Masse uses clout to fight Cancon reduction

Displaying a rare show of government muscle toward one of its agencies, Marcel Masse, Communications Minister, announced that the Governor-in-Council has ordered the Canadian Radio-television and telecommunications Commission (CRTC) to "reconsider" its decision that would allow CHEQ-FM Smiths Falls to reduce the level of Canadian content in its general music programming.

As Masse points out, "The Governor-in-Council's decision underscores the government's commitment to Canadian-content policy," continuing with, "The government is always reluctant to use the power of review, however, Canadian content-levels are a vital concern of Canadian artists, and are at the heart of our broadcasting system. Any changes to those levels should be made only with a clear explanation of the CRTC's rationale."

The CRTC, in a November 9, 1989 decision on an application to amend licence conditions, allowed the Smiths Falls station a reduction from 30 percent to 25 percent in its general music programming noting, however, that the station "was increasing the total number of hours in this category, and would therefore maintain the same absolute number of hours of Canadian content."

The Canadian Independent Record Production Association (CIRPA) petitioned the government to intervene in this decision because of what the organization believed would be a "perceived negative effect on the Canadian recording industry."

Masse also referred to the pending general review of the CRTC with regard to its FM radio policy. "That review," concludes Masse, "will provide an excellent forum for all interested parties to discuss the broader issues related to content levels."

CARAS lines up radio syndications

The Canadian Academy Of Recording Arts and Sciences (CARAS) has confirmed three national radio syndications for this year's Juno Awards.

Countdown To The Junos, produced and sold by Telemedia, a two-hour live phone-in program, will air March 17 from 10 pm to midnight (Toronto time) on over twenty stations. This will be the fifth year for this program which will originate from Q107 studios where Canadian listeners can phone in and talk with Juno nominees.

Salute To The Junos, produced by Lysonic Productions, will be a two-part Juno special to be broadcast nationally by satellite. This will be the fourth year that Alan Lysaght has coordinated these specials. The first will be an in-depth two-hour show of interviews and music from the nominees that airs one week prior to the Junos. The second, a one-hour special, will comprise interviews with the winners taped live at the event and will air within three days after the awards.

Canadian Entertainer Of The Year Profiles, produced and sold by Sound Source, will tie in with the national balloting campaign sponsored by Molson Breweries. This will be the second year for this five-part series of twenty minute interviews featuring background information on the nominees for Canadian Entertainer of The Year. The show will air February 5th and 9th.

For more information contact Neill Dixon at 416-238-8682.

It was a Dirty, Rotten, Filthy, Stinking, Rich award, but it was gold for Warrant, presented by CBS staffers, who also informed the band that the album had just gone platinum as well.

The Music Publisher (TMP) is the co-publisher, with McLauchlan Music, of Let The Good Guys Win, McLauchlan's new Capitol single and video. McLauchlan is seen above with the TMP Good Guys and Gals, Vicki Walters, Michael Roth, Michelle Nagel and Frank Davies.

CAPAC and PROCAN merge as SOCAN

The Boards of Directors of Composers, Authors, and Publishers Association of Canada (CAPAC) and Performing Rights Organization of Canada (PROCAN), have jointly announced (January 3, 1990) that "the name of the new Canadian performing rights society, established as the result of a merger of the existing societies, shall be Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada (SOCAN)."

It has also been confirmed that Jan V. Matejcek, currently President and General Manager of PROCAN, will be Chief Executive Officer of SOCAN and Michael Rock, General Manager of CAPAC, will be Chief Operating Officer.

Plans are now underway to merge the Quebec Divisions of Procan and CAPAC, which will be known as Societe canadienne des auteurs, compositeurs et editeurs de musique. Effective February 1st, personnel from both divisions will share offices at 600 de Maisonneuve West, 5th Floor, Montreal, Quebec, H3A 3J2, telephone 514-844-8377.

A similar merging of the Vancouver operations will take place on March 1st, with a move to 1201 West Pender St., 4th Floor, Vancouver, B.C. V6E 2V2.

It was also revealed that CAPAC and PROCAN's magazines, The Canadian Composer and Music Scene, ceased operation with the December and January issues respectively. A new, enlarged, quarterly magazine published in separate English and French editions will be launched in the spring. The magazine will be titled Canadian Composer and Le Compositeur Canadien, the same titles as CAPAC currently uses, but which were reportedly "thought to be most suitable for the new magazine."

A new monthly newsletter, titled Probe and Le Milieu for its French counterpart, will be published regularly. The newsletter will be incorporated in the quarterly magazine. The current editorial staff members will remain with these publications.

A merger information bulletin has been mailed to CAPAC and PROCAN members and affiliates. For further information contact Nancy Gyokeres at PROCAN's Toronto office, 416-445-8700.

DKD first Canadian elected to NACPA Board

Donald K. Donald, Canada's most successful concert promoter and a highly respected Broadway producer (Tango Argentino, Black And Blue), has been elected to the Board of Directors of the North American Concert Promoters Association (NACPA). He was subsequently appointed by the NACPA Board as an Officer (Treasurer) of the organization.

Initially formed as a lobby group to deal with government issues, the NACPA now meets four times yearly to discuss and review all issues which concern presenters of live entertainment.

Just recently NACPA met and exchanged industry ideas and suggestions with the world's most powerful agents, artist managers, building (arena) managers, ticket sellers and record company representatives. In the process the organization has become what is described as "the premiere work association of the entertainment industry."

The Montreal-based Tarlton is the first Canadian to be elected to NACPA's Board.

Lanois among MIDEM's World Music showcasing

Celebrated Canadian producer Daniel Lanois, who moved into the performance arena recently with the release of his debut WEA solo album, Acadie, will be among those showcased at MIDEM's World Music in Cannes, France (Jan. 20/90). Lanois, who has produced many top names in the recording field, including U2, Bob Dylan, The Neville Brothers and Brian Eno, performs in both English and French on his new album, which puts him front and centre for this presentation of World Music, described as "the fusion of ethnic traditions with Western pop."

Sharing the billing with Lanois for this two-and-a-half hour concert in the Grand Auditorium of the Palais des Festivals will be Senegal's Youssou N'Dour, one of the leading names in African music; Tunisia's Amina; and South Africa's Mahlathini, who will be accompanied by the Mahotella Queens, three female singers who will perform Mbaqanga music, a mixture of traditional rhythms, street sounds and

Schragge completes score to Beautiful Dreamers

Feature Canadian film composer Lawrence Schragge has completed the final recording of his score for the feature film Beautiful Dreamers. The film, which was shot in Toronto this past summer, stars Rip Torn.

Schragge recorded the score at the NFB studios in Montreal with a full symphony orchestra. Traditional fiddle music is also used, with fiddle champion Graham Townsend performing in several sequences.

MCA and Bowen trumpet dissolution of Universal

Bruce Hinton, President of MCA Records Nashville, and Jimmy Bowen have jointly announced (January 2/90) the "dissolution" of their Universal Records venture and Bowen's purchase of MCA's "interest in several Universal Records artists."

The above follows the December 12/89 announcement by Joe Smith, President and Chief Executive Officer, Capitol-EMI Music Inc., that Bowen had been appointed President of Capitol/Nashville. Among those going to Capitol with Bowen are well known country acts, Eddie Rabbit, Eddy Raven, Larry Gatlin & The Gatlin Brothers Band, Glen Campbell, Wild Rose, John Anderson, Lacy J. Dalton, Joni Harms, J.D. Hart, Larry Knechtel, Scott McQuaig, Trader Price, Preston Red, Sojira, Wild Bill and The Cloggers and Joe Barnhill Jr.

Remaining with MCA Records Nashville are The Judds, who will begin work on their first LP for MCA/Curb after delivery of one final album to their present label, and The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. MCA will retain all rights to the Universal Records name.

WEA's Quincy Jones MIDEM's Man Of Year

Quincy Jones, musician, composer, producer and record company executive, will be named Man of the Year at a gala dinner and concert in his honour at MIDEM '90. The 24th edition of the MIDEM international music trade show will be held in Cannes, France from January 21st through the 25th.

Jones is a legend in the music business, having arranged and produced We Are The World, a classic recording session which brought together the cream of American musicians to help in the fight against world famine. He also produced Michael Jackson's albums, Bad, Thriller and Off The Wall,

Toronto singer wins Vocal Warz '89

Jillian Mendez, a 23-year old Toronto singer, won top prize in the nationally-promoted Vocal Warz '89. The competition was produced by Vancouver's Promoco and sponsored by General Electric and Coca-Cola Classic in association with Penta Entertainment/WEA, A&A Records & Tapes and Audix Professional Microphones.

There were more than 2,500 contestants entered in the competition which had local run-offs at selected clubs across Canada. Mendez received a grand prize package of $2,500 cash, a $2,500 gift certificate from Thomson Consumer Electronics (for G.E. home electronics equipment), a recording session to be produced by top Canadian producer Brian MacLeod (Chilliwack, Tim Feehan, Headpins), release of the resulting single on Penta/WEA, distribution of 1,000 copies of the single through A&A outlets across Canada and a national publicity campaign to help launch her career.

Mendez and the other finalists also received a G.E. 100 watt remote control audio rack stereo system, a Vocal Warz tour jacket, an Audix Professional microphone and transportation and accommodation to attend the National Finals.

AWAY SAYE

Back in the groove . . . ! Two weeks away from work, plus another couple of weeks over the Christmas season, and the industry doesn't look the same. The rumours that were in the mill when I left have been replaced by others . . . some of them pretty scary. This has nothing to do with the record industry, but rumour has it that a consortium of Japanese auto makers is making a bid to buy General Motors. Don't laugh . . . if they could buy CBS Records and Pictures, we just might see Toyotas and Nissans rolling off the line in Oshawa. (EC: Now that's rolling too far, wouldn't you say . . . ?)

What's in a name . . . ? Glancing through the Toronto Sun the other day I came across a great looking ad on record product . . . an ad that any paying major record label would be proud of. One problem . . . the name of the chain had been left off. (EC: Maybe the owner feels he's so big he doesn't have to name himself . . . !)

"...the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans, and by all those preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent, and their capacity for inspired leadership"

LaToya's no Michael . . . ! I was really looking forward to LaToya Jackson's show at Lulu's . . . but what a disappointment. She travels with a fairly large crew, which includes dancers and musicians, and the dancers were exceptional, but much of her background was supplied through tape. Her voice-over was quite weak, and she could do with a little choreography help. Too bad, I was one of the few who had an opportunity to talk to her . . . and she's a very charming young lady. (EC: A better author . . . ?)

Speaking of Lulu's . . . ! I've mentioned it before, but it's worth mentioning again. John Ireland, brother of Jill, brother-in-law of Charles Bronson, is the new owner of Lulu's, one of the largest roadhouses in North America. By the way, Lulu's boasts the largest bar in the world, the best staff in the business, including some pretty beefy looking enforcers at the door (take note Diamond). Of course, a lot of nice things happen when you're in the company of head Hostess promotion Munchie John Thompson. (EC: Record company head hunters take note!) John has done wonders with the club, and he's just starting. He has gussied up the stars' dressing rooms and generally tightened up the operation. He still has a way to go with the exclusive Lovers' Lounge, the only annoying factor, to me. (EC: Wait till next year's Hallowe'en party . . . !)

Well . . . JB has done it . . . ! Yes, all the i's have been dotted and the t's crossed. JB has accomplished what he set out to do. He has three acts ready to go and a major distributor to make them go. I'll have all the details next week. (EC: But does he have a slip for his boat . . . ?)

Now that's a promotion . . . ! WEA's promotion crew threw a scare into RPM's neighbours and passersby with their campaign to bring attention to Crash Vegas, a new signing to the Risque Disque label. After parking a wreck in the RPM parking lot, they asked RPM staffers, Rob Garner, Chris Murray and Sean LaRose to pound the car with a sledge hammer. After Rob had a

Rubbin' Me The Right Way is the title of Tim Karr's new album and some genius at Capitol thought of the idea of a vibrator . . . suitably emblazoned with the artist's name and title of the album. I still don't know what to do with it, but it will make a good paperweight. (EC: I'll bet it'll be big in Calgary . . . the vibrator that is!)

COVER STORY - by Chris Murray

Monuments Galore have paid their dues

When so many bands form and break up each day, it is indeed rare for an act to stick it out for seven years before finding a label deal. One such case is Winnipeg's Monuments Galore, who recently signed to BMG-distributed Eureka Records and released their eponymous debut album.

Attracting the attention of record companies is usually the most difficult task an unsigned band must accomplish. To interest Joel Wertman, the man behind Eureka Records, Monuments Galore resorted to kidnapping. "He [Wertman] was doing some benefit with Liberty Silver and our managers picked him up, locked him in the car and played him the album all the way [to our show]," declares lead singer Kevin Mears. "He couldn't get out."

To involve producer Mitch Easter [REM] in the project required less drastic, but no less effective measures. "We phoned him," recalls Mears. "A friend of ours had his phone number at the Drive-In Studio, as she lived there."

"He returned the call and then we sent demo tapes and then a week later he said, 'Let's do it,'" he continues. "The hardest thing was to get his schedule together with ours."

The group recorded their album with financial assistance from CIDO. "We got marketing support, tour support and video support," reports Mears. "It's a fund to promote Manitoba music and the deal was amazing . . . it was exactly what we needed at the time." Video support for their second single, Always On My Mind, was provided by FACTOR.

When asked why he thought it took so long for the band to get signed, Mears replies: "It had to do with the maturity of the band. I came from the 'fuck you' school, the 1976 punk syndrome where we did everything ourselves, and the band had this attitude, 'Hipper than thou'. I don't think they were ready or mature enough, plus there was nobody really taking notice of Winnipeg bands . . . I guess that the band wasn't mature and it reflected in the way that we were writing," he admits. "It was probably a little more alternative."

Commenting on whether Monuments Galore has lost any of the edge of alternative music, Mears suggests: "I think alternative just means you never have enough money to make a good record. I want to make money and I enjoy making music . . . there's no crime in that. So you've got thirty people who think you're not as cool as you used to be, but I'm getting to do what I want . . . I'm living the dream and I think that if that's alternative, very well."

Initially a ska-based band, Mears hints that their origins have provided a strong base for the rock the band now plays. "I was really influenced by [ska]. I thought that it really had the same energy as the punk stuff and it wasn't like a lot of electronic music around that time," adding "It's so much fun to dance to . . . we're still raw energy on stage; it's just bare-bones rock and roll, but we're better players and we know what to do in the studio."

Having recently toured with labelmates The Hoodoo Gurus, Mears elaborates on the benefits of having a major album release under your belt. "We get to stay in hotels now and we've got a bus to tour in. I'm the singer in the band and the kind of guy that I lose my voice if I'm not comfortable and I've had to sleep on a floor. So now I've been on the road for two months and my voice is just fine."

"I'm comfortable. The band plays better. You don't have the tension on the road because you have no money, you can't go have anything to eat and you've got dirty clothes," he stresses. "All the horror stories that everybody tells are true."

Currently negotiating a U.S. distribution deal, the band hopes to capitalize on the American campus profile they established with the previous release of an independent single and EP. "You can sell 50,000 records just being on the college charts and the record companies watch those now," maintains Mears.

If hard work and persistence really count for anything, Monuments Galore is deserving of a stateside deal on that basis alone. Having held onto the dream for this long, the band is clearly in possession of the type of sincerity and determination that so often translates into a strong and loyal fan base . . . eventually.

Sklar's uptempo single finally scores

It's been an uphill promotion battle for Glenn Sklar's Edmonton-based Uptown label, but he has finally broken through with Brian Sklar's single, Hell Or Houston. The single, a Sklar original, was produced by Glen Stace at Saskatoon's Studio West and pressed on red vinyl by United Record Pressing of Nashville. The single is just what country programmers are looking for, an uptempo outing with lots of bite. This is his third single. His first, titled 57, which was released in the U.S., went to No. 5 on the Independent Label Chart (Nov. 19/88) and was 22 weeks in the Top 50 and peaked at No. 41 on the RPM Country 100 (Jan. 28/89) after twelve weeks of charting. His second release, It Won't Be Long, went to No. 71 on Cashbox (May 27/89) and peaked at No. 30 on Canada's national chart (July 24/89) after thirteen weeks of chart action.

Maxted release making impact

Ottawa born singer/songwriter Mark C. Maxted makes a bid for the charts with his debut for the Justin label titled Vision Of A Cowboy, a Maxted original. Maxted is joined by his band, The Outriders, for this Grant Avenue Studio (Hamilton, Ontario) session which he co-produced with Bob Deutch. Maxted tags his band "uniquely country with steel and acoustic guitars up front along with fiddle", which rounds out his five piece country band." The band's show includes a bit of Texas swing, the West, Top 40 country material and half a dozen of Maxted originals. Tour dates are now being pencilled in for this coming year. After leaving Ottawa, Maxted lived and performed in Alberta, "where the land of the cowboy made an indelible mark on both my music and life," says the young singer, who now lives in Hamilton.

Rarerabbit's Rainville off with new single

After enjoying twenty weeks of national charting with his Good Old Country Blues single, Morris Rainville returns with a follow-up, Always Hum A Song In Your Soul. Rainville had left the business several years ago, to raise a family, and his return was heralded with this unique climb back into popularity, but this time as a solo act. As The Rainvilles, Morris and his wife chalked up several chart records before they both decided to leave the business. Rainville's direction this time, however, is more in line with country blues, a music form that obviously struck home with country programmers. On this Mike Leaver production, engineered by Darren Williamson at Toronto's Triton Sound, Rainville, on vocals and guitar, is joined by keyboardist Mike Schell and Chris Brown on guitar and bass.

Melissa debuts on Shaw's RBI label

Melissa (McDonald) makes her debut with Fallin' In Love Too Fast, an original produced by Mel Shaw and Don Garbutt and released on Shaw's RBI label. The Calgary-based singer had a unique beginning in the music business, starting first as a trumpet player and then concentrating on voice and guitar. She became so talented with the
