Dan Whitt adds to A&A's return to retail power

Cliff Horwitz, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of A&A Music & Entertainment Inc., has announced the appointment of Dan Whitt to the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of the retail chain. Mr. Whitt is a highly respected retail marketer, who made an impact in Canada as head of Handleman's Canadian operation. His appointment to A&A is welcome news to the industry.

"I hope this means that we'll have some positive publicity for a change," says Horwitz. "I'm getting a little tired of the negatives." He continues with, "We are very much for real." He is referring to the negative press concerning A&A's financial problems at the time Horwitz took over the company. He also heads up the very successful Jumbo Video organization. "There was a little bit too much hype and a little bit too much publicity, which I felt very embarrassed about," says Horwitz, "because it painted me as an individual in a light that I don't really see myself. More importantly, I think it rubbed salt in the wounds of people who were obviously very sensitive at the time, because of the losses they had incurred. Unfortunately, all this added up to a lot of skepticism, a lot of dancing on graves, and a lot of ill will. I think everybody was just highly skeptical, and when I said I was going to hire somebody that I believed was well suited to the position, I was deadly serious."

Horwitz points out that he has been having ongoing talks with Witt and stresses, "We are mutually very happy with the end result," continuing with, "I genuinely believe that we will have an excellent working relationship. He and I worked together in the past and know each other from a relationship that existed between Handleman and Jumbo Video and I think there is a very high level of mutual

EMI signs co-publishing with Trouble In Mind

Toronto-based, alternative rock band Trouble In Mind recently signed an exclusive co-publishing deal with EMI Music Canada.

The band, formed in 1986, comprises Beau (vocals), Rick Marten (bass), Dave Barrett (guitar) and Steve Gamos (drums). They are currently shopping a four track demo which was recorded at Toronto's Metalworks. It was produced by Noel Golden, who has worked with Gowan, Kim Mitchell and Whitesnake.

respect and a desire on both party's part to work cooperatively together."

As far as A&A's present position, Horwitz believes "the worst was over a couple of weeks ago." He goes on to explain, "There was a lot of acrimony created because of a misunderstanding. I think that mistakes were made by some of my staff, who are now no longer with me, and there was a high handed approach to the resolving of certain problems, which is certainly not my way of doing business. And certainly, I believe there may have been some misperceived motives, let's even call it arrogance, which was definitely not my intention. But, be that as it may, I think that having taken the record companies to task, but more importantly, confronted the problems, we have overcome the obstacles and stumbling blocks. I think that all of us have now created a perfectly normal and amicable working relationship."

The change in attitude toward Horwitz is quite evident, as he points out, "I am pleased to see that I am now being very much included as part and parcel of the industry as a whole, and I generally believe the relationship will return to normality very quickly, especially now that Dan is on board." He continues with, "We

Crash Test Dummies ship halfway to gold

The Crash Test Dummies' debut, The Ghosts That Haunt Me, has already shipped more than halfway to gold in just over two months since its release.

Hailing from Winnipeg, The Dummies' unique sound, coupled with singer Brad Roberts' sonorous baritone, has received favourable airplay across the country with their first single Superman's Song. Just recently, the video to the single, directed by Dale Heslip, won a Golden Sheaf Award at the Yorkton Short Film and Video Festival in the category of Best Music Video.

Upcoming dates for The Dummies include Calgary (June 17-18), Edmonton (19), Saskatoon (20), Regina (21-22), Thunder Bay (24), North Bay (26), Barrie (July 1) in the afternoon, and Toronto in the evening.

Perlman withdraws from Retail Music Association

Veteran retailer Malcolm Perlman has withdrawn his 29-store Sunrise chain from the Retail Music Association. He explains, "My feelings are that if a fellow member has so little regard for the perceived value of our product then I don't want to sit at the same table."

Perlman is referring to the recent promotion by HMV for the opening of its new downtown superstore where cassettes were being offered for $3.33 and CDs for $11.33. "We (retailers) look like the biggest bunch of gougers around," says an obviously angry Perlman. "Would a layman believe that anyone would sell something 60 percent below cost?"

The $3.33 pricing for cassettes was a promotion hook, utilizing the 333 Yonge Street address. "It wasn't just the downtown store," says Perlman, "They were selling cassettes for $3.33 at all their stores in Southern Ontario, and served notice of our seriousness of being in the business. Our appointment of Dan has proven to a lot of people who, were otherwise rather skeptical, that we do intend to run A&A as a music company rather than just an investment vehicle. And, while that certainly wasn't the reason for choosing Dan, I think that it has killed two birds with one stone: it has given us someone who is really well qualified to run the company on a day to day basis, and it has also set the tone for what A&A is to be in the future."

A&A has been trimmed to 161 stores, and Horwitz doesn't foresee any further closings. In fact, the opposite would appear to be in future planning. "I believe that we will be poised, in the not too distant future, for further expansion," says Horwitz, concluding with, "I believe implicitly that you can't be in the business and not be looking to expand if the right opportunities come along."

MCA Concerts Canada announces RBI merger

It was announced earlier this week that Rob Bennett of RBI Productions has joined forces with MCA Concerts Canada, reporting directly to Jay Marciano, Senior Vice President. Bennett takes the position of Director Of Entertainment.

Rene Blackman, also of RBI, has been appointed a position in MCA Concerts' Marketing Department, working directly with Sarah Campbell, the National Promotions Manager. Elliot Lefko completes the picture as the Alternative Talent Buyer. Together, the team boasts over 35 years of concert production.

Bennett elaborates, "This is an exciting opportunity that allows me to continue doing business the way I have been doing for many years, while expanding my horizons to greater and better things."

Dire Straits, Robin Williams, George Thorogood, and Bruce Cockburn are just some of the 1000 plus concert events produced by RBI Productions since its creation in 1978.

MCA Concerts Canada is noted for promoting such concerts as Whitney Houston, Don Henley, Poison, Sting, New Kids On The Block and Robert Plant.

CDs for $11.33. It wasn't as if they had a limit. You could go in and buy a hundred copies. This is something that, in the more than twenty-one years I've been in the business, I've never seen. Sunrise has never been a price cutter . . . we follow, but we couldn't follow down to $3.33. I'd rather hand them the business at that price. We are not prepared to give away the shop."

Perlman admits that retail generally is "a little tough right now," citing the lack of new releases as a factor, but the HMV situation is "very very depressing." He continues with, "The news media love it, and, of course consumers are just enthralled with it all. The record retail business in Ontario has been damaged." He concludes with, "I hope the perceived value of the product will be restored once this rash of excitement has been forgotten."

Natalie Cole . . . Unforgettable! When Warner Music's Kim Cooke handed me a promotion copy of Natalie Cole's Unforgettable album, I didn't quite realize what I was in for. The tape opens with a coupling of Natalie and her late dad Nat King Cole with Unforgettable, one of his big hits. And what a superb job of mastering this is. With radio now concentrating on the over 25s, this release could be the top selling AC album of the year. I've never seen Garry Newman so excited, speaking of people over 25. (EC: Haven't you noticed, everyone in the industry is over 25, some even over 40!)

Our favourite lady of the hats . . . ! The Toronto Police Department is pretty touchy over their headwear. Our lady of the hats wore one of her creations, which resembled a cop's beanie, to the Guns 'N Roses Skydome concert. She was tossed out. The tossers-out weren't very nice about it either, and our feisty little lady isn't leaving it at that. (EC: Sounds like she has an "unfair ejection" case . . . !)

Doug Caldwell is back . . . ! I was a little worried that we might have lost a good promotion rep when Island trimmed its size, but Doug Caldwell is a survivor. He is now with Virgin, and they've nicknamed him "Jim", for whatever reason. When he called this week waving the Virgin banner, he scored a first . . . the first time a Virgin promo rep has called on us (EC: The industry needs all the help it can get)

The stuff real artists are made of ! Doing an acoustic set, whether it be piano or guitar, to a gathering of industry people must be unnerving. I've seen a few over the past year or so, Londonbeat at BMG's Heatwave '91, Chris Isaak at Warner Music's head office, and just this week, Elektra recording artist Desmond Child at the Hard Rock Cafe. Outside of a few noisy, too much to drink slob, and the same bunch always show up, Desmond did a superb, nicely clipped and short set of three songs that displayed an amazing vocal range. He gave us a sampling of Love On A Rooftop, the first single, which is #1 at CHR in the U.S., and The Story Of My Life, plus one other, which he co-wrote for Aerosmith. It was a nice party, even with the loudies. (EC: I'll bet they were first in line for the goodies . . . !)

Parties! Parties! Parties . . . ! In the midst of all the doom and gloom, a few of the majors have taken the initiative to display confidence in the industry. BMG took its Heatwave '91 on the road and what a high intensity presentation that was. Capitol hosted a hot, hot, hot rap session at Toronto's Opera House, and Warner Music brought in Desmond Child for a Hard Rock Cafe (Toronto SkyDome) showcase. All three events attracted a good cross section of radio, press and retail people, which must have been reassuring to the organizers. (EC: This is a business that thrives on excitement . . .)

Les Miz is back . . . ! Ed and David Mirvish brought Les Miserables back to Toronto's Royal Alexandra this week (June 11) for what should be another long run. The show, and its exceptionally talented cast is as fresh as when I saw it almost 16 months ago. Cocktails and supper followed the performance at Old Eds. The Mirvishes have a way with live theatre and food, and both made Gino Empry's beautiful people look even more beautiful. We also had the opportunity to schmooze with the cast, wherein lies the secret of the success of Les Miz. This is a company of believers, from the starring roles down to the stage hands, and the talk was "shop" all night. A splendid evening all around (EC: Now, is this a great country, or what . . . ?)

Dick Smyth first with news . . . ! Punching my radio last Friday (June 7), as I often do, I tuned into Dick Smyth's 8 am news on CFTR. At the top of the news, Dick had an item about the two runaway soldiers, who had moments earlier been involved in a Maryland Trooper incident, and he whisked us to Toronto police headquarters for an update about the wounding of one of the soldiers. This all took a matter of a couple of minutes. I punched up "Toronto's authoritative news voice," CFTR, just in time for its first item. Six minutes later, after a dreadful droning of no news items, it was over. No mention of the top story of the hour. Now, who's first in Toronto with news? (EC: More people listen to AM than the FMers want to admit . . . !)

Hey dudes! Check this out . . . ! Rapisgonnafadeto funk dance jerko foffrap. It's been a while since I don't mean to diss about it, so over over over! (EC: Run that past me again . . . !)

Boy! Do I get mad! I really get annoyed when I see all the lead sheets that come in on the fax machine knowing that each full page is filled with chemicals and it's such a waste and pollutant to the environment. It may be nice to announce that you are sending 16 pages, but why waste a whole page to do it? (EC: Save the planet and save some time and money, and don't look stupid!!!) I go out of my way to see every fax lead sheet and find out who sent it!!!

Syd Kessler takes off the wraps . . . ! The largest recording facility in North America, Syd Kessler's baby, is now officially open, and it's in Toronto yet. A tour through the Sounds Interchange/Supercorp complex was mind boggling. It's probably the most up-to-date, technically-perfect sound house in the business . . . all that $25 million could buy. And it's probably the only place in the business world where Labatt's turns a blind eye to Molson's. (EC: Try getting a Molson's at the Skydome).

Get a job!!! I wonder if the top banana would be amazed to know that his second or third banana was applying for every job that he hears of. And, I wonder if the rotten banana knows that he's being thwarted at every turn by an old enemy. (EC: You'll never eat lunch in this town again . . . !)

And The Beat goes on . . . ! One of the greatest honours in the industry is to call on RPM. (EC: You wish!) So, herewith is a list of those lucky people who come in to watch the fashion show at RPM . . . the best dressed people in the industry! (EC: He goes into analysis on Monday!!!)

Rob Mise has been upped to Operations Manager/Program Director at CHNO-AM/CJMX-FM Sudbury, Ontario. He also retains his group P.D. duties in the 17 station, Pelmorex Radio Network. He was previously P.D. at CJMX-FM.

CKFM gives nod to Jonathan Wright, a Carlisle, Ontario singer/songwriter, who won the Toronto station's Songwriting Contest this year. Entitled Backroad Dreams, the song is on CKFM's current rotation and, as Assistant Program Director and Music Director, Wayne Webster points out "there is enough interest in the song to put it out on CD."

The Dave Mayes Spring Tour '91 was tagged a "tremendous success," by the station's Program Director Rob Mise. Listeners wrote in or faxed why they would like FM 105 CJMX morning personality Dave Mayes to broadcast his entire program live from their kitchen. The Saunders family won and station staff and personalities were on hand flipping flapjacks, bacon and hash browns. The Saunders family was also presented with numerous prizes throughout the broadcast including a Getaway Weekend, concert tickets, personalized sweat-shirts and dinners.

St. John's Q93 was in at the beginning, sponsoring blind walker Ken McCollm, in his walk across Canada. The station was an official sponsor on McCollm's walk across Newfoundland, providing daily updates on his walk, and encouraged support from its listeners. Hilary Montbourquette, Q93 Program Director, reveals that Newcap Broadcasting Vice President Gordon Seabright "has requested all G.M.'s in our stations across Canada to help with the profile of this most important fundraiser." McCollm, his four-year old guide dog Darren, and his road manager Mark Mullin, began the walk at St. John's City Hall (Mile 0) on March 20. The trek is expected to be completed in Victoria on December 9. Brenda Perchard, Executive Director Canadian Diabetes Association, Newfoundland Division, points out that this "incredible journey will cross the entire country and will endure four seasons in an effort to raise funds to help in the research to find a cure for diabetes." Perchard also points out that diabetes is the leading cause of blindness in people between the ages of 25 and 45 "and is also the reason why the solitary walker, 29 year old Ken McCollm is without sight. He became blind two years ago."

CKDS-FM's Jeff Lumby, renowned for his song parodies while at Montreal's CJFM, particularly for his work on Oh-No-Ontario and Grape Jam, the title track used in the Don Cherry hockey video series, has captured an equally large audience in Hamilton with his spoofs. His latest, Another Day In Buffalo, based on Phil Collins' superhit, Another Day In Paradise, puts the hot issues of Sunday shopping, border hopping and G.S.T. into song. The parody was written, produced and sung by Lumby's morning sidekick Neil Hedley and is the third such parody released by the CKDS morning team since Lumby's arrival at the Hamilton Light Rock station last September. The song was such a hit with listeners, the station put the parody into its regular playlist, airing it at various times throughout the day.

ENERGY! LG73 recently donated $10,000 to the Living Colour program of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. As the station's Diane Johnson points out this program "enables elementary school students to enjoy the V.S.O. at no charge." Kal Stewart from the LG Morning Zoo presented the cheque.

Q-92 and CKGB Timmins became the first radio stations to flip formats (country going from FM to AM and rock the other way) on April 2nd last year. Q-92/CKGB Program Director Art Pultz points out that "One year later, the flip response in the community remains strong. To celebrate our first year Q-92 commissioned a local bakery to create a monster cake that we could share with our listeners." Through the day, listeners stopped by and had cake and coffee and, on-air, Q gave away another ten birthday cakes emblazoned with the station's call letters. The cakes were personally delivered by the on-air personality who gave them away. "The response from this simple birthday party was beyond belief," says Pultz. "The entire monster cake was demolished by closing and the ten winners couldn't believe the size of their prize . . . I guess they were expecting cup cakes."

Happy Birthday Q92.1 FM (l to r) News Director Dale Tonelli, Program Director Art Pultz, Sales Manager Brian Chulpska, and morning personality J.J. Rogers.

25 years of dirt. CJDC Radio 890 Dawson Creek, B.C. invited the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band to its studios (May 5) to plant a tree commemorating 25 years of dirt. Mike Michaud, General Manager of the station, reports that listeners from all over the Peace River country "mailed or brought in their one ounce of dirt" in response to an on-air contest for 25 tickets to the band's concert which was held later in the evening. The station also received samples of sand from the Red River in Texas and some volcanic ash from Mount St. Hellens, "all of which it feels will enrich the soil for a great start," says Michaud. He goes on to boast that the tree "will remain a decorative entity in the station's foyer for all to see and admire. It will be nurtured to great heights by an enthusiastic staff who feel they've taken a great deal of dirt during this promotion and the entire area will be involved with the results now that the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band has set roots down in Dawson Creek." He concludes with, "It was a lot of fun and when it comes to planting one, the Nitty Gritty know how to do it."

COVER STORY - James Laidlaw

Rich Dodson celebrates Sweet City Woman's 20th year

It was 20 years ago on August 7, 1971 when Sweet City Woman by The Stampeders hit #1 on the RPM 100 Singles chart, heralding the Calgary band's triumphant move into the international market. The record sold more than 2 million copies worldwide, garnered a Juno for the band, was translated into many different languages, including Finnish, and was voted one of the most recognizable songs of the seventies.

To Rich Dodson, the writer of Sweet City Woman, the sweet smell of success was a welcome change to the band's years of slugging it out on the bar circuit. They were now destined to headline their own concert dates throughout North and South America and Europe.

Dodson, who now heads up his own Marigold studio and label complex, recalls his early visions of getting into the music business. "I didn't have an amplifier at first . . . but we hooked up a little thing, a radio with a four inch speaker. I had to wire it up to the jack on the guitar." Like many other aspiring young musicians, Dodson spent most of his time plucking away at his guitar so that he could learn to play all the cool tunes on his records and on the radio. He finally formed a band which included original Stampeders' members, Kim Berly, his brother Race and Brendan Lytle.

Fortunately they met Mel Shaw, who was the co-producer of Guys And Dolls, a local Calgary TV show that was showcasing young acts. Shaw was so impressed with Dodson's band, he joined the team as their manager. A few months later brothers Van and Ronnie King joined the band, and The Stampeders were born.

With new ambitions, a 1957 Cadillac limousine and a rented U-Haul trailer, the newly formed band hit the road for Toronto. The going was tough, but Shaw managed to get the band dates throughout the province and before long The Stampeders became an established and very popular band. Between 1966 and 1970, the band released a number of singles and in the process trimmed the band's number to three: Dodson, Berly and King.

When Sweet City Woman hit, they were ready. However, as Shaw points out, the band's success was the result of six years of "planning, promotion a lot of hardship, promotion, a bit of good luck, and promotion." He continues with, "Although Sweet City Woman was created in 1971, the real creation occurred six years earlier when Rich and the band left their families and friends in their hometown of Calgary. Rich believes in creating music and entertaining people. He's dedicated to this. I had to create an atmosphere and environment where it was possible for them to be as creative as they could. They all participated in the creation of their songs, but it was the lyrical and musical style of Rich Dodson that made the songs what they were. Sweet City Woman was a direct result of the creative environment which he was exposed to. It was a real pleasure to work with him."

Shaw points out however, the disappointment and frustration the band went through in the early sixties and the criticism and lack of interest that the band was up against. Then, when Sweet City Woman happened, suddenly everybody became the closest friends of the band as they became an international success.

In its heyday The Stampeders were billed with some of the top recording acts of the seventies, including Anne Murray, the Beach Boys, Sonny and Cher, Santana, Joe Cocker, Kiss, Mountain and Rush, to name a few. The band played in Brazil at the Brazilian Song Festival, at Hawaii's Festival Of Life and were asked to perform at Keith Moon's birthday party in Los Angeles. The band won a Juno for Single of the Year for Sweet City Woman, Group of the Year and Best Produced Album of the Year. Dodson was honoured with a Juno as Composer of the Year for writing Sweet City Woman.

But whatever happened to this top recording act that had been Canada's top concert draw for five years? Kim Berly is living in Toronto, doing well as an actor, Ronnie King is involved with his own cable TV series in Calgary, and Rich Dodson can be found hanging out in the basement of his North York (Toronto) home, better known as Marigold Studios. He is currently working and writing with ex-Stampeders' engineer Terry Brown and with Eddie M, who has received much attention and considerable airplay with his Mississippi Queen track, which was recorded at Marigold Studios. Dodson is also producing Juno Award nominee Debbie Johnson. He is putting the finishing touches on her new album.

Dodson's own single, Holiday, has done fairly well on the Canadian charts and his new album, tentatively titled Common Ground, is scheduled for release in the fall. Holiday is a light, AC entry with soft rhythms and unique vocal melodies, not unlike those recorded 20 years earlier with Sweet City Woman. His other singles, Love City and Cruel Emotion, have been created with the same musical integrity and class that were present throughout the history of the Stampeders, yet retains the influence of more than 25 years of songwriting, the ever changing technology in the music industry and pop music style of the nineties.

The Top five again! Paula Abdul's Rush Rush jumps into the No. 4 spot. It is her sixth song to reach the Top five. All five releases from her first album, Forever Your Girl, went that high. The streak was broken when Knocked Out, from the Remix album peaked at No. 27.

Five isn't even close. With the first five songs reaching the Top five, Paula Abdul is near the top in best starts to a career. Name the artist who had the most songs reach the Top five at the start of a career?

Cancon explosion . . . Roxette has this week's top add with Fading Like A Flower (Every Time You Leave). It enters at No. 53. Gregory Hoskins & The Stickpeople have the next highest debut at No. 72. It is one of five Canadian songs to enter the chart this week. The others are: Darby Mills (Cry To Me No. 88), Aldo Nova (Blood On The Bricks No. 89), Blue Rodeo (After The Rain No. 90), and Glen Stace (Runaround No. 96).

Dummies passing the test! The Eurythmics' Greatest Hits blasts into The Top 20 on the Albums chart. It is the biggest mover this week, jumping 28 spots to No. 14. The Crash Test Dummies' The Ghosts That Haunt Me is another hot mover. It climbs to No. 15 in its fifth week. It is there on the strength of Superman's Song, which rises to No. 34 on the Hit Tracks chart.

Hoping to repeat. Maestro Fresh-Wes debuts on the Albums chart at No. 45 with Black Tie Affair. His last album, Symphony In Effect, at No. 4 and ended up as the No. 23 album of the year. The only other Canadian album higher on the year-end chart was Alannah Myles' self-titled debut.

King of the T's . . . Ice-T's O.G. Original Gangster edges upward to No. 29 in its third week. That's well ahead of Timmy T's Time After Time, which was at No. 40 in its third week and peaked at No. 27. Wild T's Love Crazy was at No. 86 in its third week.

The hottest start! The Monkees got off to a very quick start, having their first six releases all hitting No. 1 and their seventh release, D.W. Washburn peaked at No. 2. However, George Michael's first nine releases all hit either No. 1 or No. 2. That string was broken when Waiting For That Day peaked at No. 9 a couple of months ago. Dating back to his days with Wham!, everything he has released has hit the Top 10, a run of 16 straight!

Capitol Canada gearing for summer sales action

Capitol Canada's domestic division is expecting a busy summer with a variety of artist releases.

Now in stores is a recent Toronto signing, One Free Fall. Their debut, entitled Quoc-te, is a specially priced EP/Mini-LP containing five tracks.

Capitol also released We United To Do this, a compilation of dance artists, producers and songwriters put together by the production team of Simply Majestic. Headed by Anthony Bond, Simply Majestic won a Juno this year for artist B-Kool in the Best R&B/Soul recording category. Featured on this album are Brothers In The Ghetto with Frank Morell, Simply Majestic with B-Kool, MCA-OKAY, and Point Blank among others.

A July release will feature Chrissy Steele's debut. Her release is a collaboration with Brian 'Too Loud' McLeod, ex of the Headpins, and is available on Capitol in Canada and Chrysalis in other territories. When Chrysalis officially becomes part of the Capitol family this year, it will revert to the Chrysalis label in Canada.

As the summer winds down, September is firmed for a new Tom Cochrane release and a debut from Toronto rockers Slik Toxic.

BMG Music hits the road with Heatwave '91

BMG Music Canada took several of its acts on the road with Heatwave '91 (RPM - June 8/91), playing six major Canadian markets in just over one week. As Carol Wright, BMG's Director of Marketing, explains, "The concept of Heatwave '91 was to present retail, radio and media the full spectrum of artists on BMG and to give them a sampling of the great music we will be releasing in the fall."

In each city, the evening consisted of an audio/visual presentation introduced by Wright, Sarah Norris and Jim Campbell. Included were world premieres of Arthur Baker, Midge Ure and Garland Jeffreys. Various BMG artists also performed live.

Appearing live in Toronto (May 28) and Montreal (29) were Arista recording artists Londonbeat and Keedy. Samantha Fox also appeared to introduce her new video and single (Hurt Me! Hurt Me!) But The Pants Stay On, taken from her new Jive album Just One Night. Industry reaction was positive. Thom McKerchar from Sam The Record Man's Yonge Street store, was impressed by "The professionalism of the entire BMG staff," continuing with "The added personal touch of the artists performing and mingling with the crowd made this a truly memorable evening." From CKFM Radio, "BMG has set a new standard for record company functions of this nature."

The show played Winnipeg (June 3) and Calgary (4) with live performances by Arista recording artists Pam Tillis and three members from Crash Test Dummies (Brad and Dan Roberts and Ellen Reid). As well, Prairie Oyster's Russell deCarle introduced material from the band's new album, set for a fall release.

Edmonton was the next stop (5), with live performances by Pam Tillis and RCA recording

John Copping and EMI sign co-publishing deal

EMI Music Publishing Canada announces the recent signing of singer/songwriter John Copping to an exclusive co-publishing deal.

Toronto radio listeners are familiar with Copping's song Girl Of Your Dreams, which has received favourable airplay on CFNY. Copping also has club experience having performed with The Amateurs in the Toronto area.

Copping is now focusing his efforts on songwriting and is currently mixing demos at Manta Sound, with producer Chris Wardman.

artist Vinnie James, who performed various tracks from All American Boy, his debut album. Black Money has been taken as the first single. Russell deCarle introduced new material from Prairie Oyster's upcoming album. Press, radio and retail reaction was, again, positive. The Edmonton Sun's Peter North wrote, "The company (BMG) went all out and provided an audience of record retailers, radio folk and press hounds with an evening that won't be forgotten for a while." Said CHED's James Stuart, "Exposure like this buys excitement," and Lisa Gagon from HMV West Edmonton Mall, stated, "Undoubtedly one of the best presentations ever seen. It was nice to see new artists perform and meet and greet afterwards."

The cross-country trek ended in Vancouver (6) with featured performances by Vinnie James and Crash Test Dummies.

COUNTRY

K.T. Oslin is firmed for the Forum of Ontario Place (Toronto) for July 30. She is on release with her latest RCA single, You Call Everybody Darling.

True Blue is Larry Mercey's latest single, the fourth taken from his Full Speed Ahead album. The single, produced in Nashville, was written by Mercey, Lee Bach and Larry Shell. The track is included on RDR Countrypak 4, which also contains Full Speed Ahead (Total Recall), previously only available on vinyl.

Debbie Baker makes her debut on Frank Fara's Comstock label with the Arnold Sampson penning of Send Me A Picture. Anything That Feels Like Love, written by Baker and Rick Gautreau, is on the flip of the 7" vinyl single.

Royalty has shipped its new four-song CD sampler to radio. The CD contains tracks by R. Harlan Smith (Yesterdays) a Smith original; Deserie (Sign On For The Long Run), a Nielsen/Lindsay penning); Chris Nielsen (Loving You Losing You), written by R. Harlan Smith; and Trevor Watkins (Mrs. Thomson Called Today), written by P. Hotchkiss.

Bigfoot's Bob Gill is back with his follow-up to We Still Walk Hand In Hand. The new 7" vinyl single, You'll Get Your Love Back, was written by the well known Nashville team of Bourke/Blackwood/Beland, and produced by Charles Cozens and Gene Rice.

Calgary's Country 105 Live From... broadcast concert series recently taped Vancouver's Jess Lee and his new band (June 6) at Coyote Sam's Country Saloon in the Westgate Hotel. On-air personality Frank Sasin hosted the evening.

Savannah's Good Brothers were nominated by American country radio for a 1991 Major Independent Record Label Award (MIRL Award) as Country Group of the Year. Nominations for the MIRL Awards were sent out to 2600 U.S. country stations on April 15/91. After the results of the nominations were tabulated, the official ballot was sent out to the same 2600 stations on May 15/91. The names of the winners in all categories were announced June 13 at the fourth annual MIRL Awards Show which were held in Nashville during Fan Fair at the Opryland Hotel. We'll have the results next week.

All Star Country Enters fourth year

After three successful years, Seacoast Sound's All Star Country is set to take off on its fourth year of featuring country artists. Over the last three years, the syndicated series has grown to be a daily feature on more than sixty stations across Canada and now boasts a weekly audience of more than 200,000.

The host of the show, Dave McCormick says "It's been a thrill to be a part of this program. It has turned into Canada's hottest and most authoritative daily country feature. We want to send out a great big thank you to all the stations that have been a part of All Star Country over the past three years." The show has spotlighted hundreds of artists from Randy Travis to Billy Dean.

Seacoast Sound, of Victoria BC, is recognized for the radio program series Music '91 Magazine, which was produced for British Columbia's 1991 Year of Music promotion, as well as successful network radio shows The Canadian Farmer and The Pro Shop.

Warhurst production for Lee Dinwoodie debut

New from Saddlestone Records is Lee Dinwoodie's debut CD/cassette, Personally, produced by Albertan Roy Warhurst, one of Canada's top country producers and a worldclass fiddler. The album, featuring some of the top session people in the business, was recorded at Calgary's Sarcee Sound. Much of the material was penned by Dinwoodie, a native of Vernon, B.C.

Dinwoodie is considered one of the fastest-rising country artists in B.C. He has already appeared on the Tommy Hunter Show and the Alberta-produced Capital Country and has released three videos, Memory Lane, Honky Tonk Sounds and Midnight Moon, all three of which have been aired by B.C. Music Project and MuchMusic's Outlaws And Heroes. On the international front, he has been featured on five different TNN programs, and just recently, Paycheck To Paycheck, one of his latests songs, was spotlighted on Nashville Nightline.

Firmly established on the Western Canadian live circuit, Dinwoodie is gearing for a busy summer with a number of concerts for B.C.'s Music '91 Roadshow series, as well as a July 11 date at The Hedley Blast, the province's biggest country music festival. He has also been filmed for a July 13 performance at Saskatchewan's giant Craven Festival.

BOOTS & JEANS

New single from his latest album

BOOTS & JEANS

Tel: 604-535-3129

I was there in Memphis
the day after Elvis died.
But I never went to Graceland;
'cause I didn't want to miss my ride.

I've been down in Louisiana, spent a night in New Orleans.
But I never did sleep well enough to dream the American Dream.

Flew into New York City,
another face in the crowd.
They took me in a limousine to an office up above the clouds.

They said, "One and one is three;
nothing's as it seems".
I didn't sleep at all that night,
so I missed the American Dream.

Drove through a freezing winter through the middle of the great heartland.
Spent my nights in truck stops,
my days with the country fans.

Rollin' on till daybreak,
sleepin' in my jeans,
But I don't think dreaming of home is the American Dream.

I've been down to Hollywood,
I've been to L.A.
Where people shook my hand
while they were looking the other way, where everyone was dreaming
everyone but me.
I'm sorry, but I don't believe the American Dream.

HEY HEY GET OUT OF MY WAY
JUST GOT BACK FROM THE U.S.A.

The new single "AMERICAN DREAM" from TROOPER

Available on their tenth album "Ten," following nine great Canadian releases and over two million units sold.
