective promotion by The Music Brokers has certainly increased her visibility with country programmers. Also key are If Teardrops Were Pennies and Blue With Envy. Produced by Joe Bob Barnhill. (Cassette reviewed). - WG

RANDY TRAVIS - Country
No Holdin' Back
Warner Bros - 92-59884-P
This is the fourth and another big one for this rare talent in the country field. The steamroller effect is still rolling and his latest single, It's Just A Matter Of Time, is moving up the charts. By the way, this is a cover of Brook Benton's old release, originally produced by Richard Perry for his Rock, Rhythm And Blues compilation, which could crossover to the A/C market. Remember, there's no vinyl single, so you'll have to dig through your CD compilations or cart the track off this album. Also key are Singing The Blues and Mining For Coal. Kyle Lehning was the producer, with one cut by Richard Perry. (Cassette reviewed). - WG

FAMILY BROWN - Country
Life And Times 1982-89
RCA - KKK1-0801-N
Hold the phone, Family Brown have another hit. Powerful single, Pioneers brought this package into focus immediately, with a little vocal help from Hank Snow. Kinda clever on the titling as well. Pioneers belongs to the 1982 side, a tribute to some of the people in Canadian country who made it happen, while How Many Times, which should be the follow-up single, will take this popular Ottawa Valley family into 1990. Lots of vocal charm here, with much of the music being written by Barry Brown. Juno award winning producer Randall Prescott did the honours on this production as well. (Cassette reviewed). - WG

Grashey to Nashville for talks

Don Grashey is currently in Nashville for meetings with Frank Jones, President of Airborne Records. On the table is a production/distribution deal for Golden Eagle country artist Cindi Cain. The deal calls for distribution of her product in the U.S. and world markets on the Airborne label to be distributed in the U.S. by MCA and in Canada by CBS Records. Initial release will be a compilation of her first and newly recorded album to be titled Just A Place Where Mem'ries Live. Featured will be four of her chart records from her first LP which had no national distribution along with cuts from her newly recorded product. Cain is currently enjoying another chart happening with the title track from her new album. Her first cassette and CD will be released in the U.S. the first of next year, along with a new single to be decided on shortly.

BX-93 kicks off Coats For Kids campaign

Ian McCallum, Program Director of London's BX-93, sends news that Ontario's original Coats For Kids campaign officially began its eighth year on BX-93 on Oct. 16. Sketchley Cleaners, the Memorial Boys & Girls Club and BX-93 have teamed up once again "to help make the approaching winter season a lot warmer for thousands of needy children in Southwestern Ontario," says McCallum. More than 50,000 coats have been donated and distributed in the eight years since the campaign began. Several other Ontario centres have since adopted the program. McCallum concludes with "Coats For Kids is an inexpensive way for everyone to share the warmth of the rapidly approaching holiday season with those less fortunate." For more information contact McCallum at 519-685-9393.

Unique album from Sylvia Tyson

Sylvia Tyson's new Stony Plain album, You Were On My Mind, her fifth solo album, contains several of her standards including River Road and Trucker's Cafe, and an impressive lineup of new material like The Night The Chinese Restaurant Burned Down and Last Call. A highlight of the album is a duet with Lucille Starr on Peper's Mill in both English and French. Colleen Petersen helps out with background vocals and well-known guitarist Albert Lee and Tom Russell Band guitarist Andrew Hardin add to the highly polished instrumental backing. Album co-producer Tom Russell also joins Sylvia on some cuts. Tyson enters the RPM 100 this week with the title track of her new album, the first track taken as a single. For CD buyers, there's a bonus track of The Blind Fiddler's Waltz.

Rawson is winner in Scarborough song fest

Arts Scarborough, the community arts council, has announced that Cyril Rawson, a native of Peterborough, Ontario and well known in country music, is the winner of the Borough's first Songwriters Competition. Rawson's entry, Gold In Mississippi, won over 123 entries submitted by 75 composers, some from as far away as B.C. and the Yukon.

The jury comprised David Graham, Music Coordinator for Scarborough's Board of Education; Paul Sanderson, a musician and lawyer specialising in copyright law; and Peter Panayotu, a CAPAC field representative who is also a lyricist.

Alert launches career for Montreal's Marck duo

Alert Music has released Dangerous Visions, the debut album by Marck, a Montreal duo. Comprised of Mark Vinet (vocals) and Marc Cote (guitar), the pair were the 1988 winners of the Tele-Metropole/POP Express homegrown contest on CFTM-TV, billed as "the largest media talent contest" in the country. Their prize was the Alert album.

Recorded at Multison Recording Studios and mixed at Le Studio, the album contains ten original songs and features guest appearances by Sass Jordan, Jean Milhaire (Marjo) and Jimmy James (Pagliaro). Overnight, the first single from the album, has been released along with a video.
